These Men Administer A.&M. Affairs

T. O. WALTON

President of the college since 1925 . . . born near Gary, Texas. remembered for his likable speech- ident Walton is away.

Private Lessons in Expression are being given by Mrs. Wood. Phone College 503 or call at Boyett Apt. No. 4 for CHECK UP AGGIES!

In the hustle and hyrry to get into uniform no doubt you've overlooked a number of very necessary items-

CHECK THIS LIST AND SEE

Here's What You'll Be Sure To Need

KNOX HATS - long, oval or regular shapes $6.95

AGGIE COVERALLS best quality, zipper

$3.25

SERGE SLACKS —Hiback, 18 oz. wt. $7.95

BROAD CLOTH SHIRTS — (form fit), fast color with ROTC Patch and Fish Stripes furnished and sewn on FREE $1.75 and $2.00

REGULATION CAPS -$2.75

$2.50

SAM BROWNE BELT —

ARCHER TRENCH COATS - 50 in. length,

$3.50 and $4.25

Metal Insignia, Embroidered Insignia, Web Belt, Hat Cord, Hat Straps, Blitz Cloth, Griffins Shoe Polish Shine Set, Saddle Coap, Laundry Bag.

We Carry a Compliete Line Of AGGIE

Sport Shirts and Sweat Shirts With Emblems, Aggie Buckles, Key Chains, Pennants, Stickers, etc.

"Where Aggies Like To Shop"

Vice-president of the college . . . was made Dean of the College in ident . . . appointed to that post each. ... attended Sam Houston Normal, 1931 ... was dean of the School in 1937, when he resigned as head fine body of officials—updoctor of laws by Baylor Univer- A. & M. in electrical engineer- Parade to come here . . . first con- nent, active, and distinguished sity in 1926 . . . came to A. & M. ing . . . was a major in the cadet nected with the college in 1913, in many fields, many affairs in 1916 as state agent with the corps there and also assistant com- when he resigned as city editor of and activities.

Dean of the School of Agriculture since 1911 . . . graduated from A. & M. in 1889; distinguished himself in every phase of student activities . . . then attended Cornell University, receiving his masment in 1905, and was made dean of the School of Agriculture upon

R. P. MARSTELLER

Dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine . . . attended Ohio State University, receiving the degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medicine there in June, 1905 . . . came to A. & M. in November of that year as instructor of veterinary science and assistant veterinarian for the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station . . . has served as acting dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine since June, 1936, and was chosen dean in July of '37, succeeding the beloved Doctor Mark sociated with the Texas Good Roads in their respective fields. Association . . . headed Houston Pictured on this page are Dr.

COL. IKE ASHBURN

E. J. HOWELL

Registrar of the College-with part- ifications . . . took his B. S. degree in chemical engineering at jects . . . is the outstanding figure at John Tarleton Agricultural Col- ness manager of student activities. in the growth and development of lege, was registrar and commandthe School of Agriculture at A. & ant at John Tarleton from 1924 to tend a special tribute to Mr. An-M. . . . under his direction it has 1930, and has been in the Regis- gell-affectionately known by pubbecome the most up-to-date and trar's Office of A. & M. since 1930, lications staff members as "Chief" most efficient agricultural school becoming Registrar two years af- for his wise counsel and untiring in the country, ranking at the top ter that date . . . has been pres- assistance in many endeavors. ident of the Association of Texas Colleges and the Texas Association of Collegiate Registrars, vicepresident of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars, and president of the Texas Department of the Reserve Officer Association . . . is now president of the Eighth Corps Area Council of the R.O.A., and a member of many organizations . . . has won much re-

Bill Murray, 1939-40 editor-inof the 1939 Summer Battalion. Medical Corps.

