Guardsmen

“That our military set-up at A. & M. would make it improbable that we have many guardsmen.”

Interpretation of the Joint Resolution in respect to ordering into active military service the National Guard indicates that collegians who are also Guardsmen will not be exempt under the exemption noted above in Section five, article (f).

Section five of the Joint Resolution reads, “All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby suspended to the extent that they may be in conflict with any provision hereof.” This (of course, nullifies the exemption of collegians listed in Section five, article (f) of the Burke-Wadsworth Act. A. & M. Reaction

Since the passing of the Burke-Wadsworth Act there has been considerable question in the minds of Aggies as to what their fate would be. Student reaction has been strongly opposed to a peace time draft which would force students to leave their studies.

However, although the nation's collegians are exempted from military conscription until next July, they will be required to register along with other groups. Registration dates will be announced in the near future, War Department officials have indicated.

The Battalion is asking all members of the Texas National Guard who are enrolled at A. & M. to notify the newspaper in order that a reasonably accurate accounting may be made in advance as to how many cadets the College will lose in November.

ART AND PHOTOGRAPHY STAFF MEETING

There will be a called meeting of the Art and Photography departments of The Battalion to discuss plans for the next magazine which comes out October 2. Old members are to attend this meeting if at all possible, and new members will be welcomed. The meeting will be held in room 122 Administration building immediately after yell practice.

“I expect and will exact implicit obedience from you. I hope that I shall have your utmost loyalty, confidence, and support in the interests of the Corps and each of its members. I will try to earn your respect.

“Selection for your appointment was made by my predecessor, Colonel Moore, in whose judgment I have the utmost confidence. You are selected as leaders of a superb body of men. Do not fail.”

of programs similar to the Texas Farm and Home Program now heard daily over the Texas Quality Network. These broadcast, featuring services rendered to the people of Texas by A. & M. College, would be distributed to radio stations throughout the state.

In addition, whenever the College takes part in any important broadcast or when prominent speakers visit the campus, the recorder will afford a means of adding a vivid type of historical document to the College archives.

Another new piece of equipment at WTAW is a boom stand to be used in the presentation of studio programs. “This may seem a simple matter,” Rosser said, “but you'd be surprised now much difference it makes to a program if you can put your mike anywhere you want it.”

The boom stand is expected to be particularly useful in solving production problems attendant upon the broadcast of A. & M.'s portion of the Texas School of the Air. This program will originate at the College one day a week and will also be carried over TQN.

The engineering staff is at present engaged in a sweeping overhaul job on all the equipment of the station, some of which has been in use for many years.

them by twisting up his face, but he insists on running too far in every direction, and like a bewildered ham, acts and runs himself beyond the goal of high class acting. You will always know what to expect as Mickey twists and squirms beyond the bounds of prudence and good taste.

The story follows the famous formula of all the other Hardy classics. Both Mickey and the Judge get in some kind of mess and have to take a trip somewhere to straighten things out. Celia Parker, the daughter of the family is also having boyfriend trouble, but coincidence of course sends the whole group to the same place. After ups and downs and a little fun, things straighten out and the family returns to the little town of Carvel and Ann Rutherford and the gang.

It's the same old stuff, dressed up with different gag lines and twisted a little tighter, and although Rooney is the main show, he overdoes it sickeningly. Faithful little Judy Garland gives Rooney her adoring hero worship in spite of mawkish tactics.

descendingly to run in Second stringers so the William and Mary score would not be too great.

Most surprising result in the Texas league was San Marcos' 15-13 upset of Howard Payne. The System had expected this game to be close, but had given a nod for a 7-6 victory, to Howard Payne.
