The INHUMAN RACE to an early class

WHEN bed is behind and the first class calls, remember Kellogg's PEP. You can enjoy a quick nourishing breakfast with a bowl of PEP. Toasted wheat. Ready to eat. Just pour on milk or cream. There's enough extra bran in PEP to be mildly laxative.

Order PEP in your dining club, or at any campus lunch. Always fresh and crisp in individual packages. Delicious as a snack at night too. Easy to digest and won't interfere with sound sleep. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Watching the Aggies

BY CARROLL ROBERTS
Battalion Sports Editor

AS THE CURTAIN LOWERS on the 1933-34 Texas Aggie athletic activities, no less than 31 outstanding athletes will lay away their battle armor after having served faithfully during their stay at Aggieland. Many of these have left records that will remain for a long time to come, and all have left memories of having done their best and fought hard battles.

Championships have not been won in all the sports, but the record of the teams in the major sports is the best of any school in the Southwest Conference.

The Championship baseball team will be one of the lightest losers of all. Only four men will end their services. They are Dan Alanis, Johnny Weaver, Captain Wilson Moon, and Ike Lowenstein.

Although the number leaving in basketball will be few, they will dig deep into the ranks of the Aggie team. Captain Joe Merka, All-American mentioned center, will leave a hole that will be hard to fill. Earl Shepherd, Port Arthur, and Ray Murray are the other ones who have ended their careers this season.

Honk Irwin will be the greatest loss in track. With this mighty shot putter and discus man, the cadet team loses two first places that have been figured on as cinches for the past three years. His place will be hard to fill. Other trackmen leaving are T. W. Akins, Captain; G. L. Billimek; Roy and Foy Cook; Hector Fuentes; Jack Hester; Tom Kennerly; Jack Kohler; Sam Logan; Joe Merka; and T. H. Terrell.

In football, the Aggies will lose Rue Barfield; Morrison Breedlove; Charlie Cummings, Captain; Frenchy Domingue; J. A. Golasinski; "Smuck" Kenderdine; Ray Murray; Bud Nolan; Ed Reichardt; Pete Robertson; Ted Spencer; Charlie Ulrich and Sully Woodland.

JAKE MOOTY is still the talk of the campus after taming the wild Steers in Austin. Here are some of the things this sterling hurler did: Six victories out of seven games; pitched 64 innings and faced 281 batsmen; was nicked for only fifty hits; only eighteen of the 27 runs scored against him were earned; fanned 42 would-be batsmen; walked 31 and hit 4. His conference batting record was third for the team with a total of .293 and his fielding record of 1000 accepting 36 chances without error was the highest of any man on the team.

AGGIELAND IS ON the upgrade in athletics. This was noticeable easily in the spring sports from the time of spring football practice and the ending of basketball on through the track and baseball season. From basketball on, the Aggies won two seconds and one first in the major sports. Coach Norton and Cal Hubbard, who will lead the Cadets through next year, expressed their highest hopes of putting out a football team that the Corps would be proud of next year. Norton said that the material he had was the best he had ever had, and records show that he has put out some of the most outstanding teams in the south.

Plan New Quarters For Band Next Year

Several recommendations concerning the future of the Aggie Band have been made lately, according to Col. J. E. Mitchell.

Although plans for putting these ideas into operation are as yet not definite, recommendations have been made to make Bizzell Hall the permanent headquarters of the band, starting next year. If this plan is accepted, a practice room will very likely be constructed between the two wings of Bizzell Hall.

SENIOR BATTALION STAFF POSTS FOR NEXT YEAR NAMED

M. F. Fincke and Joe Evans
Have Been Appointed
Managing Editor and Sports Writer, Respectively.

M. F. Fincke, junior student of chemical engineering from San Antonio, and Joe Evans, junior agricultural administration student from Plainview, have been appointed managing editor and sports writer, respectively, of the 1934-35 Battalion, according to an announcement made early this week by D. L. Tisinger, editor-elect. Both men have been actively engaged on the Battalion staff heretofore.

Fincke, a member of "E" Battery, Field Artillery, was elected to the Scholarship Honor Society last fall. He has been a "distinguished student" since entering A and M, and was the winner of the sophomore mathematics contest last year. He is at present one of the junior editors.

A brother of Claude Evans, editor of the 1931-32 Battalion, Evans has been assisting Carroll Roberts, present writer, in covering sports news. He is in "B" Battery, Field Artillery, and a member of the Ross Volunteers.

who do not sign will pay only their regular fees. Petitioners are assured that the funds derived from their contribution will be used solely for the purpose of bringing performers here. It is emphasized that only if nearly everybody signs the petition will the plan work at all. It is squarely up to the cadets.

Daniel Scoates, professor agricultural engineering, will canvass the faculty for season tickets, while various persons and organizations will solicit in Bryan.

Other entertainers who might be selected are listed here: Ligon
