

ROLAND KING, A. & M. Student, gave the A. & M. Future Farmers Association a description of the recent FFA meeting in Washington, D. C., at a meeting of the association held Tuesday. The organization has many activities planned for the coming year.

POLO TEAM WINS FOR FIRST TIME

The Texas Aggie Polo team chalked up their first victory of the current year, Sunday afternoon, on Jackson Field by setting back the San Angelo All-Stars 7 to 6. It took Fairfax Bennett's goal in the last two seconds of play to produce an Aggie win. The boys followed the example set by the football team Saturday, in giving thrills and chills to the fans.

The All-Stars drew first blood in the initial chukker when Mertz scored, but the Aggies ganged up and took the lead in the second period—a lead they never gave up. In the sixth stanza, the All-Stars fought back very effectively with three markers to tie up the count at six all. Then, with only about two seconds of play remaining, Bennett made his spectacular goal, and saved the day for the Aggies.

Forrest Jordan, Bennett, and Ed Brown, all of the Aggies, made two points each—to lead the Cadets in scoring honors. Asa Jones accounted for the other marker. Leading All-Star scorers were Bill Mertz and John Bryan, with two apiece. Bill and Cody Cardwell made one apiece for the All-Stars.

Line-up for the two teams:
A. & M.—Ed Brown, No. 1; Fairfax Bennett, No. 2; Asa Jones, No. 3; and Forrest Jordan, No. 4. Dick Culbertson substituted for Brown at the No. 1 post.

All-Stars—Bill Mertz, No. 1; Cody Cardwell, No. 2; John Bryan, No. 3; and Bill Cardwell, No. 4.

AGGIE AND ARKANSAS OFFENSIVES

Kimbrough Pulls Game Out of Fire With Less Than a Minute to Play

BY E. C. "JEEP" OATES
Battalion Sports Editor

Whew! I hope I don't have to sit through another game like that one with Arkansas for a long time. Thanks to John Kimbrough, he pulled that one out of the fire with less than a minute to go.

It was a hard game for the Razorbacks to lose, but it would have been a harder one for the Aggies to lose, if they had. The Aggies had the better ball club and should have won long before they did, but it seems that someone can't realize that a ball game can be played without throwing the air full of footballs. Passing has hurt our ball club for several years, and why it is used when our ground game is going is more than many of us can understand.

The sports writers in the box were warm in their praise for that crashing back, John Kimbrough. They all wanted to see the Aggies win and, during the last quarter they were all yelling, "Give that ball to Kimbrough". They were not the only ones that were yelling that. The entire crowd was yelling the same thing. The writers, before the game, though that Kimbrough's showing last week at Waco might have been just luck, but when the gun fired Saturday evening, they all agreed that he was the best ramming and blocking back they have seen this year. John averaged 6.06 yards per carry in that game.

Dick Todd looked to be at his best on his touchdown gallop. He went by the line almost on his own. He stiff armed one man and fed the other a hip which he took away from him when he went to grab it. Todd played a very nice game, although he was not of the shining type after he made his long run. He did play a wonderful game. He saved a touchdown or two with some sweet tackles.

Joe Boyd was released by the doctor only a few minutes before the game started. He was hurt in the Baylor game and during the week he was sent to Houston to a doctor. The doctor notified the Aggie coaches just a few minutes before the game started that it would be alright to play him. He turned in a fine game.

George Branson was injured early in the fray and was replaced by Ernie Pannell who played outstanding ball.

Although the Aggie passing as a whole was very poor, they did out-pass the Arkansas team which is noted over the nation for its heaving. Kay Eakin, star Hog passer and ball carrier, had his average for carrying and passing injured. Cole and Atwood were the outstanding Hog backs.

All of the games in the conference went true to form this week except the Rice-Auburn fray. Let's hope that the Owls are not going to start that winning streak that they enjoyed last year when they lucked out and won the championship.

Only three games remain on the Cadet schedule. They are games with S. M. U. at Dallas next Saturday, Rice at College the following week and Texas at Austin Thursday, Nov. 24. They will have to win all of their remaining games if they expect to finish second. If they win their remaining contests they will finish with the same average that Rice did last year.

