R. W. Ivy, Prop. North Gate

Just monkeying around

Blue eyes gaze at mine—vexation.
Soft hands clasped in mine—palpitation.
Fair hair brushing mine—expectation.
Red lips close to mine—temptation.
Lithe body next to mine—aspiration.
Footsteps—damnation.

Bettie: Do you ever take a long walk before breakfast?

Sue: That depends upon whose car I've been riding in.

—Log

She: Where does your lap go when you stand up?

He: It retires to the rear and pops up under an assumed name.

—Mountain Goat

"I just can't find time to read the books I should read."

"That's nothing, I haven't time to read all the books I shouldn't read."

—Malteaser

Mother to tiny but bright offspring: "Do you know what happens to bad little boys who tell lies?"

"Yes, mother, they travel half fare."

—Log

I sat by the duchess at tea;
It was just as I feared it would be;
The rumblings abdominal
Were simple phenomenal,
And, of course, they all thought it was me!
