

Six Aggies Are Placed On All Southwest Conference Baseball Team By Battalion Sports Editor

The Aggies, Steers, and the Frogs dominated the all-conference baseball team as selected by The Battalion. Six Aggies, three Steers, and three Horned Toads were placed on the first team. Six Steers, three frogs, two Bears, and one Aggie were selected on the second team.

For the first time in several years a stronger infield dominates over a relative weak outfield. There were but few outstanding outfielders while an unusual amount of good infielders were produced.

"Slim" Kinzy, who pitched the Frogs to a championship, was easily the best pitcher of the loop. Jake Mooty of the Aggies was selected mainly because of his victories over Texas. Although Taylor of Texas did not hurl during the last few weeks of the campaign, he showed much promise during the early stages of the schedule. Bob Scheer drew a place on the second team by pitching the Aggies to three conference victories. Kronoy of Baylor was selected because of his all-around ability while Winton of Texas placed because of his consistent work.

Bob Garvey was possibly the smoothest receiver in the conference although he was a weak hitter. Meyers of T. C. U., the other catcher on the first team, was not the receiver that Garvey was but displayed much ability with the bat. Blanton of Texas and Clem of Baylor were pressing the leaders.

Although no outstanding first sacker was developed, Jacks of T. C. U. led the others because of his fielding ability. Price of Texas was pressed hard for the second team by Bolger of Baylor. McDowell of Texas completely dominated the keystone sack. Taylor of T. C. U., although a third baseman, was shifted to second and given a berth because of his hitting ability. Taylor led the conference in hitting.

Bob Connelley of A. and M. was closely pressed by Viebig of Texas for the hot corner. He was a more consistent fielder than Viebig, although not a better hitter.

Mitchell of the Aggies and Ankenman of Texas were both fine shortstops but Mitchell was given the bid over Ankenman because of his fielding and base running ability.

Sodd of the Aggies and Koy of Texas were the best of the outfielders. Lowenstein of A. and M., Gannon of Texas, and Donovan and Harston of T. C. U. were leading for the other place on the mythical nine. Lowenstein was given the call because of his consistency at bat and field.

A summary of The Battalion All-Southwest Conference Baseball Team is as follows:

Along The Sidelines

By Jack N. Sloan

Although no championships have been won by the Aggie teams during the past seasons, there has been a marked improvement over the former teams of the last few years. From the material available for next year it looks as though the Aggies will come through with a number of winning teams.

With a returning team of veterans, 1933 prospects for a championship football team are brighter than any of the past several seasons. Coach Matty Bell will have twelve lettermen headed by Captain Charlie Cummings to pick from as well as a host of reserve material and freshmen candidates from last year.

Although four lettermen from this year's basketball team are graduating, Coach John Reid will have a number of promising sophomores, who made remarkable records this year as freshmen, and three veterans to carry on. If these sophomore candidates come through, it looks as though the Aggies will be right at the top fighting it out for the basketball championship.

It would not at all be surprising to see Coach Frank Anderson's hill and dalers running off with the pennant next fall with such veterans as Foy and Roy Cook, Hector Fuentes, "Champ" Smith, and "Frog" DuBois on hand.

In picking an all-conference team we were confronted with the fact that T. C. U. had won the championship but failed to bring to the front any outstanding stars except "Slim" Kinzy, ace of the Frogs pitching staff, and Wallace Meyers, catcher. Jacks, first sacker, was not an exceptionally good player but had little competition for his berth.

Before we close we would like to bring this one thing before the students. There has been a growing tendency among the students, especially the upperclassmen, to fail to pay the student activity fee.

The fee has been cut from fifteen to eleven dollars to enable more of the students to enjoy more of the activities. This will admit the holder to attend all of the athletic contests held on Kyle Field, the Longhorn, and the Battalion which includes a weekly newspaper and a monthly comic magazine. If each were purchased separately, it would cost about twice as much.

CAPTAIN-ELECT MOON

W. T. "Bugga" Moon of Holland was elected captain of the 1934 baseball team at a meeting of this year's lettermen last Thursday.

Moon has earned his letter the past two years as a pitcher on the A and M baseball nine.

Our colleges are one of the greatest obstacles to change.—Raymond S. Jewett, educator.

Sodd Wins Batting Honors for Season

The records of all conference games show that Coach "Little Hig" Higginbotham's baseball team completed the season with a batting average of .302 and a fielding average of .916.

Bill Sodd, outfielder from Ft. Worth, copped the slugging honors by hitting .468. He also led the Aggies in number of runs. His record revealed 12 runs batted in, 15 runs with 22 hits, 5 two base hits, and total bases on hits, 34.

"Tickle" Mitchell led the base stealers with 10 stolen bases to his credit. Captain Garvey and Mitchell were the only members of the team to play all of the 105 innings.

"Bugga" Moon, wronghand, turned in a perfect fielding average, without making an error in ten chances. T. L. Hutto and Earl Weber, both playing first base, were next in line with a fielding average of .981.

Bob Scheer headed the pitchers with an earned run average of 3.2634. He pitched in four conference games and lost but one. Moon was credited with 32 strikeouts.

Aggieland Pharmacy Award Is Given To Mooty And Herring

"As long as We're Settling things

SUPPOSE YOU
TELL ME WHY
YOU SMOKE
GRANGER"

"WELL, it's like this. Back in the old days, when men wore high hats and frock coats, they had plenty of time to think things out, and they had sense, too. They used to sit down on a log and take the time to whittle their tobacco from a plug, to be sure of having a cool smoke.

"In those days, a man named Wellman, right here in Quincy, Ill., made about the best tobacco you could get. He knew how to keep the flavor fine and mellow.

"Well, sir, the people who make this Granger Rough Cut acquired Mr. Wellman's method, and they must have known how the old boys used to whittle their tobacco to make it smoke cool. Yes, sir, this Granger is the real stuff. The same mellowness and fine flavor that Wellman used to hand out to his friends. And it's whittled into big shaggy flakes all ready for the pipe. 'Rough Cut' they call it—'cut rough to smoke cool' is the best way I can describe it.

"Regardless of price, Granger is about the best pipe tobacco I ever smoked. That's why I smoke it, and that's why they call it America's Pipe Tobacco, sir."

Now we wanted to sell Granger for 10¢. It was just a question of how to do it for the price. So we pack Granger in a sensible foil pouch instead of an expensive package, knowing that a man can't smoke the package. We give smokers this good

GRANGER tobacco in a common-sense pouch for 10¢.

GRANGER has not been on sale very long, but it has grown to be a popular smoke. And there is this much about it—we have yet to know of a man who started to smoke it, who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.
