

THE BATTALION

Scholarship Honor Society To Accept New Members Soon

The Scholarship Honor Society held its regular business meeting in the Asbury Room of the library recently, at which time it was decided to accept new members at the next meeting of the club.

It was also decided that the standing "two absentee rule" will be enforced. This provides that members being absent two consecutive meetings without reasonable excuses will be dropped from the rolls of the Society.

Invitations to the graduate members of the Society to attend future meetings will be extended to those now living on the campus. Following is a list of the eligible candidates who will be considered for membership at the next meeting, Tuesday night, November 8:

Ross Volunteers To Take In New Senior and Junior Members

The Ross Volunteers will announce the list of new Senior members elected to the company on Sunday, November 13, according to L. W. Storms, secretary of the company.

Initiation ceremonies will be held for both classes on December 4 and are to be followed by a banquet. At this banquet all junior officers will be elected.

The King of the R. V. court and the personnel of all committees incident to the dances held during the spring holidays will also be selected at this meeting.

A. & M. TO MEET--

Probably starting lineups with weights of each player are as follows:

Along the Sidelines

By E. L. WILLIAMS

For the first time the writer of this column will attempt to estimate the scores of the outstanding games of conference this Saturday. With most of the games it will be guessing, but with the Aggie-Pony tussle it will be expressed as "hope."

Here they are: Texas Aggie 13, S. M. U. 6. Texas 27, Baylor 0. Rice 20, Arkansas 7. T. C. U. 30, Simmons 0.

These scores are based merely on the comparative strength and scoring records of the various teams. On the Aggie-Pony tussle, the better showing against the Centenary Gentlemen last Saturday by the Aggies than by the Mustangs was the basis used; also it is just hoping.

"The weak, inexperienced Aggie line that the Texas sport writers have been writing about this season turned out to be a strong, scrapping aggregation that kept hammering at the Gent forwards throughout, and made the already time-worn Centenary linemen wobble at times."

The above clipping is what the Shreveport sport writer thought about the Aggie line that pre-season dopsters said would be the weakest part of the Aggie team this year.

The game last Saturday saw new linemen and new backfield men come into the spotlight when the Aggies battled the Centenary Gentlemen to a standstill for three quarters only to have the elusive Smith of Centenary slip across for the only and winning score of the game. In the line it was the playing of Charlie Cummings who was switched to end on the defense, and big "Honk" Irwin, who stopped the Gents. Both tore through the smaller Gent line one time after another to smear plays. The stellar playing of Willis Nolan was expected, and his continuous hard playing more than likely will earn for him a berth on that mythical All-Conference eleven. In the backfield Sid Martin was an outstanding player. It was Sid who made the first touchdown in the Aggie Reserve—Allen game last week, and Sid was the most consistent ground gainer for the Aggies in Shreveport.

And here's what a girl wrote in the Shreveport Times thought of the Aggies:

0—Rice 13. 16—Syracuse 6. 7—Centenary 18. 6—Texas 14. 20—Texas A. & I. 0. 10—L. S. U. 8. 13—S. M. U. 0. 14—Loyola 7. 6—Texas 18. 41—Creighton 7. A. & M. 0. 7—Texas Tech 0. 0—Southwestern 0. 14—Tulane 26. 26—Sam Houston 0. 14—Texas A. & I. 0. 0—T. C. U. 17. 0—Baylor 0. 0—Centenary 7. Centenary 0. 0—Hendricks 0. 19—Missouri Mines 20. 12—T. C. U. 34. 20—Baylor 6. 0—L. S. U. 14.

Radio Must Be Licensed in England

Over in England every owner of a radio set must obtain and pay for a license. The postal authorities maintain a fleet of radio detector vans, one of which is shown above, that cruise about the country and discover unlicensed sets.

"Wearing white jerseys and pants of a Maroon so dark as to look almost black, the Texas A and M bunch were easy to pick out though the Centenary colors were so similar. Seated high up in the stands a small group of cadets did a noble bit of cheering and rooted incessantly for the Aggies."

For the last two years the Southwest Conference has been hearing about Boha Hilliard of Texas. It has taken this flash from Orange two years to graduate from the ranks of the Shortorns, but he has accomplished it at last much to the regret of the University of Oklahoma, Rice Institute, and Southern Methodist University. These three teams fell before the Longhorns on successive Saturdays due to this slippery hipped sophomore with the wonderful blocking of Ernest Koy and Harrison Stafford. Right now it seems that the Steers are on the road to the championship, and it will take probably more than the conference has to offer to stop this trio. Much has been said about Hilliard making the All-American team. Certainly he is deserving of the honor, but give the pair of Koy and Stafford a clear way for Domingue, or Spearman of T.C.U., or McCauley or Wallace of Rice, and they too will receive much attention.

Three weeks ago in this column it was stated that the defeat of the Longhorns by the Centenary Gentlemen would act as an awakening tonic as did the Rice game of 1930. Since then they have defeated Missouri 65-0, Oklahoma 17-10, Rice 18-6, and S.M.U. 14-6. Saturday they meet Baylor and it will probably be a walk-away. Their important game is the next week-end when they meet the undefeated Christians.

Centenary appeared to have slipped up on the Texas team when they defeated them about a month ago 13-6, but since then they have defeated several other teams, among the most noted was the Mustangs. Now they have defeated the Aggies. These three conference teams that easily beat them last year have fallen before a midget

Thimbleful of New Element Weighs As Much As 30 Ships

Chicago—(IP)—Picture a substance a thimbleful of which would weigh more than 30 heavy battleships, and you have some idea of the new element described by Prof. William Draper Harkins of the University of Chicago.

The presence of the new element was suspected many years ago. Prof. Harkins said, but was established only recently. It is named "neutron" and is composed of particles called "neutrons", whose minuteness is almost beyond the range of human imagination.

The thimble trick, according to Prof. Harkins, has been ruled out by the scarcity of neutron and the ability of its neutrons to shoot at incalculable speed through any known substance. Neutron is found almost entirely in space outside planets, the sun and the stars.

Thus far the neutrons have evaded the camera, and their presence is learned only by photographing the change which takes place when an occasional atom of other material is struck directly by a neutron.

4 YEARS of opportunity

SO MUCH can be gained from these undergraduate years. Campus leadership. Classroom scholarship. Lifelong friendships. Energy and health are important assets for the man who would get the most from these years.

Too often constipation is permitted to sap health and undermine vitality. It can become a serious handicap.

A delicious cereal will overcome this condition. Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN will promote regular habits. ALL-BRAN supplies "bulk," vitamin B and iron. Ask that it be served at your fraternity house or campus restaurant.

The most popular ready-to-eat cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include Kellogg's Corn Flakes, PEP Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—real coffee that lets you sleep.
