to their dormitory representative, a list of which appears in another part of The Battalion. The winner will be announced over The Battalion's regular Friday afternoon newscast at 5:15 and all run-off candidates will be interviewed at that time.

At a special meeting of the committee held Tuesday night in Guion Hall, Jack Fugate withdrew a petition proffered by interested parties in his behalf that he be in the runoff because of certain alleged discrepancies in the primary election.

Announcement will shortly be made by head yell-leader Bodie Pierce as to the date of the special yell practice to crown the winner "King of the Ugliers" and confer the honorary degree B. U. (Bachelor of Ugliness).

Dormitory and project house representatives to whom first sergeants are to turn in their Ugly Boy contest ballots before Friday at 1:30 are: dormitory one, Mac Duncan, room 201; two, Harold Hausman, 320; three, Ed Robnett, 324; four, Mac Oliver, 228; five, Alden Cathey, 108; six, Tom Richards, 418; seven, Fred Clarke, 327; eight, Sid Kimball, 216; nine, Rob Trimble, 228; ten, Cecil Reavis, 121; eleven, Jack Richmond, 314; and twelve, Ernest Schott, 305.

Four Dances—

Tonight, the Young Men's Civic League of Brazos County presents Nick Stuart and his California band at a dance to be held at the Bryan Country Club. Nick's mellow saxophone and swing numbers have succeeded in making his band one of the top-flight orchestras in this section of the country. Advance tickets sell for $1.50 and tickets at the gate tonight will be $2.00.

The second organization dance of the year gets under way at 9 p. m. Friday when Lawrence Welk entertains for the annual Coast Artillerymen at their annual regimental prom. Featured with Welk and his orchestra will be glamorous Jayne Walton, who holds down the feminine side as vocalist for the orchestra. Jayne, who was schooled in Mexico, speaks Spanish fluently and adds vocal interpretations with a "Spanish flavor" to Welk's tangos and rhumbas. At one time she lived in San Antonio, Texas, and was presented in programs over San Antonio radio stations.

All Aggieldand will be given the chance to "put your little foot" and "schottische" Saturday night at the corps dance. Welk and his orchestra will be back for another night to play for the entire cadet corps.
