

Commencement Week Program Activities Have Been Completed; Bishop Boaz Will Deliver Address

Baccalaureate Sermon, Junior Prom and Banquet, and Final Ball Among Activities

Activities that are to take place on the commencement week program have been worked out and the completed program has been released by the committee composed of Dr. E. P. Humbert, chairman, Lieutenant Colonel A. R. Emery, and Dr. S. R. Gammon, of the faculty, and L. W. Storms, Jr., of San Antonio, student member of the committee.

Following is the order of the week's activities:

- Sunday, May 28
8:30 a. m.—Parade honoring "T" men and the awarding of "T" medals and intramural medals. Also the awarding of the Military Ribbon to the members of the college rifle and pistol teams.
- 10:30 a. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon by Bishop H. A. Boaz of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Houston.
- 4:30 p. m.—Outdoor concert by the A and M Band.
- Thursday, June 1
7:00 p. m.—Junior Banquet.
- 9:00 p. m.—Junior Promenade.
- Friday, June 2
4:00 p. m.—Competitive Drill followed by Exhibition Drill by Ross Volunteers.
- 5:00 p. m.—Formal Presentation of Reserve Commissions by Brigadier General Charles R. Howland, Commanding the Third Brigade, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.
- 8:00 p. m.—President and Mrs. Walton at home informally to members of the Senior Class and their guests, and members of the faculty and their families.
- 10:00 p. m.—Final Ball.
- Saturday, June 3
9:00 a. m.—Commencement Processional.
- 9:15 a. m.—Commencement Exercises. Address by Dr. H. Y. Benedict, President of Texas University, Austin, Texas.
- Valedictory by Cadet Lieutenant Colonel H. W. Perkins.
- Conferring of degrees.
- 12:30 p. m.—Graduating Review.

High School Seniors Present Class Play

According to Mrs. H. C. Spencer, English teacher at the Consolidated High School, the senior class of the A and M Consolidated School will present "Who Wouldn't Be Crazy" as their senior play Thursday night, May 11, in the Assembly Hall.

The play is a comedy with Dorothy Hedges and T. O. Walton, Jr., as the leading characters.

Military Department Completes Plans For Tenth Annual Horse Show To Be Held May Twentieth

Preparations for the tenth annual horse show, sponsored each year by the College Military Department, have been completed and will be held Saturday, May 20, on the drill field, according to Major J. P. Wheeler, Cavalry.

Major Wheeler is chairman of the committee which consists of Captain C. S. Richards, Field Artillery, grounds and arrangements; First Lieutenant L. R. Nachman, Infantry, entries; First Lieutenant M. H. Marrens, Cavalry, Cavalry teams and entries; First Lieutenant J. J. Binns, Field Artillery, Field Artillery teams and entries; and Second Lieutenant T. B. Kettererson, Cavalry O.R.C., publicity.

Events for the horse show have not been definitely decided, but will possibly be the same as last year's which included:

- Class I—Exhibition—Fine Harness Class—Open to any exhibitor

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Miss Leda Law Davis and Truman D. Craddock, and Miss Marie Elizabeth Webb and Louis W. Storms, Jr., were married in a double wedding ceremony in Lake Charles, Louisiana, last Sunday.

Mrs. Craddock is the daughter of W. C. Davis of Bryan, judge of the 86th District Court and Mrs. Storms is the daughter of Mrs. R. S. Webb, Jr., of Bryan.

Craddock is a senior student in agriculture, a first lieutenant in Troop "C" Cavalry, and a member of the Ross Volunteers. Storms is a senior student in petroleum production engineering, captain on the Cavalry Squadron Staff, and was king of the Ross Volunteer court at the annual festivities held on the campus April 21-23.

Mr. and Mrs. Storms will return Thursday from a short visit in San Antonio with the groom's parents.

"At the time of going to press the Battalion has been unable to secure any information regarding any future plans of either of the couples."

FIVE ENTER CONTEST FOR DOWNS AWARD

Annual Oratorical Contest To Be Held In Assembly Hall Thursday Evening.

Ranking orators of the student body, chosen in preliminary tryouts held recently, will compete for the annual P. L. Downs oratorical award at the Assembly Hall Thursday evening, according to C. O. Spriggs, professor of public speaking and coach of the A and M debating team. The declamations will start at eight o'clock.

