Frogs and Gentlemen, Ten Defeats Behind, Meet Today

Pour 10 defeats on to a football gridiron, add a dash of weak offense, season with a pinch of inadequate defense, set the whole out for public consumption at the Louisiana State Fair, and what do you have — a football game (so-called) between the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs and the Centenary Gentlemen, today.

Both elevens are breaking records this season—records for successive defeats. The Gentlemen have dropped six in a row—to Louisiana Normal, Hardin-Simmons, Texas A. & M., Rice, Mississippi and Tulsa. In a half dozen starts, Centenary has managed to get 13 points while the combined opponents garnered 98.

The one opponent that both teams have met is the Aggies. The Cadets from College Station proved themselves exactly 14 points better than either team. Scores: A. & M. 14, Centenary 0; A. & M. 20, T. C. U. 6.

If you were a Horned Frog fan and determined to extract consolation from these facts, you could point out that the Frogs scored on the Aggies while the Gentlemen did not.

On the other hand, if you prefer to support the Centenary cause, you may bring forth the fact that the Gentlemen held the Aggies to 14 points while the Frogs had 20 scored on them.

With the cellar championship of the Southwest at stake, the grid fans ought really to turn out. It isn't every season that Shreveport stages a championship game.

Whoever wins today's fight for pygmy honors, the result will be the biggest upset of the day. It seems impossible that both elevens can live up to their reputation and lose.

But—perish the thought—the game could end in a tie!

Baylor Guard

Leonard Akin, big 210 pound Baylor guard is expected to lead the way in the Good Old Baylor Line today when the Bears go up against the Texas Aggies... Akin, a two year letterman and a great defensive performer, made several all-conference selections last year and will be battling for a regular nod this fall.

A. & M. Polo Team Plays First Game

The Aggie polo season will open here Sunday afternoon when the Aggie Varsity plays either Austin or the A. & M. faculty at Jackson Field.

The schedule for the year is beginning to assume shape and if the weather permits, the team will play weekly games during the year.

Major Burnett, coach, states, "It is, of course, impossible to accept all invitations. Out of town games will be played with Oklahoma U., Oklahoma Military Academy, and the Huisache Club of Houston. It is probable that games will be played with Shreveport Riding Club and the San Antonio Army team and possibly New Mexico Military Institute."

College Postmaster Attends Convention

Mrs. Anna V. Smith, postmaster of the College Station Post Office, recently returned from the National Postmaster's Convention in Washington, D. C., which was attended by 5,000 people representing every state in the Union.

Mrs. Smith later made an extended visit through other eastern cities and Canada.

INTRAMURALS

With Hub Johnson

The game of the week in Class A basketball was the tilt between C Cavalry and the Artillery Band. C Cavalry is out for the title again with Jake Wilk leading the squad. The score was 11 to 8 with the troop holding the heavy side.

Games with big leads were: G Coast Artillery fell to L Infantry with a score of 23 to 4. C Field Artillery topped D Coast Artillery 20 to 6.

J. S. Conley led B Engineers to a 36 to 4 win over Hq. Signal Corps. A Signal Corps defeated H Infantry 36 to 6 with R. C. Jackson playing at center scoring 17 of the 36 points.

Ragan and Meyers turned out to be staging a scoring race as D Field Artillery and M Infantry played out a game which ended 14 to 10. Ragan for the field scored five points while Meyers topped him one to put his team on the top with the 14 points.

The swimming meet comes up next week-end. Saturday, November 4, is the day scheduled for the preliminaries and Sunday the day set for the finals.

K Infantry threw up a defense that couldn't be broken as they turned back 2 Hq. Field Artillery 6 to 0. The six points came on a block kick with the infantry team taking over on the two yard line. This observer still thinks it was a safety but they're hard to call. Other than the one play for the two yard drive for the score the game was a bit slower than the rest played that day.

"Fatty" Smith and "Sleepy" Sleeper were the two deserving credit for 2nd Combat Train's win over B Infantry with Smith doing everything but running with the ball. The six points were made as "Hobs" Helms broke the field for 35 yards to put the ball in position for Smith to pass to Sleeper for the score. Smith then topped the Kyle Field back stop to kick the extra point.

Up until this point it was the Infantry's game on penetrations. They started early in the game to set the pace and play a good defensive and a hard running game. After their passes failed to work. In the middle of the line for the blue patches was Ele Baggett.

The only upperclassmen tennis match was scheduled between E Engineers and A Infantry. Boutler and Oswalt won their match, Noblit and Copeland took a forfeit, while Curry and Cook dropped to Spencer and Plogens to win for the Engineers 2 to 1.

T. C. U. Freshmen And Baylor Cubs In Game Tuesday

Handicapped by everything from cracked ribs to loss of a player by the marriage altar, T. C. U.'s freshman gallants will try for their second victory in as many starts when they meet the Baylor Cubs at Farrington Field in Fort Worth Tuesday night.

Bill Wright, flashy guard from Vernon; Billy Sherman, center from Dallas; Mike Harter, guard, Fort Worth; and Marshall Goodman, back from Gaston, are among those on the Polliwog's injury list. The first two may not be able to play against the Cubs.

"Paint" Brewton, red-haired center from Mineral Wells, checked out of the Wog camp this week to get married.

The Wog-Cub game is sponsored by the T. C. U.-Lettermen's Association and will be highlighted by the election and presentation of a freshman queen from both schools and the ugliest boy from each freshman class.

Both the Baylor and the T. C. U. freshmen have played one game this season. The Cubs routed Lamar Junior College 34 to 0 and the Wogs took Weatherford Junior College 24 to 0.

Last year the Cubs defeated the Polliwogs 12 to 0 in a game played in Waco.