S. M. U. will be no snap for the Cadets Saturday. They always like to donate their win over the Aggies to their coach, Matty Bell. For the last two years A. & M. has won rather handily, but that beating that the Ponies gave us in 1935 will long be remembered. Bobby Wilson and his Rose Bowl bound mates ran up and down that mud soaked Kyle Field at will that rainy afternoon.

We wish to commend the yell leaders and the cadet corps on their work Saturday. That constant yelling really sounded good across the field and it drew much comment from the visiting sports writers.

The ball club will probably en-train for Dallas Friday morning at 9:57 and the students should go and give them a sendoff.

CROSS-COUNTRY TEAM WILL GO TO AUSTIN SATURDAY

Coach F. G. Anderson will take his cross-country team to Austin where they will have a duel meet with the University of Texas team Saturday morning.

Anderson says that he has only one experienced man on the team this year. He is "Mickey" Hogan, star miler on the track team. The rest of the boys were picked out of the student body. They were on intramural teams last year. The former commandant said that he has no expectations of winning.

The following Friday the team meets the University of San Antonio at College.

A. & M. TO MEET S. M. U. FOR 21ST TIME SATURDAY

With the score in games standing 8 to 9 in favor of the Southern Methodist Mustangs, and with three tie games on the books, Coach Homer Norton's Texas Aggies will be out to even the score when they meet Coach Matty Bell's Ponies at Ownby Stadium Saturday, Nov. 5, in their twenty-first meeting.

The schools began their rivalry back in 1916, the year S.M.U. was admitted to the Southwest Conference. The first game went to the Aggies, 63-0 and then they did not meet again until 1919, but since that time have met annually.

The record to date is as follows:

STRONG WACO HIGH DEFEATS BRYAN 27 TO 0

BY TOM DARROW
Assistant Sports Editor

Waco, with one of the State's best high school football teams, passed and ran over a weak Bryan Bronco team to roll up a count of 27 to 0, Friday night in Bryan on Potrett Field. The classy Tiger boys never gave Bryan a chance at the goal and piled up 18 first downs to Bryan's three.

The Tigers were led by Joel Bonner, 165 lb. halfback sensation. Bonner passed, ran and punted better than any man on the field. He passed to Bowen in the first period for the initial counter, and then plowed through the center of the Bryan line for the second score, in the same quarter. An intercepted Bronco pass netted the Tigers another six points. Shytles, Waco end, took the interception down the sidelines for 65 yards and the marker.

After the half Bryan held off the ramponing Waco team for a while, but Bonner put on the steam again in the fourth to make another tally for the Tigers, by circling end.

GOODSTEIN LEADS FENCERS TO WIN OVER DALLAS "Y"

Alvin Goodstein led the A. & M. fencing club to a decisive victory over Dallas "Y" in the opening contest of the Southwest Fencing League here Saturday night in the memorial Gymn. The Aggie club won 12 out of 15 bouts, taking first place in foil, sabre, and epee. By this victory the club is now favored to retain the championship of the league.

Goodstein and Akarman won three matches each for the Cadets. Rominger won two matches and Baird, Francis, Clements, and Levine won one each. Akarman and Levine won their sabre matches by 5 to 0 decisions.

Winners for the Dallas team were Council, Gehrig, and Brockman.

The Cadets resumed practice Monday in preparation for the match with S. M. U. Saturday in Dallas. This match is one of the Southwest Conference Contests. The Aggies now head the conference with victory over Baylor.

The College Station women's team lost to the Dallas women with the close score of 3-2. Those on the team are Helen Hill, Virginia Jones, Ann Moore, Mable Claire Wrenn, and Mrs. T. D. Roberts.

TOUGH SCHEDULE PLANNED BY AGGIE PISTOL TEAM

Football teams may boast of their inter-sectional games and complain of their tough schedules, but they will have to stay up late at night to get even with the Aggie pistol team. They boast of a tentative schedule that would put many other teams to shame. With three lettermen back from last year's squad, Captain Philip Enslow, enthusiastic sports follower and coach of the pistol team, says that he expects to have a "better than average group of 'six-gunners'."

The team has challenged nearly 50 teams from all over the United States. They were not content with this and also crossed the "pond" to invite a British team to match shots with them.

To top things off, the Cadets have as many as five matches in one day and five matches for as many as three days in a row.
