SHOW TALK

By Phillip John

Thursday, Friday, Saturday—Palace—"But The Flesh Is Weak." Saturday, Preview, Tuesday, Wednesday—Palace—"Beauty and the Boss."
Thursday — Assembly Hall — "Side Show."
Friday — Assembly Hall — "Rebound."
Saturday — Assembly Hall — "The Tip-Off."
Sunday, Monday — Palace — "The World and the Flesh."
Wednesday 27th—Assembly Hall — "Arsene Lupin."

"But the Flesh is Weak," is Robert Montgomery's last picture. Like Montgomery? If you do, you'll like this picture, and if you don't you'll like it anyway.

"Beauty and the Boss," fooled you that time, but maybe he is a beast, and the beauty is Marian Marsh.

Winnie Lightner is the whole "Sideshow," in her circus comedy, with Charles Butterworth and Evalyn Knapp.

Ina Claire, Robert Ames, and Myrna Loy lead in the story of the lady who caught a husband on the "Rebound."

Eddie Quillan and Robert Armstrong are featured in "The Tip-Off," a comedy romance of radio-land.

Mariam Hopkins and George Bancroft are the leads in "The World and the Flesh."

"Arsene Lupin" features the two Barrymores in a vehicle that permits the two of them to display their abilities without stealing any lines.

Watch for "Around the World in 80 Minutes" with Douglas Fairbanks, coming to the Assembly Hall, benefitting a refrigerated drinking fountain for Aggieldand.

will be furnished by Ralph Bennett's Seven Aces who have been playing for the past few months in the northern states, but were formerly in Dallas at The Baker Hotel. The orchestra will be located on a raised stage structure in the center of the mess hall.

Following the acceptance of the queen, the dance will complete the evening's program.

Thursday afternoon an exhibition drill will be given by the organization.

Saturday afternoon at the Bryan Country Club, a tea dansante honoring the guests of the members of the Ross Volunteers will be given. Another ball will be given Friday night with a concluding dance Saturday night.

As well as members of the organization, an invitation has been extended to all members of the junior and senior classes to attend.

and honesty of the salesman or underwriter; it is deplorable to turn loose on the unwary public agents who don't know what they're doing or how to do it."

Allyn Foster Will Speak Here One Week Next Month

Dr. Allyn K. Foster, Educational Secretary of the Board of the Northern Baptist Church, will be on the campus five days beginning Sunday, May 1. Dr. Foster has been on an extensive visit to all large educational institutions in the country and since September has made a tour of all colleges of the far and middle West without a vacation.

Details of the program to be carried out by Dr. Foster will be announced later. He was on this campus one week in March last year and is remembered as a forceful preacher and a deep scholar.

hall. A feature of last night's program was a concert by a 65-piece Future Farmers Band, composed of students of vocational agriculture from schools all over the state, directed by T. K. Morris, of Itasca.

J. R. Bertrand, junior students from White Deer, pupil of J. R. Hewitt, was announced state winner in the master vocational agricultural pupil contest. Bertrand has had two years of agricultural study and was previously adjudged winner in the Northwest Texas district.

This award is given on the basis of projects, project labor income, prizes and premiums won, investment in farming, ability to farm, leadership, and ability to work with others.

Dean E. J. Kyle, of the College's school of agriculture, served as chairman of the Smith-Hughes Day program and Prof. E. R. Alexander, department of agricultural education, chairman of rules and regulations committee.

For bedtime hunger

DROP in at your regular eating place and order a bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. It's great for a late snack. So easy to digest it encourages restful sleep. How much better than hot, heavy foods!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes are also delightful for lunch. Try them with sliced bananas or preserved fruit. Crisp, toasted flakes with "the flavor that tempts your taste"—that's Kellogg's.

The most popular cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include ALL-BRAN, PEP Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Also Kafkee Hag Coffee—real coffee that lets you sleep.

HORN IN ON THIS $25,000!

WRITE A "BLURB"!

464 CASH PRIZES THIS MONTH—2 FIRST PRIZES OF $500 EACH

SEE those "blurbs" coming out of the men's mouths? Can you write one? We're putting up $25,000 in cash for those who can. Get your pencil out—now!

Here's the idea. In a field of 176 competing brands, Colgate's and Palmolive are the two outstanding leaders. They have won an overwhelming preference over all other shaving creams.

We know that Palmolive users swear there's nothing as good as Palmolive. And Colgate shavers claim that Colgate's beats 'em all in a walk.

What we want is your opinion. Do you side with Jim or his Dad in the big Palmolive vs. Colgate's argument? Are you a Colgate fan or a Palmolive booster. Let's hear from you!

In ONE of the empty "blurb" spaces, or on a separate sheet of paper, just say your say. In your own words, write your boost for Colgate's—or for Palmolive—not both. 464 cash prizes each month for the best "blurbs" sent to us!

Here's where you take your shot at some of that $25,000
Jim wants you Palmolive users to back him up. His Dad wants every Colgate shaver's help. If you haven't tried either of these famous shaving creams, start now and get into this $25,000 argument.

CONTEST RULES

MAIL your "blurb" with name and address to Contest Editors, Dept. CN-5, P. O. Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois.

The prize money (totaling $25,000) is divided into six sets of monthly prizes (each set totaling $4200). At the end of each month prizes are awarded (see list at right) for the best "blurbs" received during that month, as follows:

Feb. 29, $4200 Mar. 31, $4200
April 30, $4200 May 31, $4200
June 30, $4200 July 31, $4200
{ Contest closes July 31, 1932 }

Contest is open only to residents of the United States and Canada. Employees of the manufacturers and their families are not eligible to compete.

In event of a tie, each tying contestant will be awarded full amount of the prize tied for. Decision of the judges shall be final. All contributions shall become the property of the manufacturers, to be used in any way desired.

Some hints to help you win

Here are some facts about the world's two largest selling shaving creams—Colgate's and Palmolive. Here are some of the reasons why men prefer these famous shaving creams.

PALMOLIVE
1. Multiplies itself in lather 250 times.
2. Softens the beard in one minute.
3. Maintains its creamy fullness for 10 minutes.
4. Fine after-effects due to olive oil content.

COLGATE'S
1. Breaks up oil film that covers each hair.
2. Small bubbles get down to the base of the beard, hold water against each hair at skin-line and soak it soft where the razor works.
3. Gives a close, skin-line shave due to small bubble action.
4. Gives a lasting, 24-hour shave.

Here are the prizes for each month—464 in all!
