Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Palace—"Palmy Days."
Preview Saturday 11 P. M., Tuesday, Wednesday—Palace—"The Passionate Plumber."
Saturday noon—Assembly Hall—"Devil to Pay."
Saturday night—Assembly Hall—"Delicious."
Wednesday—Assembly Hall—"Reaching for the Moon."
Sunday, Monday—Palace—"The Hatched Man."

One of the best comedies of the year is Cantor's "Palmy Days." Eddie as a French hypnotist holds side splitting seances, and is none the less funny as the efficiency expert in a doughnut factory. Charlotte Greenwood and a company of the world's most beautiful girls put the show over with a bang.

Call For Freshman Baseball Brings 74

Freshman Coach, Captain E. L. Lyon's first call for freshman baseball players was answered by 74 candidates eager to begin work Monday afternoon. Of this number there were only five pitchers and seven catchers. The total number of entries is expected to swell to 120 by next week, which will be larger than that reporting last year.

Of this bevy of players nothing is known except that one pitcher, J. T. Mooty, Ft. Worth, comes with a very impressive record. Candidates for the battery will report next Monday afternoon at three o'clock, while the rest will not begin workouts until Monday, February 22. Uniforms will be issued Thursday afternoon.

Scotch waif who wins the heart of Charles, a millionaire, from his rich lady friends, reforms his family, and all to the tune of some delightful music by Gershwin.

Douglas Fairbanks returns in "Reaching for the Moon," as a careless bachelor stockholder who has never been in love. A few drinks make him cave-mannish enough to win Bebe Daniels, who as a wealthy society girl, leads him back to recoup a lost fortune.

The screen's greatest character actor, Edward G. Robinson, gives another thriller to the movie public in the role of "The Hatched Man," the Honorable Mr. Wong, a man who served the two masters of Love and Hate. This picture of the mystery and intrigue of Chinatown, should prove itself excellent entertainment. If you enjoyed him in "Little Caesar" and his other pictures, you will find him greater than ever in this.

Giant Voices Save Lives

Orators long have praised the presence of mind of men at the helm and the throttle. Recently another kind of quick action has just as surely saved lives.

A dispatch from Europe reveals how a stampede of 50,000 people was halted when the grandstand at the Holland-Belgium Rugby match collapsed. Roaring through a loud-speaker, an official quieted the mob. This recalls a similar incident in this country when "Speed" Holman, the fier, fell to his death before 20,000 spectators. Panic threatened and Jim Ewing, announcer, thundered at the crowd through the Western Electric public address system, holding it spellbound until the band played and the next planes flew.

Austin Architect Explains Problems In Structure Work

Unusual problems in Structural Design was the subject treated by Munice Wilson, members of the Austin architectural firm of Giesecke and Harris, in an address to the Architectural Club Tuesday evening. Mr. Wilson, who is a graduate of the University of Texas, is at A and M temporarily in connection with the plans for the new Mr. Wilson explained some of the unusual problems he has encountered while practicing and presented his solutions to the club. Temperature expansion problems, building code problems, and problems dealing with large cantilever beams were some of the unusual situations encountered, and required unestablished solutions in many cases.

Tumblers Put On Performance For Baylor College

Twelve members of the Texas Aggie tumbling team gave a performance at Baylor College at Belton, Saturday, February 6. The Aggie performance was preceded by an exhibition given by the Baylor girls and was followed by a reception in honor of the A and M team.

Entertainment at the reception consisted of a tap dance and a song given by Baylor girls and a song given by L. Manzanera of the Aggie team. Probably the feature point of the program was when Captain V. D. Want of the Aggies requested Miss Mary Nan Bryan to give an encore to her song to which she responded but with the stipulation that Want accompany her by holding her hand. Members of the team who made the trip were: V. D. Want, J. H. Caddess, N. O. Corman, L. Manzanera, M. S. Burton, R. E. Cox, J. A. Jeffries, R. E. Porter, J. H. Moore, K. Wolf, L. Valek, and C. Shumocker.

Fishermen Take Two Fast Games From Waco High

Terrell and Hutto Tie for High Point Man.

Coach Klepto Holmes freshman basketballers celebrated their return to active play against their first outside competition in over two weeks by beating Coach "Bill" Henderson's Waco High Tigers 23-20 Friday afternoon, and again taking them into camp 31-21 Saturday night in the Memorial Gymnasium.

Breaking loose from a 3-all deadlock early in the game, and then jumping into a lead that gave them a 11-3 advantage at the end of the first quarter, the freshmen were able to take the visitors into tow Friday night. Ragged passing and slack guarding of the freshmen enabled the Waco boys to close in on them after the first quarter and match point for point. W. B. Breazeale, Crockett; was high point man with twelve counters to his credit.

The close guarding of Tommy Hutto, Coahoma; and the consistent control at the tip-off by Breazeale coupled with good work by the forwards enabled the freshmen to again take the visitors in tow Saturday afternoon. Hutto and T. H. Terrell, El Paso; were high point men with ten counters each.

Joe Bisbey, Houston; Terrell, Breazeale, and Hutto have each averaged over seven points in each of their seven games played.

"and how he can Sing!"

The Chesterfield soloist ALEX GRAY

Whether it's a tender old love song or a dashing hit from the latest show, there's the deep thrill of real music in whatever he sings. Hear his fine voice in the Chesterfield Radio Program. And hear Nat Shilkret, too, with his beautifully-balanced big orchestra.
