Frosh: "How about a date tonight?"
Senior Coed: "I can't go out with a baby."
Frosh: "Er, pardon me, I didn't know."

—Urchin

First girl: "I don't like your boy-friend."
Second: "Why?"
First: "He whistles dirty songs."

—Jack-O-Lantern

A college boy boarded the train, entered a sleeper, and tipped the six-foot porter liberally to put him off at Atlanta. "I'm a very hard sleeper," said the young man, "and you must take no notice of my protests. Seize me and put me out on the platform."

The next morning he woke up to find himself still on the train, steaming into Athens. Raging with fury, he found the porter and began to bawl him out in strong language.

"I say, sub," replied the great negro, calmly, "you've got a bit o' temper, but it ain't nothin' compared with the young feller I put out of the train at Atlanta."

—Jack-O-Lantern

A colored preacher at the close of his sermon discovered one of his deacons asleep. He said, "We will now have a few minutes of prayer. Deacon Brown, will you lead?"

Deacon Brown sleepily replied, "Lead Hell, I just dealt."

Whatta fool she is.
Spends hours getting her hat on straight, but let's her gums get flabby.
That's the girl in the advertisement.
But not my girl.
She sticks her hat on crooked—the more crooked it is the better she likes it.
And nobody can say she has never heard of pink tooth brush.

She even went into a drug store and tried to buy one.

"Sorry madam, but licenses are issued only when your form is filled out properly."

"Why, I like your nerve sir. We can get married no matter what I look like."

John Smith, a psychiatrist, died. Being a good man, John went to heaven. At the pearly gates John was met and interrogated by St. Peter.

"Name?"

"John Smith."

"Occupation on earth?"

"Psychiatrist."

"Oh, come on in; we can use you."

"Why, what's the trouble?"

"God thinks he's O'Daniel," replied St. Peter.
