FELLOWSHIP LUNCHEON

The average attendance at our fellowship luncheons stands at 74.0. The largest number present at any one luncheon was 94 and the smallest was 49.

The average per capita cost of these luncheons, based on an average of 74.5 is approximately 43.3¢ per person, a loss to the Dining Hall thus far of some $3.36 on each ticket sold. In order to avoid further loss, the price of tickets will have to be raised or the attendance boosted to an average of approximately 100. The only other alternative, it seems, is to discontinue the meetings.

Our next (and last??) luncheon will be held Thursday, November 9, at that time we shall have to decide whether to try a "drive" for larger attendance or merely discontinue the luncheon. So come Thursday, if you bring along a solution, if you have one.

cup will be presented to the best all-around cowboy of the rodeo.

One of the world's foremost radio announcers, Ben K. Green of Gatesville, will be on hand to complete the atmosphere with a good line of rodeo jargon, while clowns "Duke" Harrison and "Jupe" Allen will present a whip and trip roping exhibition in addition to their regular clown work.

The order of events starts with the grand entry, followed by the presentation of the king and queen of the rodeo. After the introduction of officials the events will follow. Events listed include mule mix-up, steer riding, calf roping, bareback bronc riding, boot race, businessmen's goat roping, bell-calf roping, professor's pig roping, wild cow milking, bronc riding, and a clown act. Following this a presentation awards and cups will be made and the rodeo will close with the riding of the S. M. U. Mustangs, Perunia.

Reserved seats for the sale are on sale at the Animal Husbandry office in the Animal Industries Building. Reserved seats are 75c, general admission is 50c for the night performance and students will be admitted for 25c at the afternoon performance.

A. & M. Dames Club Is Now Federated

Several years ago the number of married students at A. & M. became so great that their wives decided to organize a club.

This club is designed to be a friendly get-together to give the ladies a chance to meet and know each other. Usually a short program is presented. They bring their sewing and after the program discuss such things as new recipes and beauty aids. That the ladies positively do not gossip about their husbands, it is reported!

The club is now federated and as part of a national organization is known as the Dames Club.

Pres. Frank Aydelotte of Swarthmore College is the new head for the Institute of Advanced Study at Princeton.

program. These events will mean that an even larger number of people will be on the campus than would normally attend the football game.

To provide conveniences for the weekend's many visitors, a planning board consisting of Colonel Ashburn and a group of college officials have made plans to accommodate the crowd. Special tables will be set for visitors at 11:00 o'clock and 1:00 o'clock in the Mess Hall if the crowd is too large to be handled at the regular noon meal. A charge of 35c per person will be made. An information booth will be established between the Y. M. C. A. building and Goodwin Hall, for the visitors convenience, and rest rooms for women will be provided for and located at points throughout the campus.

Hub and Dub, who do rhythm numbers with only a clarinet and a guitar. "A courageous fellow by the name of J. S. Byrnes, has volunteered to come up and give us a poetry reading," Mr. Rosser said. "I told him to come ahead, but that I would not be responsible for any uncouth noises that might be made by our studio audience of professional hecklers."

On last Friday's program, the telephone in the studio was left connected; Rosser acted as both master of ceremonies and telephone- answerer, interrupting musical selections in order to receive requests for more. At the start of the program he warned "sensitive listeners" that "absolutely nothing they were about to hear is worth listening to."

If reactions from the listeners and students are favorable, Rosser said, the "Aggie Clambake"

NYA Warns Against Magazine Racketeers

A warning to the public to be on guard against petty racketeering by magazine sales persons who allege in their sales talk they are competing in a contest sponsored by the N. Y. A. or are competing for an N. Y. A. scholarship was issued today by the National Youth Administration.

Several employees of Federal agencies in Washington have reported to the National Youth Administration they were approached by salesgirls and asked "to buy magazine subscriptions to help the N. Y. A. provide scholarships for needy students."

Similar representations by a magazine sales crew in Pennsylvania made necessary issuance of a notice by State N. Y. A. officials that the National Youth Administration is sponsoring no magazine subscription contest nor sales contest of any kind.

National Youth Administration officials characterized the misrepresentations of magazine sales persons as a possible attempt by petty racketeers to cash in on the "Job Creation Contest" sponsored by the N. Y. A. in Illinois which received national attention.

The instances of misrepresentation which have come to the attention of the National Youth Administration are being investigated and will be turned over to the proper authorities for action.

will continue to be heard every Friday. The term "clambake," he explained, is used by radio men to describe "any bum program involving more than two people."

Letter From Italy Asks Baylor's Aid

Dean E. N. Jones of Baylor University revealed today a letter received from Venice, Italy, asking for information on teaching procedure in the Baylor school of business.

The information will be used in the first annual meeting for the development of technical-industrial teaching in Italy and the first exhibition of didactic motion pictures, the letter said.

"We are given to understand," one paragraph read, "that you display a large action in preparing young people who intend devoting themselves to economics activities and to the organization of the production. We should like therefore to get a wider knowledge of your teaching activities."

The new novel of Comedy in Tahiti

by CHARLES NORDHOFF and JAMES NORMAN HALL

Authors of MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY, THE HURRICANE and THE DARK RIVER

VICIOUS CIRCLE: Introducing the happy-go-lucky Tutules of Tahiti, who couldn't go fishing without gas for their boat. Couldn't get gas without money. And couldn't get money without fishing!

THEY COULDN'T EVEN DIE SUCCESSFULLY. Pastor Tearo held memorial services for four Tutules lost at sea . . . but he talked too soon!

PUZZLE: The Tuttle boys caught a fortune in fish—and then discovered they didn't know how to get it home!

"THE MORTGAGE LIFTER." On this bird the Tutules gambled their last stick of furniture—but nobody knew if the cock could fight!