Five contestants who have been chosen for the finals and the subjects upon which they will speak are: D. L. Tisinger, Garland, "Rec"

(Continued on Page 4)

FIRST SENIOR DANCE WILL BE STAGED MAY 12

Mess Hall Will Honor Senior Class With Banquet for Seniors and Dates

Seniors will inaugurate a precedent in campus social affairs when they hold their Senior Prom, Friday, May 12, from 9 p. m. until 2 a. m., for members of the class of '33 and members of all preceding classes. Members of these classes with their dates are invited to attend a banquet preceding the dance, which will be given by the College Mess Hall in honor of the senior class. The banquet will begin promptly at 7:00 p. m., the Campus Serenaders furnishing music for the banquet and the Aggieband Orchestra playing for the dance.

Dr. T. O. Walton, president of the college, and Dr. Daniel Russell, head of the department of rural sociology, will speak at the banquet.

Uniform for the dance will be slacks with white shirts, all unclassified '33 men being authorized to wear slacks to the banquet and dance.

EDITOR ANNOUNCES YEAR BOOK TO BE DISTRIBUTED SOON

Copy Is In Hands of Printer and Most of Longhorn Gone To Press.

All copy for the Longhorn has been turned in, and most of it has gone to press, B. M. Gottlieb, Corsicans, editor of the 1933 annual announced today. Though no definite date can be set for distributing the Longhorn, if present plans go through the copies should arrive by May 20.

An announcement will soon be made concerning the method that will be used in distributing copies to the students, Gottlieb said.

Printing Started On Invitations Monday

Proof on the printed matter to appear in the invitations to the graduation exercises was received last week, and after it was checked with the files of the registrar's office, it was returned to the manufacturer of the invitations, according to R. E. O'Connell, chairman of the invitation committee.

Printing was begun last Monday and the invitations should arrive on the campus and be ready for distribution in two more weeks, O'Connell added.

Gross Elected Head of Hillel Club for '33-34 School Year

Lewis Gross, Waco, was elected president of the Hillel club for the school year 1933-'34 at a meeting of the club held in the Asbury room of the library last Sunday night.

Other officers elected at this meeting were Harry Schriber, Galveston, vice-president, Abe Moseman, Greenville, secretary, and Richard Alexander, La Grange, treasurer.

At this meeting, plans for a picnic to be held Sunday, May 6 were discussed.

Members of Vet Club Hold Annual Picnic

Members of the Veterinary Medicine Club held their annual barbecue and over-night picnic on the Navasota River last week-end.

The group left College in trucks Saturday at noon and returned Sunday afternoon, according to W. A. Wilson, McKinney, president of the club. R. A. Goodman, instructor in the school of veterinary medicine accompanied the group.

Ceremonies Planned For Mother's Day

CHORAL CLUB OFFICERS

Above are Miss Seawillow Halton, business manager and accompanist, respectively, of the Texas University Girls' Glee Club who will present a two-hour concert in the Assembly Hall here Friday night, May 5, at 7 o'clock.

A & M College Students, Officials, And Faculty Members To Observe May 14 As Mother-Father Day

SUMMER CAMP

Contrary to the rumors that there will be no summer camp this summer, Lieutenant Colonel A. R. Emery announced today that preparations for the annual forty-two day R. O. T. C. camp held each summer are being made without any alterations.

Colonel Emery also stated that to date he had not received any word from the Eighth Corps Area Commander to the effect that there would not be any camp, and that he believed the summer camp would be held at it has in the past.

Programs Honoring Visitors Will Be Held Saturday Night and Sunday

Designated as Mother's and Dad's Day, Sunday, May 14, will be honored as such by the students, faculty members, and officers of the college. A special program for the week-end has been arranged for the benefit of parents, sweethearts, and relatives of the student.

The program to be followed Saturday will consist of the following events: a reception at the home of the President of the college at 7:30 p. m., a picture show at the assembly hall at 8:30 and 8:30 p. m., and a corps dance in the mess hall from 9 until 12 p. m.

On Sunday, the program for the day will be opened with the traditional ceremony of pinning of flowers on cadets by young ladies chosen by commanders of the organizations. Following this ceremony, a convocation will be held in Guion hall at 10:30 a. m., with services honoring the mothers and fathers. As guests of the cadets, the visitors will be served lunch in the mess hall at 12:15 a. m. Dormitories will be opened for inspection by the visitors at 1:30 p. m. and will remain open for two hours. The Ross Volunteers will present an exhibition drill on the drill field at 3:30 p. m., and this drill will be followed by competition for the best-dressed medal for that organization. The closing feature of the day's program will be a concert by the Aggie Band at 4:30 p. m.

