TALKING SHOP

Well, it's out, in spite of everything. We hope you like it.

Phil Golman, staff photographer, was around Kyle Field for a long time before he finally got the shots he wanted for "Passing Review of Spring Athletes."

Jeep Oates has just na'chully memorized about all there is to be known—for publication—about Aggie athletics, so his "Spring Sports Sparks" ought to be interesting.

Jack McGarr turned up with a yarn, "Tramp," which we thought you might like, and Paul Ketelsen, who is responsible in large part for this mag, dashed off a couple of items for this Spring Sports Issue—both of them sports yarns, "Head Blow" and "Show Off."

Also in this issue is a "Preview of the Longhorn," which is all in fun. And then we have Treadwell's "Screen Review."

A girl at C. I. A. (or T. S. C. W., as you will) who objected to George Fuermann's article on "Female Mail Trouble" in the last issue supplies an answer to Mr. F. Incidentally, Mr. F., who after his last mag efforts isn't exactly a local hero at Denton, attempts to get into good graces with the Denton school this time in "I Hear-I Went-I Saw."

The "Mail Trouble" article caused some furor in near and far educational institutions and otherwise. From College Station to Illinois, girls got somewhat infuriated and amused, mostly the former. Some of their letters appear in "Readers' Reactions."

Well, so long 'til around the 25th of April.

"I call my box the convent 'cause it never has any mail in it."
