Aggies' Last Win at Austin Dates Back to Bible's Regime Here in 1922

BY E. C. "JEEP" OATES
 Battalion Sports Editor

It has been a mighty long time since the Aggies won a football game in Austin, but it has also been a mighty long time since Texas won a game here. In 1922 it was Dana Bible, now at the helm of the lowly Steers, who carried the Maroon and White to Austin where the Cadets won 14 to 7. That victory proved to be costly because the next year the Longhorns came to College and defeated a superior Aggie eleven 6 to 0.

Coming up to the days that we all remember, say 1935, the Cadets have had the better teams all along. In '35—the Aggies won at home 20 to 6. It was a very windy day and the entire game was played on the south end of Kyle Field. That day "Bomber" Lindsey, great Aggie tackle, stepped back to kick a field goal, but instead he passed for a touchdown. The Steers were so surprised that they were only playing ball because they were on the field. There was no spirit left in them.

In '36 one of the strongest Cadet teams of recent years traveled all over the country playing as many as three games in eight days. When they finally came to the Texas game they were played and traveled out. The Aggies were low and the Steers were high that memorial day in Austin. The game ended with the Steers winning 7 to 0.

Last year the teams met on Kyle Field. The Aggies were held to a mere seven points, but that was enough margin for a victory.

This is another year. The Steers have not won a game this season. If they beat the Aggies they will consider that they have had a successful season. We are sorry Mr.

Bible, YOU WILL NOT HAVE THE SATISFACTION OF WINNING OVER THE AGGIES THIS YEAR, AND THAT MEANS THAT YOU WILL NOT WIN A GAME AT ALL THIS TRIP.

"Red" Vestal, the great fullback of the champion, Rice eleven last year has finally heard the Referee's gun fire for the last time. This is a blow to the entire conference. "Red" played his football hard and he played for keeps. Every coach in the conference gave praise to the red haired Owl who messed up their plays.

Vestal has been fighting a losing fight for his life for many weeks. Just when it seemed that he was taking a turn for the better, the gun fired before he could cross the goal line.

We express our sympathy to his parents and to his school.

Your scribe will announce his All-Conference selection one week from Tuesday. At this time it appears that only three schools will be represented on it.

PREDICTIONS

Only two games will be played by conference teams this week. Baylor meets the high stepping S. M. U. Mustangs. T. C. U. passes

Norton is going to take the senior members of the ball club to Houston to witness the Rice - T. C. U. classic Saturday. The likable Aggie mentor says that those boys have put out for him for three years and he feels that that is the least he can do for them. We feel the coaches, players and students have a better understanding between them now than has been the case since 1927.

SONJA HENIE

Boys, that Sonja Henie, who is now showing in person at the Coliseum in Houston has really got what it takes. Anyone who does not see that show has missed the chance of a lifetime. She is three times better in person than in pictures and ten times better looking.

Saturday will be her last night in the Bayou city. She has a cast of some 100 members and they put on about 20 numbers. Each of the numbers is a show of its own. The two high spots are when the cast of 25 boys and 25 girls dance the "Blue Danube", and when the lovely Sonja dances a tango with the Canadian skating champ. The night your scribe was there she received six encores.

The finale is a number in which the entire cast put on "Alice in Wonderland". Sonja is playing before some 11,000 people at every performance. Admission prices are $3.60, $2.40, and $1.65.

BASKETEERS BEGIN WORKOUTS FOR FLAG CHASE

Nearly every night now the hard wood courts are thumping to the tune of rebounding balls and the nets over head are swish, swishing as the balls go sailing through, for Coach Hub McQuillen is beginning to whip his 1938-39 Texas Aggie basketball team into shape for the approaching conference flag chase, down at the Memorial Gym. By the first of December the boys should begin working full time at the art of the bounding ball. Because of other duties Coach McQuillen will not be able to give all his time to basketball, until after Thanksgiving.

With only one letterman back from last year's squad, the Cadet hopes for conference laurels are mighty dim. Sammy Dwyer, Captain and only letterman will lead his mates to the basketball wars this season. To help him will be Woody Varner, junior squadman and B. J. Adams, squadman. These two boys are both forwards and the only returning players from last year.