Guerdrum Is Given Prize For Record In Hearst Match

A and M Rifle Team Places Fourth In National Hearst Match

Placing second in the West section and fifth in the United States, T. J. Guerdrum, "B" Company Engineers, of San Antonio, has contributed more points to the score of the A and M Rifle Team in its competition than any other member.

A and M took fourth place in the Hearst Trophy Match in the West Section and ninth in the United States; competing against 14 states in the West section and against 174 teams in the United States. The A and M score would have placed second in competition with either the East or South sections. The team won second place in this section of the National Intercollegiate Match.

Cattlemen's Ball Scheduled For May Fifth

Aggieland Orchestra Will Play For Saddle and Sirolo-Kream and Kow Klub Dance

On Friday, May 5, the members of the Saddle and Sirolo Club in conjunction with the Kream and Kow Klub will entertain with their annual Cattlemen's Ball in the Mess Hall Annex, according to H. A. Fitzhugh, president of the former group. Hours for dancing will be from nine till two with the music for the occasion being furnished by the Aggieland Orchestra.

Holding its place as one of the foremost events on the special calendar of the college, the Cattlemen's Ball this year promises to exceed those of the past from the point of brilliance and entertainment.

Elaborate decorations depicting Spanish scenes and adobe houses are being installed under the direction of S. C. P. Vosper of the college architect's office with the assistance of R. L. Stripping.

The entire personnel of the University of Texas Girls' Glee Club

(Continued on Page 4)

A & M COLLEGE REPRESENTED AT ROUNDUP

Miss Frances Stewart, Escorted by Homer Hayes, Is Sweetheart of A and M.

Homer Hayes of Mount Pleasant, first lieutenant in Company "H" Infantry, acted as escort to Miss Frances Stewart, the sweetheart of A and M, at the annual University of Texas Round-up held in Austin last week. Miss Stewart, whose home is in Pittsburg, Texas, is a student in the University.

Both Miss Stewart and Hayes, together with the sweethearts of the other conference schools and their escorts, were elaborately received and extensively entertained during their connection with the round-up activities.

Gold Medals Will Be Awarded Members of College Debate Team

Six gold medals to be awarded for meritorious work in debate have been received and will be presented to members of the debate team sometime this week, George Summey, head of the English department, announced today.

This year D. L. Tisinger, Garland; I. A. Handler, Galveston; and J. E. Gaston, Henderson, will have the numeral '33 added to their medals. Tisinger and Handler were awarded their medals last year and Gaston received his in 1931. Those who will receive medals for this year are: W. O. Vela, Laredo; D. T. Lusk, Scotia; G. E. Wyse, Palmetto; J. W. Wells, Aransas Pass; R. B. Jenkins, DeLeon; and H. N. Irvine, Ft. Worth.

M.E. Shop Plans Open House for Visitors On Saturday, May 13

Tentative plans for an open house in the Mechanical Engineering Shops on the night of May 13 for the benefit of the visitors expected on the campus for the Mother's and Dad's Day program were discussed at the meeting of the student chapter of the American Society of the Mechanical Engineers in the Mechanical Engineering Building last Thursday night.

These plans are the forerunner of what is hoped will be a campus-wide exhibition similar to those of the "Engineering Days" of the past.

(Continued on Page 3)

C. A. Tosch Chosen To Captain Aggie Rifle Team for Next Year

C. A. Tosch, Mesquite, "H" Company Infantry, was elected captain of the Rifle Team for next year at a meeting last night of the lettermen of this year. He will succeed co-captains G. H. Rhine, San Antonio, and W. G. Allen, Dallas.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the annual Rifle Team banquet to be held in the next few weeks for all members who have fired on the team this year. The committee will also select sweaters for the 12 letter men of this year.

A & M'S FIRST GAME IS WITH HOUSTON WATER-POLO TEAM

A and M's first water-polo game in the new swimming pool, will be played against the Houston Swimming Club at 8:30 Saturday night, according to Lieutenant Nachman, coach of the Aggie team.

The seven-man A and M team will be chosen from the following men: co-captains J. D. Howder, Ft. Crockett and J. E. Moeller, Larchmont, New York; T. J. Uhr and G.

(Continued on Page 3)

Corps Dance Saturday Night in Mess Hall