

First College Station Reserve Army Officers Called For Active Duty

A call to active duty was received by two College Station residents this week when Reserve Captain W. H. Badgett, 360th Infantry, and First Lieutenant O. E. Teague, also of the 360th Infantry, were ordered to report to their respective headquarters.

Captain Badgett was notified on October 1st that he would be called to active duty. He received his orders yesterday to report Sunday to the Chief of Staff of the 1st Military Area, Fort Sam Houston, Texas for extended active duty. Badgett will be at Fort Sam Houston for temporary duty then he will report for permanent duty as instructor to the Organized Reserve Headquarters at Houston, Texas. Captain Badgett's family will join him at Houston.

Lieutenant Teague was ordered to report to Palacios for Military Police duty at Camp Hulen, Texas. He left College Station yesterday to report first at Fort Sam Houston then on to Camp Hulen.

Both Badgett and Teague are ex-Aggies. Badgett was an Architectural Engineer of the class of '29, Cadet Captain of Co. A Infantry, and a distinguished military student. Teague took a B. S. in Agriculture in the class of '32, and was Captain of G Infantry, also a Ross Volunteer, and a member of the Saddle and Sirlin Club.

The two newly called officers have been here at College Station since their graduation. Badgett is a Research Associate Engineer with the Experiment Station. Prior to graduation Teague was employed by the Post Office and continued as a clerk in the Postal Service after graduating. Both men have been very active in the Reserve Officer's Association. Badgett being a former President of the Brazos County Chapter of the Reserve Officer's Association. In '38-'39 he was Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas Department R. O. A. and last year Vice-President of the Texas Department of the R. O. A. 2400 Thrilled By Excellent Performance of US Marine Band

By George Fuermann
"Excellent" is the word for the United States Marine Band.

Twenty-four hundred Texas Aggies, professors, and civilians heard this outstanding musical organization's program Thursday night. And the 50 members of the Marine Band heard the capacity audience give repeated ovations that "were almost without parallel in the Band's history."

Blessed with a brass section equal to any in the world; composed of 50 talented and expert musicians; playing a well balanced program with a definite audience-appeal; and using every sound effect in the books, the Marine Band won the enthusiastic and whole-hearted approval of the largest audience ever to witness a Texas A. & M. Town Hall presentation.

Holding an audience's undivided attention for two and a half hours is no easy thing to do. The United States Marine Band did it, and left the stage with a still music-hungry audience clamoring for more.

The regularly scheduled program consisted of eight numbers—the encores program was half again as long as the gracious conductor, Captain William F. Santelmann, led the Band in twelve extras.

Titled "A Program of American Music," the concert opened with Burnet Tuthill's "Symphonic Overture," Opus 19. Probably the least well-received number on the program, it was followed by a stirring medley of military marches beginning with "The Marine Hymn." A tremendous ovation was followed by the second number, the tone poem "Skyward" by Nathaniel Shilkret. Two encores followed.

The next number was a trombone solo played by Robert Isele. Isele's playing of Arthur Pryor's "Blue Bells of Scotland" was a high point in an evening full of high points, and the audience felt the same way about it. Isele played two encores beginning with the currently pop-

The voting will be for or against controlling "future development on land divisions within the City of College Station, Texas, or within a radius of five miles thereof, exclusive of the City of Bryan, with regard to layout of streets, alleys, and zoning restrictions and require developers or land dividers to obtain the approval of the city government in these respects before placing any subdivision or units thereof for sale."

High School PTA Will Sponsor Supper

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Consolidated School of A. & M. will sponsor their yearly Community Supper at the High School unit of the school Thursday evening, October 10, at 6:00 p. m.

The Association has promised that the tables will be groaning under the weight of the food from barbecued chicken, and home made cakes to hot dogs and soda pop.

This annual supper is put on by the mothers and teachers in order to raise money for school equipment and needs through this year, and also give a chance to the community to become better acquainted with the teaching staff. There are new teachers on the staff and the people will have the opportunity of getting acquainted with the new instructors.

