Dean Friley Accepts Position At Iowa State College--Change Will Become Effective On September 1

Local Registrar And Dean To Head Industrial Science Division At Iowa College.

Dean Charles E. Friley, dean of the School of Arts and Sciences since 1924 and registrar of the college, has announced his acceptance of the post as dean of the Industrial Science Division at Iowa State College, to be effective September 1. The position was tendered Dean Friley by President H. M. Hughes, of the Iowa institution, when he paid A & M a brief visit several weeks ago, and Dean Friley's announcement of acceptance was made early this week.

Expressing regret at leaving the institution with which he has been connected as student and faculty member since 1910, Dean Friley explained that the offer from Iowa was one which he felt that he could not reject.

Born In Ruston

Friley was born at Ruston, La., but came to Texas when three years of age and to Bryan when five. He was graduated from Bryan high school in 1903 and from the Sam Houston State Normal in 1905. He attended Baylor university from 1905 to 1907 and following several years as a teacher, he entered A and M in 1910.

In 1910 he was awarded a B. S. degree in agricultural education at A & M, this being the first such degree to be awarded by the college. He was named secretary of the college in 1911, a post which was changed to registrar in 1913.

Degree At Columbia

In 1923 Dean Friley received his M. A. degree from Columbia, and Simmons university conferred an honorary LL. D. degree upon him in 1929. He is now doing work toward his doctorate at the University of Chicago, where he was a professor of education during the summer of 1931.

While at A & M Dean Friley has served upon a number of administrative committees and has held various other posts of importance. He is at present chairman of the A & M athletic council and secretary of the Southwest Athletic Conference. He has been a member of the Texas committee on accredited schools since 1917 and is a member of the Association of Collegiate Registrars, of which he was president in 1929.

Trackmen Expected To Show New Form In Triangle Meet

Improvement Will Tell In Meet With Texas And Rice In Austin Next Saturday.

Confident of their ability to place high in the Southwest track and field meet in Houston on May 13 and 14, the Aggie track team will be given a chance to prove a thing or two when they tangle with Rice Institute's Owls and the Steers of Texas University in a triangular meet Saturday afternoon in Austin.

This meet, which will be the last of any kind before the conference tie-up on Rice field, is certain to be the outstanding one of the season, either dual or triangular. It brings together three of the leading contenders for the crown this season, each being particularly strong in some events and not glaringly weak in any. All three teams have sprinters worthy of recognition. Rice and Texas are particularly dangerous in the middle distances, but the Aggies are due to place. Morris, Aggie hurdler from Waxahachie, is virtually certain to place in the hurdle races if not to win one, while Billimek and McVey should take at least one place in the other hurdle race.

In the field events A & M holds a slight edge in the shot-put and

College Livestock Takes Many Prizes In Houston Contest

Four Grand Championships Won In Fat Stock Show.

A and M College entries in the cattle and hog divisions at the First Annual Houston Fat Stock Show Monday won four grand championships, several first places, and a number of other places. Many of the prize winning animals were sold at auction after the judgment Monday night.

Proud Lassie, a spayed heifer, was judged the grand champion of the Aberdeen-Angus class, while College Perfecto, a shorthorn yearling, won the championship yearling honors for all breeds, and Blue Bonnet, a cross bred Shorthorn, won champion Shorthorn steer honors. A and M won all awards in the Aberdeen-Angus classes.

A heavyweight Duroc Jersey barrow, Aggie Pride, and a pen of three heavy weights of the same class, were judged grand champions in their respective contests. Three lightweight Duroc barrows, three Hampshire barrows, and three Berkshire barrows, each won first place in their respective classes. Other Duroc Jersey entries placed second and third, and Hampshire entries won one first, one third and two fourth places.

Fifteen Letters Given Swimmers For This Season

Largest Number Of Awards Since The Organization Of The Team.

Fifteen letters, the largest number since the organization of the Texas Aggie swimming team, were presented to the members of the 1932 team Wednesday afternoon. Besides those in swimming, there were ten letters presented to the members of the newly organized water polo team.

