Father—I don't like to see our daughter lighting cigarettes.

Modern Mother—Oh, don't be so old-fashioned.

Father—It isn't that. She's too young to be playing with matches.

The treasurer of the Ladies' Aid Society of a church was making a deposit for her organization at a bank. She was acquainted with the teller, and as she thrust the money through the window she said, "Here's the aid money." But the teller, who understood her to say, "Here's the egg money," replied: "Well, it looks as if the old hens have been laying pretty well lately."

Just another reason why accounts are shifted.