Film Club Now Open To Students

Zisman Will Direct Club as President

What was last year the Faculty Film Club has been changed by vote of the members to be called the A.&M. Film Club and will open its membership to students. The club offers foreign, specialty, and unusual pictures unavailable on the commercial theatre calendar.

Plans are being made to get the organization of the club under way and it will be directed by S. B. Zisman of the Architecture department as president of the club and chairman of the executive committee. He will be assisted by Dr. S. O. Brown, Biology Department, J. P. Abbott, English Department, and Dr. C. B. Campbell, Head of the department of Modern Languages, and Clifford M. Simmang, Mechanical Engineering department.

Though the club was restricted to faculty members last year, it met with such hearty approval and has been so eagerly sought by a number of undergraduates that there was a motion at the last meeting of the club that this restriction be removed in order to allow those students who wished to join the club to do so.

The pictures shown at the film club will not be of the ordinary movie type, but will each have some particular significance, either age, extraordinary photography, unusual plot or the fact that it was made in a foreign country.

Mr. Zisman stressed the fact that this year will probably be the last in which the club will be able to obtain some of the excellent foreign films now in circulation. After this, propaganda films in which the club is not interested, will probably be the only ones received in this country. If the club does not obtain some of the foreign films which are still being run such as "Harvest", a prize winning French film, and "The Human Beast" from a story by Zola, the great French novelist, these films will go out of date and be difficult to obtain.

Other films which the club is considering are: "The Puritan" dramatization of Lian-O'Flaherty novel; "The Bakers Wife," which has played for the fifty-second consecutive week on Broadway; "The Wave," a picture of Mexican fisherfolk.

The executive committee stresses—

G. D. Anderson To Head Honor Society

G. D. Anderson will serve as president of the Scholarship Honor Society for the coming year due to the resignation of William J. "Jeff" Montgomery, it was announced Friday. Montgomery was elected to this post before the close of school last year when he was also made president of the Petroleum Engineering Club, editor of the "Engineer," a student publication, and vice-president of the senior class. According to a new point system being put into effect this year by the Student Activities Committee, a student is limited in the number of activities in which he can participate. Having too many of these points, he was forced to resign one of his positions.

Anderson is in Battery C, Field Artillery, and hails from Farwell, Texas, while Montgomery is in Company H, Infantry, and comes from Mason, Texas.

Debate Club Changed To Round Table Club Holds Initial Meeting

The A. & M. Round Table Club, which was last year known as the Debate Club, inaugurated the current year at its initial meeting this past week. The society will be an organization created for the purpose of intelligently discussing problems of the day.

This type of club became popular throughout the Midwest in Universities and colleges in recent years. Texas A. & M. has the distinction of being the first Southwest Conference member to adopt this type of panel discussion club.

At the initial meeting of the local society this past week, Mayo Thompson, senior of Coast Artillery, was elected to the presidency, and G. C. Hardin, senior of the Cavalry, was made secretary. Dr. G. E. Summey C. O. Spriggs, and J. Q. Hays were appointed as faculty advisors.

New Area Dorms Get Bronze Nameplates

The freshman's task of learning and remembering the names of the various buildings was made no easier Thursday, when new bronze name-plates were attached to the dorms in the new area. Quite likely the numbers will stick for awhile but eventually it will be the Freshman's task to pick out Byrd E. White Hall from G. Rollie White Hall, these halls being nine and ten respectively. To learn and remember any particular hall and its location among the $2,000,000 worth will probably cause no few amount of headaches.

The halls, named officially last Thanksgiving, were the largest number of college buildings ever to be dedicated at a single ceremony in this country.

