A general consensus of opinion on this campus has designated the Ross Volunteers as a curious collection of "crooked-finger" men, sots, misfits, and the like. We are offering no defense for those who have gone before, but we are making a plea for cooperation for the policies that are to be put into effect this coming year.

Only a week has elapsed since a certain paper of Bryan published an article in which we were acclaimed the "Military and Social Company of A & M." That title has been only too adequate, but henceforth the part of the title in which "Social" appears must cease to exist. The social aspect must never hold equal sway with the military side, and every effort is being made to make the military aspect the primary object of the organization.

Under a new regime the members are putting forth great effort to re-establish the military prestige that the name of the company once signified. A representative group of men who excel in the field of military efficiency will represent this student body under the name of Ross Volunteers. Under the careful direction of capable military advisers we have outlined a drill program that is designed to produce the best-drilled body of men that was ever assembled in this school under our head.

To do this we need the full cooperation and loyalty of every man on the campus. We're not doing this for our own glory, but for the prestige and honor that will be bestowed upon the entire student body. Our motive is entirely unselfish, and we ask of you only one favor: reserve your judgment until you have seen a demonstration which will warrant your comment, whether good or bad.

Should we fail in our endeavor, we accept defeat without wasted argument, but with the help and moral support of each member of this corps, WE CAN'T FAIL.

S. W. STORMS, Secretary,
Company of Ross Volunteers.

marketing of agricultural products. Non-original in their stand on prohibition, the Socialist Party desires the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment. To prevent the return of the saloon, they advocate government ownership of the liquor business and the maintenance of prohibition optional to the states. The Socialists are taking a new stand on banking and credit: this year in favor of complete acquisition of the Federal Reserve Banks by the government and the transference of Postal Savings to a government-owned corporation, its extension to cover all departments of banking. Also they advocate complete socialization of the credit and currency system, and the creation of an international organization to deal with money, credit and investments.

interest rates, control of crop surplus by means of an enlarged co-operative movement is recommended.

The Democratic Party displayed no reticence in stating their stand on Prohibition, a question foremost in the public mind.

Eighteenth Amendment
To effect the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment they demand that Congress immediately propose a constitutional amendment to truly representative conventions in the States called to act solely on that proposal. They urge the enactment of such measures by the several States as will actually promote temperance, effectively prevent the return of the saloon and bring the liquor traffic into the open under complete supervision and control by the States. Pending repeal, the Party favors the immediate modification of the Volstead Act to legalize the manufacture and sale of beer and other beverages.

Aggieland Orchestra Reorganized For The 1932-33 Social Season

A reorganized Aggieband orchestra is now filling its date book for the current year. This orchestra played for fourteen weeks during the past summer at the Galvez Hotel in Galveston. The "Aggieband", as the orchestra is commonly called, has been in existence on the campus for the past twelve years and during that time has furnished the music for the corps dances with one or two exceptions.

The passing of last year's senior members of the band necessitated the introduction of a new manager, a new director, and several new musicians. Newt Hielscher is the manager of the 1932-33 edition and William Machemehl, the director. The entire personnel includes: Oscar Kuehne, piano; Gordon Langston, drums; Newt Hielscher, bass; Pat Bellinger and Johnnie Orant, trumpets; Jack Littlejohn, Carl Cochran, and William Machemehl, saxophones; Gordon Steinhoff, trombone; and Bob Hiatt, guitar.

ages of such alcoholic content as is permissible under the Constitution and to provide therefrom a proper and needed revenue.

By abolishing useless commissions and offices and by consolidating agencies and eliminating extravagances in government expenditures, the Democratic Party advocates drastic and immediate tax reduction to make possible a twenty-five per cent saving; it urges State Democrats to do likewise.

The supporters of Roosevelt favor the regulation of holding companies which sell securities in interstate commerce and of the rates of companies which do an interstate business.

145 pounds. The diminutive Murff will be remembered as the one who ran 96 yards for a touchdown when the Gentlemen played on Kyle Field in that disastrous season of 1930. The Louisiana school's backfield is probably the lightest and speediest in the nation. They also flash an aerial attack, but most of their danger is in their running game.

In each game so far this season, Coach Bell has had less to choose from than the game preceding because of injuries. The same will be true for the Centenary game this week-end. In the game against the rejuvenated Bears of Baylor in Waco last Saturday, three more men were taken from the line-up because of injuries. Captain Jimmy Aston and Henry Graves, half-

Domingue Is Third High In Southwest Conference Scoring

Even though he was completely bottled up and stopped by the forward walls of T. C. U. and Baylor, "Frenchy" Domingue still maintains third place among Southwestern scorers.

Going into Saturday's game only twice and scoring a touchdown on each of the two plays, Red Oliver of T. C. U. advanced his total points to 48 to lead the conference. Ernest Koy of Texas is second with 44 points.

Two weeks ago Bob Hilliard, Texas' sensational backfield star, was not even on the scoring list, but against the University of Oklahoma and Rice institute he ran up five touchdowns to take fourth place. The scorers are:

Player	TD.	PT.	TL.
Oliver, hb, TCU	8	0	48
Koy, fb, Texas	7	2	44
Domingue, qb, A&M	5	4	34
Hilliard, hb, Texas	5	1	31
Spearman, hb, TCU	5	0	30
Stafford, hb, Texas	5	0	30
Brannon, qb, TCU	4	1	25
Wallace, hb, Rice	4	1	25

backs, and Morrison (Flip) Breedlove, guard, are all out of the line-up this week. Aston had a small piece of bone broken from his hip. Graves received a knee injury, and Breedlove injured his shoulder. Although Aston and Graves will be out of the line-up probably a week, Breedlove will likely be on the side lines for the remainder of the season. The loss of this guard will be sorely felt as already two stellar guards have been removed because of injuries.

Besides trying to uphold the conference prestige against this small Louisiana eleven, the Aggies will also furnish dopsters material with which to single out the probable cellar occupant of the Southwest Conference. At present the Southern Methodist Mustangs are resting in that position by virtue of their loss to Rice, but A and M and Baylor are barely above that rating with a conference percentage of 250.

with the general Battalion staff during his freshman year. He was editor of the Aggie Countryman in its first year of existence, his senior year, and also worked on the Battalion staff during his senior year in school. Tony worked his way through school by spending his summers as a reporter for the Houston Press and working at odd jobs on the campus during the school year. He graduated in the spring of 1931, having been a distinguished student each of the four years and a member of the Scholarship Honor Society during his junior and senior years.

Upon graduation, he accepted a position with Curtis Vinson in the Publicity Office and has worked for more than a year as Assistant to the Publicity Director.

Just what is "rough cut?"

THE tobacco that is cut best for pipes might be termed "whittle cut" or "rough cut," like Granger. It requires a type of tobacco different from the tobacco used for chewing tobacco or cigarettes. Then again, Granger is made by Wellman's Method. Granger has a pleasing aroma. It is slow burning and cool. Just try it!
