BILL STAGES, FORMER AGGIE WINGMAN GETS GLADEWATER COACHING POSITION

Bill Stages, who played end for the Aggies through the 1936 season, has been given the head coaching job at Gladewater high school. Bill will replace Jake Hanna who resigned to take over head mentor duties at Centenary College when Coach Curtis Parker resigned. Stages goes to his new post with a great record. In 1938 his high school team was undefeated and last year his crew was undefeated during the regular schedule, but lost out in the playoff.

Walemon Price has been offered the head coaching job at his old home town of Newcastle, but hasn't decided whether to take it or not. He has asked for a little time to think the offer over.

Bill Conatser visited on the Baylor campus the other day. He is quoted, by the Baylor newspaper, as saying, "We lost some linemen who will be hard to replace, but we should have another fair country ball club. We aren't predicting another title, but we will be gunning for it."

Reports from Austin say that Jack Crain is getting larger. If he keeps on he will be large enough to feel when you get him in your hands. Wonder if he is another Ernie Lain in the making?

SPRING TRAINING WILL AGAIN FEATURE SQUAD GAMES ON WED. - SATURDAY

Again this year the spring training squad will have intra-squad games. The frays will be held on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. There are 68 players

'All Jobs Are Still Open' Norton Says To Gridsters

1ST INTRA-SQUAD GAME FEB. 21.

Spring Training Lineups And Teams Are Announced

Next week the Aggie spring gridsters will get down to work after spending the first week in whipping themselves back in shape. Wednesday afternoon the teams will play their first intra-squad game and Coach Norton says that everyone is welcome to come out and watch.

Despite the fact that veterans are back in nearly all the positions, Coach Norton insisted at the beginning of workouts that "all jobs are still open."

Much of the competition is expected at one tackle and one end, due to the loss of Joe Boyd and Herb Smith. Right now it seems that Chip Routt has the inside track for Boyd's tackle berth. Chip was Joe's understudy for the past two seasons.

James Sterling moved over to Herb Smith's old post and Jack Kimbrough has moved into Sterling's position. When basketball season is over Bill Buchanan and "Big Dog" Dawson may have something to say about those wing jobs.

Following is the way the teams stack up:

GREEN BAY PACKERS

Ends, Sterling, Jack Kimbrough; tackles, Pannell, Routt, Irwin; guards, M. Robnett, Henke, Thompson; centers, Vaughn, Rankin; backs, Kimbrough, Thomason, Conatser, Pugh, Moser, Force.

N. Y. GIANTS

WASHINGTON REDSKINS

CHICAGO BEARS

WATER POLO TEAM LEFT YESTERDAY FOR TOUR OF SWIM AND POLO MEETS IN MID-WEST

Coach Art Adamson and his swimming and water polo team left by automobile yesterday after lunch for their competition trip through the Mid-West.

In all the meets here is the way the lads will swim. Conway, Kirk and Robertson will take care of the medley relay; Ponthieux and Johnson the 220-yard free-style; Couch and Hensley the 50-yard free-style; Reeves and Robertson the diving; Hensley and Couch the 100-yard free-style; Conway and Japhet the 150-yard back-stroke; Ponthieux and Kirk the 200-yard breast-stroke; Johnson and Loomis the 440-free-style; Couch, Hensley, Robertson and Ponthieux the 400-yard relay.

WELFARE COMMITTEE CONSIDERS FINANCING OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Student Welfare Committee held its monthly banquet and business meeting for February Thursday evening in Sbis Hall.

Following the banquet, A. & M.'s representatives to the recent N. S. F. A. convention in Minneapolis—Bruce Davis and Keith Dahl—spoke on problems of financing student activities, which had been considered at the convention. A discussion followed on ways and means of bettering A. & M.'s situation in regard to the financing of its students organizations, dances, Town Hall, and other activities, and a discussion of several other local problems closed the meeting.

Cedarville College's new president is William Smith Kilpatrick, who is just 26 years old.

Rivals Engage In Second Game Here

The Texas Aggies lost a furious 37-25 ball-game here last night before a capacity roaring crowd. A. & M. opened the scoring with Woody Varner, Aggie captain and held this lead for only twenty seconds when Briggs of Arkansas knotted the count and then Freidberger with another bucket started the lanky Arkansas boys on their way.

The score at half time was 18 to 13 in favor of Arkansas. During the second half A. & M. played inspired ball to the yells of the cadet corps. During the last ten minutes A. & M. tried to take the ball from Arkansas with little success.

Tommy Tinker, Aggie ace, played inspired basketball for the A. & M. team.

Highpoint man for the evening was Gammill of Arkansas with a total on nine points, John Freidberger of Arkansas was next with eight points. Henderson and Dawson of A. & M., tied for third place during the game and first place for the Aggies scoring 7 points each. A. & M. meets the Arkansas boys again tonight at 7:30.