About the only bright spot in the whole set-up is the expected play of a couple of sophomores. J. T. Lang, All-Stater from Bryan a few years back and "Big Dog" Dawson are being groomed to fill the vacancies left by graduation. Odell Herman, another hustling sophomore, may swing into action and give everyone a race. J. A. Carrigan, junior college transfer, is expected to win a place as a forward on the team, along with Adams.

Right at present the guard positions seem to be the strongest, with Dwyer and Lang—two very smooth performers—holding the inside track on the jobs. At center Dawson will probably hold sway, if his knee ever heals, and the forwards will include Adams, Carrigan and Varner.

Student Tickets On Sale Until Nov. 22

Student tickets for the Thanksgiving football game are now on sale at the Athletic Office. The tickets will be on sale until 5 p. m. Tuesday, November 22. Students making this trip must get their tickets prior to this time. There will be no student tickets sold in Austin. The price of the student tickets is $1.10 together with Coupon No. 32.

2nd Hdq. F. A. Leads Field With Basketball Wins

TOM DARROW
 Assistant Sports Editor

Rain during the early part of the week has slowed down the play-off in most of the events under way at the present time. With fair weather for the remainder of the month, nearly everything can be cleared up for the beginning of volley ball and speed ball.

In Class A tennis there are exactly twenty matches yet to be played. At the present, E. F. A. has taken the lead, but so few matches have been held that no definite idea can be had of the outstanding entries.

With league winners decided for all but leagues A and B, it seems that 2 Hq. F. A. has produced the most outstanding teams in Class A basketball. At any rate we'll know next week, maybe. This year's crop of entries are, beyond a doubt, the best in many moons, and the play-offs will be exciting. Touch football has not advanced as far as basketball, but will be finished up next week too. All-but four leagues have been settled so far. Here again 2 Hq. F. A. has a fine team, and are very much in the running for top honors. There are only three leagues to be decided in water polo and you should know the winner before long.

Leagues B, C and G have been finished in Class B touch football, but it will be quite some time before the whole thing is cleared up. B and E. F. A. and A. Cav. have won their leagues in this sport. Basketball is still in its early stages in this Class; so we won't know anything definite for awhile.

A little hint in passing—if you want to see a really exciting cross country run, just come down to Kyle Field Saturday afternoon around 3:00, and watch the annual Intramural long distance run.

Intramural managers are again reminded that no Class B runner will be allowed to participate unless five practice runs are to his credit. All entries should report to the Field not later than 2:30, also.

This early in the year it is impossible to pick out teams that have the best chance at the flag, but it is possible to point out the most outstanding teams to date. According to the score cards and personal opinion, the following outfits have the upper hand now: M. Inf., A. F. A., C. Cav., E. F. A., B. Eng., 2nd Hq. F. A., and C. F. A. Not far behind, and perhaps of the same caliber come the following teams: H. Inf., B. Inf., 1st Hq. F. A., K. Inf., and D. Cav.

So far 2nd Hq. F. A. is probably the most outstanding team; for they haven't lost a single game all year. They have won their league in both basketball and touch football.

Here are some more rifle shooting figures:

Winning team—F Coast with a total of 474 points.

Scores of team members are: J. A. Bailey, 96; T. L. Culloin, 96; C. A. Lewis, 93; S. J. Parks, 93; and Sam Tomlinson, 96. High individual for the matches was R. L. Freeborn of D. F. A. with 98 points.

BEAGLE HOUND
 English fox-hound in miniature. Solid and big for his inches, true beagle has the long-wearing look of the hound that can last in the chase. One of the oldest breeds in history—close to the original breed of hounds. U. S. standards specify 15 inches maximum height—any true hound color acceptable.

HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST....

AND SO IS HE

THE frazzling pace of these fast-moving times doesn't mean a thing in the life of the dog. Although his complex, high-keyed nervous system closely resembles our own, when the dog feels his nerves tire he settles down—relaxes—as the beagle hound above is doing. That is instinctive with the dog. We are not so likely to break nerve tension before it gets our nerves upset. We drive on. We worry. Ambition and determination push us on and on... past the warning stage of nerve strain. Will-power silences the instinct to... pause and rest. And yet jittery, ragged nerves are a distinct handicap. Don't let your nerves get that way. Learn to ease the strain occasionally. Let up—light up a Camel! It's such a pleasant, effective way to rest your nerves—a brief recess, mellow with the pleasure of a Camel's mildness and ripe, rich taste. Yes, no wonder smokers say Camel's capitol tobaccos are so soothing to the nerves.