Aggies, Meet Your School's Officials---

In this issue, on this page, The Battalion presents to a student body 6,000-strong, portraits of all the highestranking administrative officials of the State Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, together with a thumb-Executive assistant to the pres- nail sketch of the career of

A. & M. is blessed with a

Extension Service . . . named assistant director in 1918, retaining his position until his solection as his position until his selection as eral years . . . is now a major of came major at first Officers Train- talion is devoting this section friends . . . known as "Prexy" by students who seek his advice . . . | tion . . . became manager of the | this opportunity for guidance the students . . . will always be is substitute "Prexy" when Pres- Houston Chamber of Commerce in and counsel and for valuable 1927, serving until he became as- contacts with men preeminent office of the R.F.C. . . . is probably T. O. Walton, president of the colthe friendliest and best-known man lege; Dr. F. C. Bolton, dean and vice-president; Colonel Ike Ashburn, executive assistant to the president and director of public information; Colonel George F. Moore, U. S. Army, Commandant and professor of military science and tactics; Dr. T. D. Brooks, dean of the Graduate School and of the School of Arts and Sciences; Gibb Gilchrist, dean of the School of Engineering; E. J. Kyle, dean of the School of Agriculture; and Dr. R. P. Marsteller, D.V.M., dean of the School of Veterinary Medi-

Other administrative officers, not pictured, include Dr. C. H. Winkler, director of the summer session; W. H. Holzmann, comptroller of accounts; Dr. T. F. Mayo, librarian; Ormond R. Simpson, director of student employment; Lieutenant Joe E. Davis, assistant commandant; Mason L. Cashion, secretary ciation of the college; G. B. Win- ministration student from Luling. stead, director of publicity; J. C. whom the students have innumer- Hotard, supervisor of subsistence;

Eugene J. Howell, shown at the Apartado 101, of that city. of the School of Agriculture upon its creation in the summer of 1911. A. & M. in 1922, his M.S. here in secretary of the faculty; and E. L. left, is Registrar of the college and . . has authored numerous bulle- '32 . . . worked a year as a chem Angell, at the right, is manager tins and texts on agricultural sub- engineer, taught chemistry a year of student publications and busi-

The Battalion here wishes to ex-

James "Jaime" Critz, appointed associated editor of The Battalion newspaper; acts as managing editor of one of the three issues week-

The office of the Professor of Military Science and Tactics announced that the physical examinations for junior military science contracts are being held in Ward 7 in the basement of the college hospital, starting Monday at 8 a. m. chief of The Battalion, A. & M. The examinations are being carried student tri-weekly newspaper and out under the supervision of Lt. Col. monthly humor magazine, and also Henry W. Meisch, United States of the college.

Fred A. "Bodie" Pierce Jr., head

Dean of the School of Arts and COLONEL GEORGE F. MOORE Dean of the School of Arts and Professor of Military Science and Sciences and of the Graduate Tactics, Commandant of the Colcivil engineering . . . was assistant School . . . a graduate of Baylor lege, and Colonel in the United engineer and engineer of the Santa North Texas Normal, and Texas A. of Engineering from 1922 to 1937. of the Texas Good Roads Association of the Santa Standing, outstanding, under-& M. . . awarded the degree of doctor of laws by Baylor Univerday Baylor Univerday and Superintendent of schools at dillery Corps, he is the first officer of the Texas standing men who are promided and superintendent of schools at dillery Corps, he is the first officer of the Engineer ident of Southwestern State Nor- post in fifteen years . . . an ex- Corps in the World War . . . in mal College of Oklahoma . . . en- Aggie of the class of 1908 . . . re- 1919 accepted the position of divis-Believing that all the stu- rolled in the University of Chicago ceived his bachelor of science de- ion engineer of the highway dein 1919 and received his M.A. degree in civil engineering . . . letpartment at San Antonio . . . in gree in 1920, his Ph.D. in 1921 . . . tered at tackle and guard on the tion from 1921 until he came to Aggie football teams of 1906 and 1924 became state highway engipresident of the college . . . has reserves in the Signal Corps . . . in demand on held this position during the period held this position during the period structure. In the college . . . has reserves in the Signal Corps . . . in demand on and off the campus as a speaker, many as a speaker, welcome and encourage visits he has taken an active interest in the signal Corps . . . in demand on and off the campus as a speaker, welcome and encourage visits he has taken an active interest in the Signal Corps . . . in demand on and off the campus as a speaker, welcome and encourage visits he has taken an active interest in the Signal Corps . . . in demand on and off the campus as a speaker, welcome and encourage visits of A. & M.'s greatest growth and most radical changes . . . has always been one of the students' best figures prominently in every college undertaking . . . is a welcome after the figures prominently in every college affairs . . . the larger groups included in the School of all students at all times; and the figures prominently in every college affairs . . . the larger groups included in the School of all students at all times; and the figures prominently in every college affairs . . . the larger groups included in the School of all students at all times; and The Battalion urges that students are liberal arts and Sciences are liberal arts and students, pre-medical students, and until he returned to inspect Coast he has taken an active interest in 1938, from the Army War College ed to the department in 1928 . . . students, pre-medical students, and until he returned to inspect Coast has was planned and put into efscience students . . . one of its Artillery work here in 1932 . . . fect . . . remained in this office major functions is to provide ser- he directs all military affairs of until the fall of '37 when he acvice courses for the other schools the college as well as administering cepted the deanship of the School

