

TALKING SHOP

MOLLY O'DANIEL AS SHE LOOKS "OFF GUARD TALKING SHOP"

The staff has set aside this issue as the "Inauguration Issue," built around the Jan. 17 induction of W. Lee O'Daniel into the governor's chair.

Key article of this issue is the folio of inauguration photographs by Phillip Golman, who covered the inauguration with the editor and managing editor, R. L. Doss and Bill Payne.

Golman's photos have been so placed that the series may be easily removed from the magazine, if you want to use them for anything.

And because Gov. O'Daniel conducted a "hillbilly" campaign last summer, we have included a couple of "hillbilly" stories.

The cover is another Golman photograph, this one of Governor and Mrs. O'Daniel as they walked from the reviewing stand up to the inauguration platform at Memorial Stadium beneath the sabres of the Ross Volunteers.

And, by the way, a member of the R. V.'s, Foster Wise, tells their side of the inauguration story.

An article in the best "Liberty" tradition is in this issue, "Sixth Sense?" It's by Bill Murray, who has been a mainstay on the newspaper this year but who comes into the magazine for the first time.

Another story is by Leslie Newman Jr., a freshman who has contributed to the magazine once before and who will do so again, we hope.

If this magazine's jokes and articles will help you forget the woes of final examinations and so on, the staff will be very, very proud of itself, 'cause we have 'em, too.

P. S. Governor O'Daniel's transaction tax is not in effect, so it doesn't apply to purchase of this magazine.

W. LEE O' SALUTES THE AGGIE BAND FROM THE REVIEWING STAND.

THE BATTALION

Student Publication of Texas
A. & M. College

VOL. 38

NO. 38

Entered as second class matter at the post office at College Station, Texas, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Office in Room 122 Administration.
Contributions from all students are readily accepted and thoughtfully considered for publication.

STAFF

R. L. Doss Editor-in-Chief
W. H. Smith Advertising Mgr.
Bill Payne, James Critz,
Managing Editors
B. C. Knetsar, George Fulton,
Asst. Advertising Managers
John Moseley Art Editor
Philip Golman
Staff Photographer
E. C. "Jeep" Oates
Sports Editor
R. W. Burchfield Humor Editor
Contributors
Leslie A. Newman, Jr.
Foster Wise
Bill Murray
Ezenezar Zachary
Zeke

CONTENTS

THE MOKINS CLAN	7
Fiction. By Zeke
BASKETBALL ROUNDUP	8
Sports. By "Jeep" Oates
ROOM-MATE TROUBLES	18
Fiction. By Leslie Newman, Jr.
SIXTH SENSE?	15
Article. By Bill Murray
"GOVERNERS INAUGURACHUN"	10
Fiction. By Evenezar Zachary
AN R. V. AT THE INAUGURATION	17
Article. By Foster Wise
INAUGURATION FOLIO	11
Photographs By Phillip Golman
THE BATTALION	