Strong Temple Grid Team Downs Broncos

A desperate Bryan High School team tried in vain to stop the Wildcats from Temple Friday night on Forrest Field in Bryan, finally falling behind 12 to 7. All markers were made in the first half, with Temple pushing over the first counter in the opening period. This incited the Broncos to action and they soon took the lead when they hit pay dirt in the second quarter. Temple rushed over another six points in the closing minutes of the second stanza to get in front, again, and they could never be headed again by the battling Bryan team.

Bryan went into the game as underdogs, but they put up a grand fight to the heavier and more experienced Temple crew. Coach Jones' boys played over their heads, and had the Wildcats worried all the time. The Broncos bid fair to become a real threat in District 11 and may pull an upset or so before the season is done with.

Friday night's game was played before a near record crowd, a special train from Temple having come down for the occasion.

Ned James, T. C. U. freshman line coach is one of those rare coaching specimens who never earned a letter in college football. Moke Brumbelow, varsity line coach, calls James one of the "smartest fundamentalists" he has ever seen.

HOUSTON DOGGEREL WRITER SENDS EFFORT TO BAT SPORTS EDITOR

BY E. C. "JEEP" OATES
Battalion Sports Editor

The following is a poem that some great poet of Houston wrote and has sent to the sport writers over the state. It is a poem about a man, or rather hulking hunk of beef, who has been called All-America by Lloyd Gregory, Dick Freeman, and Andy Anderson of the Houston papers, the same three men that built and tore down a Rice team. The fact that Rice is a torn down ball club may be seen from the fact that the team that was to go to the Rose Bowl and be national champions has been beaten by two teams who have been rated well down the ladder.

The scene is Houston; the time is October 1, 1938. The characters are the Rice and Oklahoma football teams. The author is unknown, but, incidentally there are rumors that he lives in Houston. Anyway, he has a darn clever story to tell. Here it is:

"With Apologies to Casey at the Hat"

It looked extremely rocky for the Houston team that day,
The score stood seven to six with few minutes left to play.
So when Sullivan failed to gain and Scheuble did the same,
A pallor wreathed the features of the patrons of the game.

A straggling few got up to go, leaving there the rest,
With the hope which springs eternal within the human breast.
For they thought: "If only Ernie could throw one to Cordill."
They would bet even money with Ernie in their still.

Then from the gladdened multitude went up a joyous yell,
It rumbled in the stadium, it rattled in the dell.
It struck upon the hillside and resounded on the bay,
For Ernie, mighty Ernie, was advancing to the fray.

Twenty thousand eyes were on him as he lumbered into view,
Twenty thousand tongues applauded when he stooped to tie his shoe.
And as he stood with hands on hips, the crowd went wild again
No stranger in the stands could doubt 'twas "All-American Laine."

There was ease in Ernie's manner as he waddled to his place,
There was pride in Ernie's bearing and a smile on Ernie's face;
And clutched to his manly bosom so that all who run may read,
Was Collier's latest story about the mighty Ernie's deed.

Dick Freeman and Lloyd Gregory were hugging each other with glee
Andy grinned from ear to ear, 'twas a joyous sight to see.
Who were those dummies from the North, from Oklahoma town?
Preposterous that they should lead our team of great renown.

And now the pigskin covered sphere came hurtling through the air,
And Ernie heaved a mighty pass in haughty grandeur there,
High above the fleet Cordill the ball unheeding sped,
"To hell with that," said Ernie: "Incomplete," the referee said.

From the benches, black with people, there went up a muffled roar,
Like the beating of the storm waves on the stern and distant shore.
"Interference! Kill the referee!" shouted many from the stand,
And it's likely they'd have killed him had not Ernie raised his hand.

With a smile of Christian Charity great Ernie's visage shone;
He stilled the rising tumult, he made the game go on;
He signalled to the center, and once more the spheroid flew;
But the Scanner line read Collier's not—the referee said: "Lost two."

"We want Viner! Give us Watson," cried the maddest thousands, "Fraud!"
But one scornful look from Ernie and the audience was awed;
They saw his face grown stern and cold, they saw him paw the ground;
They knew that now the time was done, and Rice was Rose Bowl bound.

The smile is gone from Ernie's lips, the signals called in haste;
The crowd waits expectantly, there is no time to waste;
The center bounds and makes his pass, and Ernie lets it fall;
And now the air is hushed and tense—Oklahoma has the ball!

Oh, somewhere in this favored land the sun is shining bright;
The band is playing somewhere, and somewhere hearts are light;
And somewhere men are laughing; and somewhere children shout;
But there is now joy in Houston; the Mighty Laine just fished out.

Big Intramural Sports Are Well Under Way Now

BY "CHICK" DENNY

The first intramural tennis games are scheduled for today, bringing the load of the Physical Education Department up to capacity standing. Class A teams are now playing touch football, basketball, and tennis, while the Class B teams are competing in only basketball and touch football.

Later in the month the department will introduce water polo for both classes, and the swimming meet and cross country meets will be held sometime in November. If the weather remains favorable, there is a possibility that volley ball will be completed before Christmas, which would give us seven sports completed before the turn of the year.

Results of the latest games played Class A touch football: "E" F. A. won over "A" C.W.S., 7 to 0. "C" F. A. beat "D" Eng., 12 to 0. "E" Inf over "C" Coast, 7 to 0. "1st Hdq." F. A. looked good to whip "B" Sig., 13 to 0. "D" Inf. lost a tough one to 2nd Cb. Tr. F. A. by 7 to 2 penetrations. "2nd Hdq." F. A. socked out a 12 to 0 victory over "A" Inf.

In basketball the latest finals are: "A" Coast in a honey of a win over "B" C.W.S. by the close score of 4 to 2. "C" F. A. went wild in beating "E" Inf., 19 to 3. And, speaking of going wild, "B" Inf went high-wild and tromped all over "1st Hdq." F. A. by a 23 to 6 win. "G" Inf didn't do so badly when they beat "D" F. A., 21 to 8.

In the Class B sports we find the same number of games have been completed. In football these games have been played: Hdq. Sig. whipped "D" F. A., 12 to 6. "K" Inf. knocked over "B" Eng., 13 to 0. "A" Cav. won from "E" Eng. 7 to 0. "E" Inf. lost to "A" Sig., 7 to 0. "B" Inf. gained a 7 to 0 victory over "A" Coast. And the prize game of the week was the overtime tie game between "2nd Hdq." F. A. and "D" Eng.

The Fish basketball games, to date, have ended with these scores: "B" Sig. over "F" Inf., 11 to 7. "E" Inf. beat last year's Fish Intramural champs, "A" F. A., by an

Aggies Snuff All Except One Bronc Goal March

A formidable Texas Aggie eleven held the Broncos from Santa Clara in check for two whole periods at San Francisco-Saturday, only to have a counter pushed over in the third quarter giving Santa Clara a 7 to 0 win. The victory kept the Santa Clarans in the race for the mythical national championship.

The Texans gained 73 yards rushing to 175 for Santa Clara and as a result the Cadets made five first downs, as compared with 10 for the Broncos. A. & M. passed 20 times, completed four and gained

8 to 7 score. "B" F. A. licked "C" Inf., 21 to 11. And Fish Lamber-son looked like varsity material when he, nearly single-hander, gave his club, "B" Inf., a 34 to 3 victry over "B" Cav.

28 yards by this means. Santa Clara attempted nine, made two good and picked up 26 yards as a result. A. & M. average 39 yards per unit while Santa Clara only averaged 28 yards. Penalties were even at 40 all.
