Thank You Aggies!

The Personnel of our two stores wishes to take this opportunity to thank our many Aggie Friends for their splendid patronage.

Due to our increased business—some items in our stocks have been depleted—however we have rushed fill-in orders to our manufacturers for additional merchandise, and we will be able to take care of all your needs in a few days.

SERVING AGGIES has been a tradition with us for the past forty-five years.

Bundles positively will not be accepted from dormitory students at the laundry.

APPRECIATION

The Kream and Kow Klub wishes to express its sincere thanks and gratitude to the cadet corps for their splendid patronage during registration.

A total of 7,695 bottles of chocolate milk was sold and out of this amount only 278 empty bottles were broken.

The proceeds of all chocolate milk sales, by the club, goes to defray the expenses of the Dairy Husbandry Judging Teams which will represent A. & M. College at the National Dairy contest at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, October 12.

'Y' Has Recreation Building In New Area

The College Y. M. C. A., after a summer expansion and an expenditure of nearly $1,500, has built its plant to include one new building for dormitory students in the new area, and has remodeled the recreation room of the old 'Y'. At present plans are being made by Y. M. C. A. officials to convert Guion Hall into a building which will be suitable for showing moving pictures.

The work done this summer includes remodeling the old Consolidated School and installing facilities for recreation and meetings.
