

Members of '39 Graduating Class

Around 623 Scheduled to Receive Diplomas Tonight

A total of 623 students at A. & M. are candidates for degrees at commencement tonight, according to a release from the Registrar's office.

Mr. Howell stated, however, that more than this number may be given degrees if last-minute checks yesterday afternoon warrant giving more degrees.

The School of Agriculture has the largest graduating class, with 294 students in line for degrees from that school. Engineering is second with 215. Arts and Science is third with 56, and Veterinary Medicine is fourth with 47. In the Graduate School, 26 students are candidates for degrees.
