Lost and Found

LOST: A tan zipper bag left near the end of Washington Ave. in Houston Sunday. Return to I. J. Hart for reward.

LOST: A green Shaeffer Lifetime fountain pen in or near Walton Hall. Finder please return to Roth, 100 Milner, for double usual reward.

LOST: An overcoat left in car going toward Houston last Thursday afternoon. If the two Argies who were in the car know anything about the coat, please see Ernest Hancock, 363 Bizzell.

LOST: I picked up an Argie, whose name I think was Harrington, behind the Administration Building immediately after the game Thursday and took him to the main highway. I understood this young man to say that he was trying to catch a ride to Dallas to spend the holidays. He left in my car an overcoat, which I will mail to him if I may have the owner's written description—especially the label or labels inside the coat and the color of the garment.

for the game around the 20th and will resume training until Christmas eve. On this date, each boy will depart to spend Christmas day at home. After the holiday, the team will probably resume training at Gulfport, Missis-

The Tulane club is a strong power club, probably the strongest team that relies mainly on power as the mainstay of the game but the Aggies' chance for a victory will be 50-50.

With the game all arranged and the tickets ready for the window, another argument comes to the front. The train companies have not decided as to which will run the special from College Station.

The Southern Pacific offers two schedules. The first train leaves here at 7 p. m. and arrives at New Orleans at 7:30 a. m. the morning of the game. The other train leaves here at 8 and arrives at 6:30 in the morning.

The definite schedule of the Missouri Pacific lines is unknown but the route traveled is through Spring to Houston, and then on into New Orleans.

Town Hall—

ute program will include the following well-known selections: Berlioz's "Hungarian March"; Handel's "Largo"; Strauss' "Tales from the Vienna Woods"; Tschai-kowsky's "Andante Cantabile" and Fifth Symphony "Waltz"; Wagner's Overture to "Die Meistersinger"; Tschai-kowsky's "Italian Caprice" and his "Dance of the Flutes" from the "Nutcracker Suite"; and possibly others.

Last year the Houston Symphony Orchestra at its first concert at A. & M. won great acclaim from a large audience of Aggies and others. An equally enjoyable program, if not more so, is assured this time by the Town Hall management.

WHY DOESN'T AN AIRLINE PILOT WRITE A NOVEL ABOUT FLYING?

Well, one just did!

The Story: Take away today's lighted airways; take away radio beams and you're back in the '20's . . . with the hard-shelled pilots who flew the mail "by the seat of their pants." Here's a novel of one reckless flyer who inherited a bankrupt airline, a handful of insubordinate pilots, and a girl manager who predicted he'd have to grow up—or crack up.

The Author: When an expert flyer is also an expert writer—that's Leland Jamieson! Millions of Post readers know his short stories. His first full-length novel is part autobiography, part fiction—all superb entertainment. Right now, as High Frontier hops off, Capt. Jamieson is at the wheel of a DC-3 somewhere between Miami and New York, where he regularly flies day and night runs.

HIGH FRONTIER
by LELAND JAMIESON
Begins in this week's Post

In this same issue:

- "TOO YELLOW TO PLAY FOOTBALL?" He was on the sidelines now. He was the guy who had broken Billy Cooper's leg. The guy 85,000 people were waiting to boo. And today was Game Day. A short story by Paul O'Neil on page 22 of this week's Post.
- THE PLAIN PEOPLE FACE THE WAR. The writer, John W. Vandercook, recently talked with French shopkeepers, peasants, heard their stories; then motored into Germany and spent hours with Nazi small-town leaders. New insight on how the common people of two countries are taking it.
- HOLLYWOOD HUSBANDS HAVE SO-O-O MANY PROBLEMS! Reuben Rosen, Hollywood's Boy Wonder, was a wot at changing scripts into happy endings. But could he kill his wife's infatuation for her new leading man? (Quick, get the script-girl!) A short story, Suggestion for a Happy Ending, by Edith Fitzgerald.

- WILD COYOTES BREAKFASTED WITH US! Snowed in eight months of the year, seven thousand feet up in the High Sierras, the author of this unusual nature article and her husband actually taugth wild coyotes "table manners"! Read The Coyotes Come.
- MARRY FOR LOVE—REPENT AT LEISURE. A boy of nineteen marrying a woman of thirty-one? It won't last, people were saying. But the wife, desperately in love, had the courage to find out. Read Please Let Me Come Home, by Helen Deutsch.
- IT WAS SMART TO BE RED. Eugene Lyons gives you a Who's Who of Communism's elite . . . how they line up unsuspecting professors, naive clergymen, writers, and "society" folk as a front for their propaganda.
- AND . . . Short stories by Maurice Walsh and David Lamson; articles, poems, editorials, Post Scripts and cartoons. All in this week's issue of The Saturday Evening Post.
