Finds Father

(Continued from page 1) paid frequent visits to his hitchhiking friend living in a college dormitory. Eventually, sure of himself, the "deceased" father explained his identity to his "deceased" son. The lad began investigating all possible sources, and he too became confident of the relationship. He came to Dr. Kovacs with the problem of whether he should forsake his grandfather now and "adopt" his real father. The sociologist advised him to make the change.
