Five of the 12 baseball lettermen will graduate, but it is interesting to note that five of those winning their letter were sophomores with two more years of competition ahead of them. Captain Bob Garvey, Marshall Shaw, Bob Scheer, W. W. Mitchell and Earl Weber are the seniors graduating. With a few outstanding freshmen ready for competition next year, another surprise may be sprung on Uncle Billy Ditch, who has lost two championships in the last three years—a feat never before accomplished in the history of college baseball in the Southwest.

Featuring a baseball game between the faculty of the animal husbandry department and the students, the Saddle and Sirloin club held its annual picnic Friday, May 19. The students were defeated. Approximately 125 attended this banquet which is given annually for members of the college teaching staff and all students studying animal husbandry.

Making a last minute rally in the final inning, Battery A Field Artillery nosed out Battery B by a score of 7-6 Tuesday evening in the play-off game for the Class A Intramural playground baseball championship. In the Class B division, Battery C, Field Artillery won over Battery B by a score of 5-0 to capture the title.

Along the Sidelines

By R. L. WILLIAMS

This is the elephant walk for the writer. As the Longhorn explained, the old must make way for the new, and it is with that thought in mind that this last bit of "Sidelines" is converted into print. For nine months it has been a pleasure to write for the Battalion on the sports side of the student's collegiate life, and it is with a feeling of sorrow and of usefulness completed that this section is turned over to Jack Sloan, an able assistant for the past year, who will next year conduct this department along the lines that he sees fit. The Sports Editor takes this space to wish him luck the coming year, and is confident that this time in 1934 he will be writing of the various championships won that the present writer has not had the opportunity of witnessing during his last year.

The idea is prevalent now that the Aggies are going to win one and maybe more championships next year. When Hop, sports writer for the Austin American, gives the Farmers good chances of winning, then there must be something to it. The erstwhile Hop generally fills his columns with Texas, Longhorns, and Steers, giving the other teams small chance of breaking into print, but he broke down to say at the end of the track season that the Aggies next year would have one of the strongest teams in the history of the conference. Hop is certainly right there, for the Aggies will present as strong, if not stronger, an aggregation of track and field men next year than they presented this year. Few unreplaceable men will graduate while the nucleus of the champion Longhorns and the Owls have run their last race under Southwest colors. Of the nineteen men receiving the Aggie "T", only Captain Gilbert Addicks, Jimmie Lightfoot, George Lord, and George McVey will graduate.

Numerous men in baseball are J. C. Bevers, Hull; J. W. Blacklock, Troup; R. E. Caruthers, Moody; W. L. Couser, Breckenridge; W. W. Foster, Calvert; H. R. Hanks, Wichita Falls; J. C. Henderson, Avinger; Mike Langley, Fentress; H. L. Martinez, Hebronville; Nat Patton, Crockett; W. R. Pythian, Taylor; and M. R. Proctor, Dallas.

House mothers set up a protest against the "nudist" bathing parties, and so the town officials had to tell the youngsters to don suits or keep out of the river.

Freshmen Split Baseball Season With Oponents

Lack of Material Slows Down Fish; Win Three and Lose Three To Conclude Year.

Because of lack of material, Coach "Klepto" Holmes' freshmen baseball team enjoyed only a mediocre season. The final tabulations show that the fish split the season even with their opponents, winning three games and losing three.

The Holmesmen opened the season by sweeping a two-game series with the Giddings High School Lions 9-5 and 5-0. The next four games were played with the Allen Academy Ramblers of which the freshmen won one 5-1 and lost three 5-3, 10-3, and 21-2.

Homer Martinez, freshman hurler, probably showed more promise than any other member of the team. Other outstanding candidates were Mike Langley, first baseman; Joe Pythian, catcher; Bill Couser, third baseman; Nat Patton, shortstop; and Bill Hanks, outfielder.

Sorrells and Couser Capture Intramural Tennis Championship

W. D. Sorrells, Tyler, and W. L. Couser, Breckenridge, defeated E. C. Ulrich, Hallettsville, and J. B. Barbisch, Austin, by scores of 6-2 and 6-4, to win the doubles championship in intramural tennis Monday, May 22. Although Ulrich and Barbisch gave stiff competition, Sorrells and Couser easily took both sets, making it unnecessary to play a third set to determine the winner.

In intramural golf, doubles are nearing an end with the contestants eliminated to the final round. J. B. Heinen, Dallas, and J. M. Carroll, Denton, of Battery E, will play E. O. Eikel, New Braunfels, and G. Bargmann, Gonzales, of F Infantry, to determine the school doubles championship in this intramural activity.

Deans of Andrews Protest To Town Cops About Nudist Bathers

PAINESVILLE, O.—(IP)—The choicest nudist bathing spot in the Chagrin River has gone conventional. For years the young men of this town have dived into the refreshing waters with no suits to hinder their swimming. Unfortunately, however, this choice swimming place is just a stone's throw from the dormitories of the Andrews School for Girls.

House mothers set up a protest against the "nudist" bathing parties, and so the town officials had to tell the youngsters to don suits or keep out of the river.

We can get, in all probability, a fair measure of prosperity return in the United States, but it will not be permanent unless we get a return to prosperity all over the world.—President Roosevelt.

Aggies Defeated By Longhorns In Last Two Games

Koy Hits for Circuit In Tenth Inning To Break Tie and Win Game.

The Texas Aggie baseball team closed its season by losing a two-game series to the Texas Longhorns at the annual Brenham Mat-fest Thursday and Friday. The Aggies lost a 10-inning thriller in the opener 5-4 and fell before the Steers in the second game 5-3.

Jake Mooty, Aggie twirler, gave a fine exhibition of pitching in the first game, especially in the pinches, but received poor support in the field. The Longhorns earned but two runs while all of the Cadets' runners were earned runs.

With two out in the tenth inning, in the first game, Ernie Koy, Steer slugger, hit a homer to break the tie. The Farmers came back strong in the last of the tenth. Mitchell singled, Weaver bunted, both were safe on a late throw to second. Sodd fanned and Shaw, pinch hitting for Cockran, flew out to right field. Then Connelley struck out to end the game.

The Aggies got off to a flying start in the second game when Lowenstein and Mitchell walked. Mitchell then scored on a triple by Mooty. Then Cockran singled to score Mooty. The Cadets scored again in the second on Connelley's triple and Garvey's single, but the Steers scored in the first on a walk and a double by Koy, and knotted the count in the second when a walk, a single, a sacrifice, and a long fly to center accounted for two runs. The Longhorns put over the winning runs in the fourth on a bingle, a bunt, and two triples to score two runs. Connelley led the Cadet sluggers in the series with three hits includ-