Members of the swimming team to receive letters were: R. L. Suggs, E. E. Osborn, J. F. Howder, C. J. Charske, R. C. Jorgenson, R. E. Cox, R. M. Smith, A. Threadgill, T. L. Uhr, L. F. Wanjaja, R. T. Brinsmade, J. E. Moeller, Joseph Cockrell, E. T. Shepherd, and W. S. Sinclair. The members of the polo team lettering were: R. M. Smith, E. E. Osburn, C. J. Charske, R. C. Jorgenson, E. T. Shepherd, R. T. Brinsmade, Joseph Cockrell, J. E. Moeller, R. L. Suggs, and J. R. Knott.

Every one of these lettermen will return to college next year except Co-Captain R. L. Suggs. This will leave the Aggie team one of the most powerful teams in several years for the 1933 team.

College Reorganization of Collegiate Life And Class Instruction In Many Forms

(Editor's note: This is the second of a series of four articles on outstanding current developments in the field of higher education, written especially for The Battalion by the editor of College News Service.)

By James Crenshaw

When higher educational institutions first got under way in the United States, college training was something toward which the young, newly emancipated democrat could strive.

Gradually, education became a game, with representatives of all classes striving for a degree-granted culture, diluted by a certain amount of pragmatic training. The

ORDERS ARRIVE FOR NEW MEN ON ARMY STAFF

Two Men Named For Vacancy In Military Science Personnel; Others To Be Announced.

Orders received from the War Department state that among the new members of the military personnel for next year will include Lt. John J. Binns, of the Field Artillery and Lt. Kingsley S. Anderson, of the Engineers. These officers will fill vacancies left by Captain T. C. Harry and Captain Lewis A. Pick respectively, who have served their regular term of four years here.

Captain Harry will go from here to the Field Artillery school at Fort Sill, Okla., while Captain Pick will be stationed at the Commander General Staff School at Ft. Leavenworth, Lt. E. T. McCullough has received orders to go to the 18th Infantry stationed at Ft. Slocum, New York.

Three other officers are to leave the college with the close of this term, but have not received orders from the War Department regarding their destination. They are Col. C. J. Nelson, Maj. I. G. Walker, and Captain E. L. Lyons.

No information has been received concerning who will take the place of these officers.

Aggieland Orchestra Signs Contract With Summer Resort Hotel

The Aggie Land Orchestra has just signed a fourteen weeks contract with The Galvez Hotel to play for them during the summer months. The orchestra will be under the direction of Podge Reed, pianist, and will give concerts during the dinner hours and at dances on Saturday nights.

The Aggie Land has the reputation of being one of the best college dance orchestras in the South, having attained their rating only through persistent work and practice. They made quite a reputation for themselves during the Christmas holidays playing over the state. Several years ago they were contracted by The Mallory Line, playing for their Cuban trips.

The Aggie Land will play a war dance at the End o' Main dance hall in Houston, May 14th opposite Curtis Smith and his band. This is the night following the conference track meet at Rice Institute.

Jones Made President Of Beaumont Society

Kibby Jones, junior student in electrical engineering, was elected president of the Beaumont club for the 1932-33 college year and W. R. Montague, junior petroleum engineering student, was selected vice-president at a meeting of the club Sunday afternoon.

Jones and Montague were chosen to succeed A. J. Blanchette and Tom Patrick, graduating seniors and president and vice-president respectively of the club this year.

FIVE ENTER IN CONTEST FOR DOWNS AWARD

P. L. Downs '79 To Be Chairman As Five Speakers Compete.

Ranking orators of the student body, chosen in preliminary try-outs held recently, will compete for the annual P. L. Downs oratorical award at the Assembly Hall Thursday evening, C. O. Spriggs, professor of public speaking and coach of the debating team has announced. The declamations will start at 8 o'clock.

Five contestants who have been chosen for the finals are J. L. R. Bergendahl, San Antonio; H. N. Irvine, Fort Worth; B. L. Delleney, Denton; J. W. Wells, Aransas Pass; J. E. Gaston, Henderson. Alternate to speak in the absence of the candidates, is R. T. Brinsmade, Mexico City.

The annual contest is sponsored each year by Colonel P. L. Downs, Temple, a graduate of A and M in 1879, who has sponsored the contests since 1925. Colonel Downs will be chairman of the contest Thursday evening.

Although there are two former winners of the Downs award now in the student body, I. A. Handler, Galveston, 1931 victor, and W. O. Alexander, Gulf, 1930 winner, neither of them will be eligible for the contest because of a rule which prohibits previous winners competing a second time.

