SHE'S A THREE-TIMIN' GAL

Tom buys at 10, Ted at 2, and Fred at 4 o'clock. Can a "Honey" help it, if Boy Friends must have a play-mate when drinking a bite to eat? Is she to blame if it dulls the sharp edge of appetite, saves lunch money and keeps her figure trim? You can't call that gold-digging can you? Get "hep" girls! It ain't no sin to go out with him at 10, 2 and 4 o'clock.

SHOW TALK

By Phillip John

Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Palace—"The Broken Wing" also Laurel-Hardy comedy "Music Box." Friday—Assembly Hall—"Peach O'Reno." (Benefit). Saturday—Assembly Hall—"Dr. Jekyll, Mr. Hyde." Saturday preview, Tuesday, Wednesday—Palace—"Strangers in Love." Sunday, Monday—Palace—"Alias the Doctor." Wednesday—Assembly Hall—"Beast of the City."

A young American aviator crashes in El Suelo, crashes into the home of a ravishing young senorita, Lupe Valez, and crashes into a revolution and a picture full of thrills, loses his memory, can't remember his wife, or his past, but what an active present he lives through. "Broken Wing," features Lupe Valez, fiery star of Ziegfeld's "Hot-cha," Leo Carrillo, the bad hombre, Melvyn Douglas, the young aviator, and George Barbier.

Wheeler and Woolsey go wild again in their latest picture "Peach O'Reno," an interesting and novel slant on the Reno divorce mill, that will give you many a laugh. Benefit A. S. C. E.

If you haven't seen Frederic March in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," you have missed one of the best of the season's thrillers. The sound version even surpasses the excellent silent thriller, and March's transformations are enough to figure out if you miss the rest of the picture.

Frederic March, whose amazing double role in "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," is still a topic of conversation, has a new dual portrayal of a more genteel cut as a twin brother in "Strangers in Love," filmed from the novel, "The Shorn Lamb," March enacts the role of a usurping son who forges a will to deprive a brother of his inheritance, and also the role of the vagabond brother who comes to his own after a series of thrilling episodes. Kay Francis, Juliette Compton, and Stuart Erwin head the support cast.

Richard Barthelmess scores a hit in "Alias the Doctor," with Marian Marsh. Richard plays the part of Karl, an orphan, brought up by

Olympic Boxing Preliminaries Start In April

State College, Pa., Mar. 22—From the Pacific Coast, the Southwest, Dixie, the Atlantic Seaboard from Florida to Maine and all regions in between, they'll come! College boxers already are tuning up for the National Collegiate Olympic tryouts to be held in the Penn State Recreation Hall, April 8 and 9.

Choose Four Men

Four outstanding boxers in each weight division will be selected from the tournament competition to represent the collegiate ring in the final American Olympic team tryouts to be held in July, in addition to the selection of individual National Collegiate champions in eight different weights.

Invitations to send representatives to the tourney have been issued to 300 colleges and universities throughout the country.

Good Men Expected

Among those expected to compete in the tournament are the fighters pictured above. Minardi, University of Florida captain and two-time Southern Conference 118-pound champion; Ray Beatty and Early Stevens, California aces; Bob Eldred, undefeated and Pacific Coast amateur 160-pound champion from Washington State; Captain Roy Dunn, Virginia Military Institute light heavyweight; Brannen, New Hampshire bantamweight; and Thompson, Oklahoma A. and M. middleweight, are among the boxers who are expected to seek Mother Brennen in Bavaria, with her own two children, Lottie and Stephen. He falls in love with Lottie, but on graduation from medical school, takes blame for an operation to save Stephen, and goes to prison. Later, when Stephen dies, he takes his name, and earns a reputation as a great surgeon. It is excellent drama, all roles capably acted, among excellent scenes.

An excellent story of a fight between gangs and the police, in which the police now receive the glory, is portrayed in "Beast of the City," with an excellent cast, Walter Houston, Jean Harlow, Jean Hersholt, and Wallace Ford. The picture has plenty of action and a whirlwind finish.

Frog Track Team Shows Power At Fort Worth Meet

Frog Men Miss Winning By Three And One-half Points; Texas Next.

Further proof that the T C U track and field team must be taken into serious consideration by other conference title aspirants was in evidence on the Horned Frog track Saturday, March 13, when only 3½ points separated them from the 40 scored by the Oklahoma Aggies in winning the track meet held annually during the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Fort Worth.

Texas University came in third with 30 points, while trailing in the order named were Southwestern University of Oklahoma, 14; Abilene Christian College, 11½; and Texas A and M with five points, which were made with two entries, D. S. Wingo, Wills Point, placing second in the high jump, and Sam McCluney, Waxahachie, who took third in the discus.

The absence of the champion Rice Owls and the majority of the Texas Aggie track team apparently accounted for such a large number of points scored by the Frogs, because although they have a few outstanding individuals, they do not have the balanced team that represent Rice, Texas, and A and M.

A bevy of hurdlers and sprinters, led by Charlie Casper, sensational sophomore, and Red Oliver, often referred to as the "fastest football back in the United States," nearly took the meet for T C U even after one of the Frogs fast dash men had refused to run on account of the weather.

collegiate and Olympic honors in the tournament.

The Penn State gym, used as the background in the picture, has been the scene of three such tournaments in the past. In 1930 the national collegiate wrestling championships were decided there. The previous year it was the scene of the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association tournament and again last year, 1931. Having a seating capacity of over 5000, it presents an ideal setting for a collegiate tournament.

Something To Think About

When you buy on price you can never be sure. It's unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to add something for the risk you run—and if you do that, you will have enough to pay for quality. Remember, QUALITY is never cheap.