The Edwin J. Kiest Hall has had a bronze plaque displaying a likeness of the person it was named after attached to the front of it since the dorms were completed because the north end of it is used as a ladies lounge for visitors. The new name plates are smaller and have a green finish with only the name of the hall on them. The respective numbers and names are as follows:

No. 1, T. W. Spence, former Dean of Engineering; No. 2, Edwin J. Kiest, member of the Board of Directors; No. 3, Charles P. Fountain, former Head of the English department; No. 4, Robert W. Briggs, member of the Board of Directors; No. 5, C. S. Gainer, former state senator of Bryan; No. 6, Walter G. Lacy, member of the Board of Directors; No. 7, L. L. McInnis, former chairman of the faculty; No. 8, Henry C. Schuhmacher, former member of the Board of Directors who died recently in Houston; No. 9, Byrd E. White, former member of the Board of Directors; No. 10, G. Rollie White, member of the Board of Directors; No. 11, H. H. Harrington, former president; and No. 12, Joe Utay, member of the Board of Directors.

City Council Passes Ordinance Concerning Moving of Buildings

An ordinance concerning the moving of houses, garages, and buildings across streets in the city of College Station was passed by the City Council several days ago and will go into effect Wednesday, October 9. Following is the new ruling.

No houses, garages, or other buildings shall be moved across the streets or along the streets of the City of College Station, Texas, unless there shall be a permit issued by said city for the moving.

Said permit will designate the streets to be used and the time which the moving will be done. Before any permit will be issued, a deposit of $100 shall be made with the City Secretary. Such fee will be held by the city until the structure is completely moved, and then such damage to the city streets, bridges, or city utility lines will be repaired by the city and the costs charged to the deposit. The balance of the deposit remaining after repairs will then be refunded to the owner.

Anyone violating the provisions of this ordinance when found guilty, shall be fined not more than $100, and each day of violation shall be deemed a separate offense.

220 A & M Students Given Help By Loan Funds of Former Students

Two hundred and twenty A. & M. students were extended a helping hand on their financial problems by A. & M. men through the Association of Former Students at the opening of school this year, E. E. McQuillen, secretary of the Association, has announced. A total of over $25,000 was involved in the loans. Included in the group of boys were the winners of the twenty-five Opportunity Awards, established for the first time this fall and expected to prove an important addition to the student loan fund program in the future.

Loans this fall were made under new loan fund regulations formulated and approved last spring by the Student Loan Trustees of the Association. The new regulations are more exacting in their scholastic requirements, the loan fund trustees believing that loans were made to too many boys whose poor scholastic records caused them to withdraw from school before graduation.

Student Loan Fund Trustees this year are A. G. (Bert) Pfaff, '25,

15 Minute Concert To Be Played by Band

By W. C. Carter, Jr.

By noon today approximately fifteen hundred Aggies will be organizing their forces and consolidating their forces and positions in preparation for the so-called "Second Battle of the Alamo".

"Corps Trip" fever combined with that extra dose of "Aggie Spirit" obtained Thursday night when the corps sent the team off, has been the cause of the largest number of passes to go through the Commandant's office in the history of A. & M.

Ticket sales through Wednesday were around one-thousand, but many students decided to go after the tickets went off sale. Friday evening saw hundreds of Aggies leaving by all of the modes of transportation familiar to the Cadets.

The San Antonio Chamber of Commerce has made preparations for the large crowd expected to attend the first college game in the new Alamo Memorial Stadium. A. & M.'s last game in San Antonio, in 1934, resulted in a 26-13 win for Michigan State. Today the Farmers are out to remove all doubt as to how A. & M. games should come out when played in San Antonio.

To the seniors that camped there this summer, the trip will give them the opportunity to resume any unfinished business they might have and to also show the Junior class around.

Only one hundred and fifty members of the band will make the trip. As usual, the freshmen members of the band will not make the initial away-from-college trip. Upon its arrival at the Missouri Pacific Station at 9:30 the band will march east on Houston

Last year's team was high in the judging of market poultry with the three Texas team members Earl Roesnes, Fred Swallow, and O. L. Davis each tied for first with 185 out of a possible 200 points.
