

Council Announces 1939-40 'T' Awards

Jeff Montgomery has been named agricultural magazine by the Agricultural Council. These two magazines have been one, the Scientific Review, until it was separated recently.

LETTERS GIVEN 117 ATHLETES DURING '39-'40

Honored Men Held Places In 12 Different Sports

The A. & M. College Athletic Council closed a successful sports year by announcing the award of varsity letters to athletes in track, baseball, swimming, pistol, rifle, golf, tennis, polo and fencing to bring the total letters awarded for the 1939-40 year to 117 for all of the 12 recognized sports teams. Freshman numerals for track and baseball also were awarded at the same meeting. Numerals awarded in football, basketball, baseball and track for the 1939-40 term totaled 73.

The 13 track men awarded major sports T's included Roy Bueck, Walter Cecil, Ed Dreiss, Robert Finley, J. R. Henderson, P. C. Henry, M. E. Hogan, Vester Laney, John McLean, Derace Moser, Earl Smith, Jude Smith, and James Thomason.

The 17 members of the baseball team awarded the major sports 'T' included Co-captain Dave Alsbrook, Walter Bass, Cecil Ballow, Lemuel Bumpers, James Conley, Jack Cooper, Jack Doran, Marland Jeffrey, Charles Kirkpatrick, Jack

Intramural Flag Winners Named at Managers' Feast

All intramural managers were feasted and feted last night at the annual intramural department banquet held in Sbis Hall at which time the final intramural results for the 1939-40 season were announced.

Battery E, Field Artillery was announced as the winner of the Class A flag with a total of 747 points. Second and third places in the Class A division were captured by Company F, Engineers and Battery C, Field Artillery with 702 and 685 points, respectively.

In the Class B division, Battery F, Field Artillery walked away with the pennant with 701.6 points. They were trailed by Battery C, Field Artillery with 681.6 points and by Company G, Infantry with 670 points to their credit.

W. L. Penberthy, head of the Intramural Department and toastmaster for the evening, presented awards to C. F. Dwyer as manager of the Class A champion and to Jack Nagel as manager of the Class B champion. Awards were also given to J. S. Critz as manager of Battery C, Field Artillery, whose teams did not receive a single forfeit throughout the season in the Class A division.

The five members of the rifle team, winners of the William Randolph Hearst Trophy for the Eighth Corps Area, awarded the minor sports 'T' included W. T. Guy Jr., Stanley Krogstad, William T. Lewis, C. A. Lewis, and Bert Burns.

The 11 members of the swimming and water polo team awarded minor sports T's included Ernest Conway, John Couch, Thomas Hall, Harold Hensley, George Japhet, Edward Johnson, Paul Kirk, Raymond Loomis, Nicholas Ponthieux, John Reeves, and Barton Robertson.

The five members of the golf team awarded minor sports T's included V. C. Denton, Jack Gourley, Henry Hauser, W. D. McMahon, and H. J. Richards.

The six members of the polo team awarded minor sports T's included R. R. Culbertson, G. A. Jones, S. A. McDonald, D. W. Barry, T. A. Williams, and Carl Maloney.

The five members of the fencing team awarded minor sports T's included Thomas Akarman, J. P. Baird, Leroy Everett, James Rominger, and William Swigert.

The 13 members of the freshman track team awarded their freshman numerals included Philip Alford, Garland Bridges, Carleton Brush, Felix Bueck, James Japhet, Jimmie Knight, Thomas Mann, Elton Mayer, Jack Petty, Alfred Ricks, Clarence Skalnik, Raymond Terrell, and Kendrick Watkins.

Although there were several Aggie athletes who earned two varsity letters or freshman numerals during the full sports season only Jammie Wilson, Belton freshman, won awards in three sports. He lettered as an end in football, a forward in basketball and outfielder in baseball.

Eighteen numerals were awarded to freshman baseball players. Those receiving the awards are Keith Aldrich, Clayton Atkins, Milton Beard, Bill Black, Bill Dreiss, Solon Ellis, Ira Glass, Bill Kamperman, Frank Mitchell, Sam Nesbit, Les Peden, John Rizer, Bill Sibley, Elvie Simmons, Albert Sims, Jake Webster, Jamie Wilson, and Willie Zarpalac.

Summer Battalion—

A feature of the first semester Summer Battalion will be columns from all of the various R.O.T.C. camps and cadets attending these camps are urged to subscribe as the paper will be of considerable interest to them. Jim Tom Anderson will be the Infantry correspondent; C. J. "Foots" Bland, Field Artillery; Buster Keeton, Signal Corps; Joe Slicker, Coast Artillery; David Yarbrough, Engineers; Graham Purcell, Cavalry; and Harold Hausman, Chemical Warfare Service.

All Aggies who plan on attending summer school and who are interested in doing any phase of newspaper work are urged to contact Fuermann at room 417, dormitory three, or at The Battalion Office as soon as possible.

The first issue of the Summer Battalion for 1940 will be off the Press Monday, June 10. The second issue will be out four days later, Friday, June 14; and the paper will be published every Friday thereafter for the remaining twelve weeks of the summer session.

Graduation Exercises

The line will form at 5:45 and the procession will move at 6:00. All men receiving advanced degrees, the President, deans and directors, members of the Board and Commencement marshalls are expected to be in academic regalia for this exercise. All men receiving the Baccalaureate Degree will wear Number 1 uniform less the cap or academic regalia.

In case of bad weather the Commencement Exercises will be held in Guion Hall with the procession moving from the Academic Building.

Friday night at 8:30 Dr. and Mrs. T. O. Walton will be at home informally to members of the graduating class and their guests, and members of the teaching staff and their families. The Aggie Band will play for the occasion and light refreshments will be served.

CONGRATULATIONS and GOOD LUCK GRADUATES!