Other winners since 1925 are H. B. Simpson, Gallatin, 1924; C. H. Quereau, San Antonio, 1926; Richard H. Jones, Galveston, 1927; Ivan Irwin, Dallas, 1928; B. A. Clutter Jr., What Cheer, Iowa, 1929.

Owls Get First Game Easy With Aggies Erroring

Failure To Come Through In Tight Places Allows Rice To Win.

Frequent miscues and failure to connect in the pinches cost the champion Aggies a well pitched game as the Rice Owls took advantage of the "breaks" and tallied three times on Kyle field Tuesday afternoon. The final score was 3 to 1 in favor of the feathered tribe, although the Aggies clouted "Smokey" Klaerner for five base blows while only three could be garnered by the "Birds' off of Scheer's delivery.

The Aggies took an early lead in the second inning when Carpenter was safe at first on a fielder's choice, went to second on a passed ball and finally stole third. "Moon" Golasinski, Houston boy who handled the receiving for the champions, then sent a clean single over second base, scoring Carpenter.

Veltman Walked

Another threat to count was made by A & M in the fourth after Captain Lester "Squawk" Veltman walked, went to third on Carpenter's single to right, but was left on base as the next two men went by way of the strikeout route.

The fifth was dormant concerning Aggie threats to score but the willows again returned to action early in sixth.

Fischer opened the inning with a ripping double to left, went to third on Veltman's hard drive to Enck on second. When a score was apparently sure Fischer was tossed out as Klaerner fielded Carpenter's sacrifice bunt, and thus ended the last scoring threat for the Aggies.

Scheer Holds Owls

"Bob" Scheer, the Marshall curve ball artist, held the Owls well in hand in all but two innings, those in which the three tallies were accounted for by the opposition. And

INSPECTION OF MILITARY WORK STARTS MONDAY

Class Schedule Changed To Allow Drill On Wednesday Instead Of Thursday For This Week.

A staff of seven officers, headed by Col. W. A. Castle, will make the annual War Department inspection of the college next week, Major J. P. Wheeler announced Tuesday afternoon.

In order to observe the practical instruction being received by both the first and second battalions of all organizations, a change so as to allow those drilling on Thursday to drill on Wednesday will be made for next week.

Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock, a general review will be held. Following this those who have been drilling on Thursday will be dismissed to go to their regular classes, while the inspection continues with an observation of the practical work students receive in Tuesday drills.

Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock, the final session of inspection will involve survey of the work of the students who regularly drill on Thursday afternoon. There will be no drill this Thursday afternoon.

Theory inspection of work in military science will occupy the morning sessions of all classes. There will be no change in schedule.

Officers coming here for the inspection include: Col. W. A. Castle, Lt. Col. Dan D. Tompkins, Lt. Col. Ralph M. Pennel, Major Norman Groff, Major Glenn P. Anderson, Captain Clay Anderson, and First Lt. Arthur E. Mickelson.

Fish Nine Playing Blinn College Next Tuesday-Wednesday

The Texas Aggie freshman baseball team will play its third game with the Allen Academy Ramblers in Bryan Friday afternoon. In the second game played last week the freshmen won easily by brilliant base running and numerous errors on the part of the cadets by a 7-4 score.

Return games with Blinn Memorial College of Brenham, scheduled for Friday and Saturday of last week, will be played in Brenham Tuesday and Wednesday, May 17 and 18. To date the freshmen's only defeat has been at the hands of the Blinn Buccaneers; the first was an eleven inning 6-6 tie, while the second was lost 10-5.

PLANS DRAWN FOR TROPHY CASE

Plans for the Aggie trophy case were completed last night by S. C. P. Vosper. This is the case the Senior class voted early in the year to build for the college, to house the many A & M athletic trophies.

"Hollywood," Home of Many Aggies In Past Years, Takes Place Among Discarded Traditions of Aggie Land

Rome and Chicago were razed by fire, Pompeii was destroyed by a volcano, Galveston was engulfed by the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and Hollywood, the home of students at Aggie Land for many years has been placed on wheels and hauled away by contractors!

The corps was still sleeping one morning last week when the last of the large group of shacks, which has been known as Hollywood since they were first erected to take care of the overflow of students here a number of years ago, was elevated, placed on a trailer and

Dance And Barbecue Close The Year For Saddle-Sirloin Club

Annual Dance Friday Night To Be Followed By Barbecue Next Wednesday.

