

KADET KAPERS

By JACK PUCKETT

Pity the poor scandal writers on exam week. Selling overcoats during the summer months would be an easy task compared to that of trying to collect facts on the escapades of students. For the main thought of the cadets this week is centered on grade points. The seniors have scattered to the four winds, but so far no stories of their adventures have returned to the campus. The rest of the corps seems to be trying to make up for the studying that it should have been doing for the last four and a half months.

Last week the column was the recipient of two letters from the beautiful C. I. A. (officially known as T. S. C. W.) One was from a girl; that the writer hadn't seen or heard from for seven years; the other, two years. All of which goes to show, dear laddies, that the Battalion really gets around. So if any of you readers would like to be known in Denton, it seems that all you have to do is to have your name in the Battalion.

It appears that the tortoise shell that has so far surrounded JIMMY DOYLE of the Chem. Warfare has finally been broken. It seems that Jimmie, A and M's No. 1 "Little Lord Fauntleroy", who doesn't smoke, doesn't drink, doesn't dance, and loves roses, has finally given way to LOVE. Your reporter has received confidential information from Houston that MISS LUCY LOVE will be Doyle's date for the Junior Prom and Final Ball, making the first date that Jimmie has ever had on the A and M campus.

A. C. DECKER, otherwise known as "Colonel Decker" has been having a hard time in his wooing of the COMMANDANT'S DAUGHTER. His chief opposition has been in the form of a dashing, romantic CAPTAIN, whose past feats on the gridiron have far surpassed anything that Decker has ever been able to do. But DECKER has a word of advice to pass on to those juniors who would court MISS MOORE this summer in order to induce her poppa to give them some diamonds. It is this: The little lady loves to eat ginger-snaps.

WRIGHT BRADLEY, the corps is awaiting the arrival of your little woman from Baylor that we have heard so much about. Now if she fails to come down for the Junior Prom, we want a much better excuse than you have given us the last two times that she has disappointed you—and us!

Congratulations are now in order for R. A. "SCOTTIE" SCOTT, whom rumor has to be given in holy wedlock this summer to the girl of his dreams. The column takes this opportunity to wish health and happiness to the both of you.

DOYLE JUSTICE, supposedly leading the campus in most of its activities, has decided to lead the way toward reform, with the honest belief that all good Aggies will follow him. One night not long ago, according to his reports to the column, DOYLE and one of his ever-present neophytes walked into HRDLICKA'S with the intention of joining the regular Double-Table of Big-Shots. But instead of his usual Family-Size (as he tells it) DOYLE ordered a glass of milk.

The waitress, decided that he had all sails set into the wind, decided to humor him; his buddy-pals, after one horrified glance, got up and walked away. Interesting—if true—or was it planned for a deep impression on the TEXAS U. MAGNET?

Notes from hither and yon: The junior six-strippers who have been serving as O. D.'s the past week have been having a hard time missing all the non-regs that have been running around.

MARVIN HENRY, the heavy-weight two-diamond man, announced to the Engineer regiment in general that he would personally knock the scoundrel who put the cannon in front of Walton Hall in the head with his board instead of the usual place. More power to you, Marvin; it's not everyone who uses the board on people's heads.

THE BOOBY PRIZE for this week goes to the North Gate drug stores that have closed at eleven o'clock the past week just the same as any other, making the rush of "dope fiends" at the College Inn in the early morning hours seem like registration day.

As a concluding note, the column wishes all of you a happy summer vacation. May you drunkards get drunk. May you casanovas fling your woo. And may you save all the money that you are planning to. But before the final curtain is rung down on the Kapers for this year there is a word of wisdom that I wish to leave with the fish. When you think this summer of what a big shot you'll be next year, and how the class of 1942 will be calling you Mister, remember: There is nothing higher than a sophomore in his own opinion, and nothing lower in anyone else's.

"This world was created several years back, and really will continue several years more, I hope, changing hats, changing dresses, changing styles, etc., are all indications of this changing world." Natalie Simpson, Texas State College for Women junior, wins a speaking contest with her version of "This Changing World."

When is a strike not a strike, and when is it a demonstration?
