

HOW TO CRIB

The National Cribbers Association has prepared the following suggestions for those students whose more important social activities prevent them from pursual of their scholastic duties.

1. Practice writing Lincoln's Gettysburg address on a piece of confetti.
2. Master the Chinese language.
3. Learn to read a Lithuanian newspaper upside down at a distance of twenty feet.
4. Hemstitch the first twenty chapters of your text on your red-flannel underwear and go to class in a cellophane suit.
5. After professor has passed out exam papers, playfully toss several tear bombs at his feet until he passes out and then write exam.
6. Take ouiji board to class and ask ouiji what the answers are.
7. Go to class early, blow out fire in furnace so that the heating mechanism will be deficient and professor will have to wear ear-muffs, making loud conversation possible.
8. Use the Eenie Meenie Minie Mo system of false and true questions.

—Bored Walk

Not born—quarried.

She may have been on the losing side but you should have seen her supporters!

He: "I'm a little stiff from bowling."

She: "Where did you say you were from?"

—Dodo

"Nowadays everyt'ing iss done py machinery."

"Vell, I dunno, talking is still done py hand."

—Dodo

"My room mate says there are some things a girl should not do before twenty."

"Well, personally, I don't enjoy a large audience, either."

—Puppet

Dora is so dumb she thinks a goblet is a sailor's child."

—Log