

"So you're working your way through school. How do you do it?"

"Well, don't tell my mother; she thinks I'm selling gin but I'm really editing the humor magazine."

—Green Goat

Why is a player piano like a skirt?

Because you have to have a roll to play with either one.

Magazine Salesman: "Could I sell you 'Life', 'Liberty', or 'Pursuit of Happiness'?"

Old Maid: "What do you mean, 'Pursuit of Happiness'?"

M. S.: "'Youth's Companion'."

—Aggrievator

She (in dark hall): My husband would kill you if he knew that you had come here again.

Husband: I've no intention of committing suicide.

—Skipper

"Just think, Don tried to put his arm around me four times last night."

"My Gawd, what an arm!"

—Mercury

Waiter (in England): "Maccauley used to dine at this very inn, sir."

American: "It must have been some eggs like these that inspired him to write 'Lays of the Ancient Rome'."

On mules we find two legs behind
And two we find before
We stand behind before we find
What the behind be for.

—Juggler

Him: Why do you say that Adam was like a radio?

Him 2: Because he took a part of him and made a loudspeaker.

—Skipper

Prof—Will you men stop exchanging notes in the back of the room?

Stude—Them ain't notes, them's cards. We're playing bridge.

Prof—Oh, I beg your pardon.