Following their annual Cattleman's Ball in the mess hall annex Friday night with a barbecue and picnic at the agricultural engineering experiment farm on Wednesday, the Saddle and Sirloin club will bring to a close its activities for the current college year, R. J. Von Roeder, president of the club announces.

Bids Obtained

Bids for the Cattleman's Ball may be obtained by juniors and seniors who desire to attend from members of the club, Von Roeder said.

The barbecue will begin at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and in addition to members of the club all freshmen who contemplate majoring in animal husbandry are invited to attend. One of the features of the picnic will be a baseball game between seniors in animal husbandry and a team composed of faculty members and extension service workers.

Dance In Annex

For the Cattleman's Ball the mess hall annex will be decorated appropriately and members of the organization will wear varicolored shirts and white trousers, with sashes to match the shirts. Non-members will wear white pants, white shirts and black ties.

The dance will be followed with a corps dance Saturday night.

Battery F, Field Artillery, Winner Intramural Meet

Four First Places Give Organization Lead Over Other Entrants.

Battery F, Field Artillery walked off with the honors in Intramural Track Sunday afternoon by winning four first places and tying for a fifth and winning one second place, amassing a total of 29 1/2 points. Company B Infantry was second with 19 1/2 points; Band, third with 17 points; Company G Infantry, fourth with 14 1/2 points; and Troop A Cavalry, fifth with 13 1/2 points.

The prowess of two men, C. B. Hussey and M. L. Sargeant, were the main features for the conquest of Battery F. Hussey took two firsts while Sargeant took one first and one second. These two men were also the two high point men of the day, Hussey making 10 and

Longhorns Play Two Games Here Friday-Saturday

Steers Still Have Championship Possibility As They Meet Aggies.

Those Longhorns of Texas University will be the guests of A & M's baseball nine on Kyle field on Friday and Saturday afternoons of this week. The series will be the first of four games scheduled between the two teams this season, the latter two to be played on Clark field in Austin.

Both teams play sixteen games this season and as yet the Steers are credited with only three losses, which leaves them with a mathematical chance at the title, while the Aggies are definitely out of the race with six losses against them.

Services In Guion Hall, Reception At President's Home, R. V. Drill And Band Concert Included In Program.

Mothers and fathers of A and M students from all sections of the state are expected to visit the campus this week-end as members of the student body honor them with their annual Mothers' and Dads' Day program. Opening Saturday evening at 7:30 with a reception at the home of President T. O. Walton, where visiting parents will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Walton, and closing Sunday afternoon with a concert by the A and M band beginning at 4:30, the program arranged for the entertainment of the visitors will include a number of features.

Outstanding feature of the exercises will be the Mothers' and Dads' Day services in Guion Hall Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, arranged by and held under the direction of A and M students. Talks paying tribute to mothers and dads will be made by members of the student body and Dr. Walton will extend greetings to visiting parents. Mrs. H. L. Peoples, Dallas, will address the assemblage.

Prior to the services in Guion Hall the cadet corps will be drawn up in formation and flowers will be pinned on the lapels of the cadets by young lady visitors. The Ross Volunteers will appear in exhibition drill Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In addition to the reception at President Walton's home Saturday evening, there will be a corps dance Saturday night, starting at 9 o'clock.

Following is the program arranged for the services in Guion Hall Sunday:

Prelude—R. J. Dunn directing the orchestra.
The Invocation—Rev. R. L. Brown.
Greetings from A & M—President T. O. Walton.
Memoirs of Mother—College Glee Club.
To Our Mothers—R. J. Morris, Jr.
Te Deum in B minor—College Glee Club.
Address—Mrs. H. L. Peoples, Dallas, introduced by Mrs. F. K. McGinnis, President Dallas A & M Mothers' Club.
A Flower for You, Mother Dear—College Glee Club.
To Our Dads—W. M. Curtis.
Hymn: Faith of Our Fathers.
Benediction.
Postlude.

Taylor To Pitch

Vernon Taylor, leading conference hurler who limited Baylor to three and Rice to two runs last week, is slated to start the opener for the "Dischmen."

He will probably be opposed on the mound by "Bob" Scheer, who tossed well against Rice Tuesday. Charlie Winton, Uncle Billy's second rating pitcher will be given a chance against the Aggie swatsmiths Saturday and most
