A Boston man was fishing in northern Main recently.
He caught a big lake trout, the biggest he had ever landed in his long and busy life. He was elated. He was so delighted that he telegraphed his wife, "I've got one. Weighs eight pounds and it is a beauty!" He received the following answer:
"So have I. Come home."

First Son: Father, I did something awful last night and I need ten thousand dollars or she'll sue.

Father: It's a lot of money, but anything to save the family honor. (Makes out check.)

Second Son: Father, I got in trouble last night and I need ten thousand dollars or she'll sue.

Father: It's all I've got in the world, but I guess anything is better than dragging down the family name.
(Makes out check.)

Daughter: Father, I did something dreadful last night—
Father: Ah, now we collect.
