AGGIE-LONGHORN—

the Thanksgiving affair are Odell "Muggins" Fowler, port side passer and punter who has tussled with the Longhorns on two previous occasions, "Doc" Pitner, sophomore halfback who has shown plenty of drive this season, Les Cummings, Jack Stringfellow, Reese Newsome, Sid Martin, Nash Thompson and Kimbrough. In the line Charley DeWare, Jr., Jack Roach and Stanley Staeh will give the highly touted Coates a good day's work. John Crow, Marion Crow, "Dog Eye" Conoley, and Stap Maxwell will alternate. At the tackle posts the Aggies are due to give the Steers a bitter battle. Wharton "Stumble" Jordan, 225 pounder from Fort Worth was one of the outstanding linemen against Texas last year, and he made it plenty hard for the Steer offense to click over that part of the line. Selmer Kirby, sophomore from Amarillo has been outstanding in the last few games. The Steers have the better of the argument at end posts as Sanger and Gray are both worthy of All-Conference mention.

The Longhorns have a lot of power, speed and aggressiveness in the backfield with Bohn Hilliard, Hugh Wolfe, a sophomore, "Buster" Babel, "Buster" Jurecka and Hadlock. In the line Sanger and Gray have predominated the wingmen, with Co-captain Charley Coates, at center, one of the best centers in the conference, and Beasley, a great tackle.

The contest Thursday will be the forty-first meeting of the two clubs in as many years. The two teams have not met every year since the feud started back in 1894, but two games were played in 1900, '01, '07, '08, and '09, which make up for all the broken years.

This historical event started forty years ago when "College" as A and M was known, went to Austin to play "Varsity", as the University of Texas was known. Less than 1,000 spectators witnessed the contest upon this occasion. Little did they know they were the "charter members," so to speak, of great rivalry that was to grow from the meeting. Year by year, tradition and glamor was added to the contest until it became the most colorful and traditional rivalry in the Southwest.

The first seventeen games it seemed to be a Varsity affair as they took fourteen of the decisions, dropped one, and one ended in a victory for the Aggies. It was a 12 to 0 score in the last game of 1902.

In 1909 things began to look better for the Aggies. They won two games that year 28 to 0 and 5 to 0. In 1910 the Farmers made it three straight over the University, by trimming them 14 to 8. The tension between the two schools caused a three-year ban on athletic activities.

The renewal of hostilities that started in 1915 marks a new era for the Aggies as the Fighting Farmers have held their own, or nearly so, with the powerful Longhorns since that time. In 19 games since that time the Aggies have taken 8, the Steers 9 and two have ended in a tie. When the Longhorns came to Aggieldand in 1915, it was the first time a game between the two schools had been

SEND OFF BANQUET HONORS A & M'S LIVESTOCK JUDGES

Texas Aggie's livestock judging team, which left Friday morning for the livestock judging contest to be held in conjunction with the annual livestock show in Chicago, was given a sendoff at a banquet held Thursday night in the animal husbandry hall. The Saddle and Sirloin Club sponsored the affair. Dr. Mark Francis, D. W. Williams, C. M. Sheppardson, and Fred Hale were speakers at the banquet. The team is composed of W. L. Boothe, Jr., Sweetwater; R. E. Evers, Dublin; J. L. Richmond, Kyle; F. C. Shillingburg, Dublin; M. B. Templeton, Dublin; and H. W. Turney, Dublin. J. J. Knox, coach, will accompany the team on the trip.

A I E E Proceedings Recorded

Early volumes in these files contain not only material of historical value but of much modern interest.

broken. The Aggies were the first to break the ice when, in 1922, King Gill threw a forward pass that enabled the Cadets to score a 14 to 7 victory over the Steers. But the Longhorns came back the next year to beat the Aggies 6 to 0 on Kyle Field.

Although the dope points to a decisive Longhorn victory, the Aggies under the inspired tutelage of Homer Norton and Cal Hubbard will be in Austin Thanksgiving Day in an effort to upset the bucket, down tradition, and surprise the whole state with a victory over the Longhorns.

Refining Procedure Shown In Exhibits

A display rack, showing a typical refining process for Pennsylvania grade crude oil, was received by the petroleum department last week and is now on exhibit in the display cases in the petroleum building. Included in the exhibit are small bottles containing samples of petroleum products ranging from the raw crude to finished motor oil, gasoline, kerosene, and wax. The rack to which the samples are attached contains a typical refinery flow chart indicating the various points in the process at which the respective products are removed.

Gertrude Stein, the author who writes in mixed sentences and shuffled words, cancelled a speech at the University of Chicago because the officials found it impossible to keep the crowd below 500.

In a recent address Maj. Gen. Smedley D. Butler, retired marine officer, asserted that he would "never carry a rifle beyond the borders of the United States again," and called the Marine Corps a "debt collecting agency."

ing around in a daze singing "BROKEN HEARTED," maybe we can enlighten you—the DALLAS GIRL FREN took the FATAL STEP and said, "I DO," the other day and didn't give him the slightest warning—looks like a bad case of POWDER BURN.—MR. "NICK" WILLIS was seen doing a little READING ON THE HOUSE at the news stand the other nite—we figure that he was catching up in his home work in ANATOMY from the type of magazines that he was reading. —"KICKUM" GODWIN, kick-off man for the varsity football squad, was caught without a paddle the other nite when the GIRL FREN wanted to see a show that he had already seen. He refused to see the show again, but bought her a ticket and waited outside for her till she saw the picture—we are wondering if his pal "BING CROSBY" KAZ, had anything to do with helping him solve the problem.

AFTER EVERY CLASS IT RINGS THE BELL!

PIPE smokers everywhere have labeled Prince Albert "The National Joy Smoke" because they have found it a superior mixture of choice, top-quality tobaccos. Every hint of "bite" is removed from mild, mellow "P.A." by a special process. One pipeful of Prince Albert will prove to you why smokers say, "You never know how good your pipe can taste until you try P.A."