E. L. ANGELL

Manager of student publications and business consultant for student activities of A. & M. . . . received the latter position last year. ... came to his present position in senior yell-leader for 1939-40, "H" May, 1936, after several years in of the Young Men's Christian Asso- Infantryman and agricultural ad- journalism and educational work. ... graduated from North Texas State Teachers College with a B.A. M. Saldana, '38, is working for degree, from Columbia University a member of the teaching staff of able interviews in regard to such and B. D. Marburger, superintenthe American Smelting & Refining with an M.A.; and has done grad-A. & M. in June, 1902 . . . was things as grade points and class- dent of buildings and college utili- Company in Monterrey, N. L. Mex- uate work in Chicago University. Denton Record Chronicle, as a Graduate of the University of of Engineering at A. & M. . . . is doing his best to put A. & M. engineers in more and more of the great modern industries.

school principal, a school superintendent, and a representative of the State Department of Education before coming here . . . has given his sanction to a tri-weekly newspaper this year, acting as representative of the Student Publication Board, and has aided the editors in laying plans for the publication . . . aids untiringly the students who work on the Longhorn, The Battalion, The Scientific Review, and other student publications assignments . . . is exceptionally modest and very well-

Classes in Speech

Emphasizing voice training, impromptu speaking, and public speaking for college and high school students are now being organized by Mrs. Wood. Phone College 503 or Call at Boyett Apt. No. 4 for Appointments.

"Yes, this is the graceful Pen that made a railroad spike

The College Favorite by 2 to 1 GUARANTEED for LIFE+

Not a clumsy metal object, but a fine precision instrument—a streamlined Featherweight, whose 14 K Gold Point glides nimbly across your paper, making your thoughts glow on the page like a living trail—that's the new Parker Vacumatic!

Yet five devastating demonstrations prove that it lasts a lifetime, and also easily withstands acid that eats away a railroad spike—the same acid found in ordinary inks. Esquire Magazine rates it in their top-flight gift selections. And Jean

-VACUMATIC

Pens: $5 to $1250 Pencils to Match: $350 to $500

says: "Its sparkling, shimmering, laminated style of circlets of Pearl and Jet is the loveliest I've ever laid my eyes on."

It holds far more ink than ordinary rubber ink sac pens. For its sacless Diaphragm filler abolishes rubber sac, lever filler, and piston pump. Its Tele-vision barrel shows the level of ink prevents running dry in classes or Go and try it today—and be sure to look for the Blue Diamond mark on the smart ARROW clip—that means it's guaranteed for life! You'll never have to buy another pen. The Parker Pen Co., Janesville, Wis.