

Aggietone News World Premiere And Festivities Tonight

Draft Registration Date Is Wednesday

Registration Hours Will Be From 7 a. m. Till 9 p. m.

Students Will Register For Draft In Registrar's Office

Students who are above 21 years of age and are not reserve officers or do not have a contract to take advanced R. O. T. C. training must report to the Registrar's Office today between 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. to register in accordance with recent selective service legislation, as announced by E. J. Howell, Registrar.

This will be the only day on which students may register unless they are confined to an asylum or unless they are too ill to register at the hospital. The local group in charge will provide a method whereby all students in the hospital will be able to register if the seriousness of their illness does not prevent it.

It is estimated that there will be approximately 1500 students to register here. A staff of fifty will assist Howell throughout the day in filling out the forms. Of this group forty will be students who have volunteered their services.

- It will not be necessary for the registrants to have any certification of information which they will be asked. The blank forms will include space for:
1. Full name
  2. Complete home address
  3. Name of person(s) who will always know the registrants whereabouts
  4. Place of birth
  5. Date of birth
  6. Country in which registrant is citizen
  7. Height, weight and race (white, Oriental, Indian, or Filipino)
  8. Color of eyes, hair and complexion.

If there is any doubt in the student's mind as to whether he should register or not it is advised that he should as there is a fine of $10,000 or an imprisonment of not more than five years or both which may be assessed persons who fail to register.

900 Faculty And Precinct Residents To Register Wed.

All faculty members of A. & M. College and other residents of this precinct who are eligible for selective service registration and are not students of the college will be required to register at the A. & M. Consolidated High School building Wednesday from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

J. L. Stasney of College Station will be in charge of registration of the high school, and the high school faculty. High school will be dismissed on Wednesday in order that the faculty will be able to assist in the registration process.

According to an estimate from the county clerk's office in Bryan there will be approximately 900 non-student males who will register Wednesday.

College students will be required to register in the Registrar's Office under the supervision of E. J. Howell and other members of that branch.

If it is impossible to register through illness, quarantine, or some type of confinement such as being in a hospital the local Selective Service Board and the county clerk will make arrangements for later registering. A fine not to exceed $10,000 or imprisonment of not more than 5 years or both may be assessed persons who fail to register on the set date unless they provide a legitimate excuse. The same penalty will be applied to any persons who assists another in evading registration.

SENIOR VOLUNTEERS

Those seniors who are going to assist in the selective service registration Wednesday please meet in the registrar's office at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. It is necessary that all men be present.

Victorious Aggies Will Be Welcomed Home By Entire Cadet Corps In Formation

Team Will Arrive At 9:53 This Morning

By Tom Gillis

Six Army Trucks Carry Team's Luggage

The biggest welcome ever staged for a victorious football team will take place this morning as the A. & M. cadet corps brings out their full military organization to welcome the boys back home. The corps couldn't go to California en masse, and after winning Saturday's game over U.C.L.A. by a score of 7-0, the victory march had to be postponed until this morning, but it will be nonetheless a march of victory or a true welcome to the conquering heroes. Accompanied by the cheers of the corp and the strains of the Aggie War Hymn, the football team that relentlessly pounded the U.C.L.A. line will ride in army trucks past the corps in full military formation.

Classes will be dismissed at 9:40 for this purpose by permission of the Commandant's office, and military units will form in their usual place in serge slacks. Organizations in the old area will then march down and form themselves in platoon front along the sides of the boulevard leading from the bugle stand to the railroad station. Units from the new area will likewise line both sides of the street as it turns to the right at the bugle stand, passing in front of Bizzell Hall and turning left again in front of Guion as far as is necessary so that all organizations may form in platoon front on the curb. The band will be marched to the station.

The train bearing the mighty Aggie football team is scheduled to arrive at 9:53 a. m. and then the big parade will begin. Then the

Former Aggie Will Bring His Orchestra To Campus For Dance

Aggies who are looking for somewhere to go after the corps dance Saturday night will find an ideal solution at the country club. Ed Gerlach, a former student, is bringing his band back to play at the club from 10:30 until 2:30

Under Gerlach's direction, the band has been playing together all summer and has developed its own style and a large musical library. Five saxes, five brass instruments and four rhythm make up the organization whose music leans toward the swing side. The group played this summer at the new Medicine Park Hotel at Medicine Park, Oklahoma.

The dance is sponsored by a charity organization in Bryan and will furnish an excellent place to dance until the small hours of the morning. Henry Fulgham of Bryan is playing the drums in the band.

Horticultural Show To Be Held On November 25-26

Plans are in progress for the annual Horticultural Show to be held on November 25 and 26. The show this year will feature citrus and winter vegetables from the Rio Grande Valley area and pecan exhibits from the entire pecan producing areas of the state.

The location for the displays has not been definitely decided upon. The Agricultural building has been used in the past, but it is hoped that a more suitable place can be arranged for this year.

The show is sponsored by the student members of the Horticultural Society, and the exhibits are furnished by commercial houses, experiment stations and individual growers. The object of the program is to give students an opportunity to become acquainted with as many horticultural products as possible, especially those in Texas.

Aside from the commercial displays will be a display of rare and novel specimens from the experiment sub-stations at Weslaco and Winterhaven.

There will be a variety of collections of pecans put on by the State Department of Agriculture at Austin, and also a propagation exhibit sponsored by the same department.

The horticultural department plans to operate machines to crack and shell pecans to sell for the benefit of the student society.

Arrangements are being made to have a fruit and vegetable products display consisting of preserved figs and other fruits from the Alvin area.

As a novelty attraction there will be a variety collection of apples from schools in all the apple growing regions and a quantity of apple cider which will be on sale.

Six New Tactical Officers Have Been Employed By The College

Six officers have been added to the military department here to assist in instructing military science and tactics. They have not been called to active service by the government at present, but have been employed by the college.

The new officers include the following: Second Lieutenant J. B. Allen, Infantry; Captain W. J. Faulk, Field Artillery; Second Lieutenant L. F. Lefkowsky, Coast Artillery; Second Lieutenant William G. North, Cavalry; Second Lieutenant P. C. Schoenfeld, Engineers; and Second Lieutenant H. K. Jackson, Chemical Warfare Service.

300 Bleacher Seats Left For Thanksgiving Game

All tickets to the A. & M.-Texas game in Austin November 28, except for 300 end-zone bleacher seats and student tickets, have been sold, according to information received from the athletic office yesterday.

The bleacher-seat tickets are on sale at the University of Texas in Austin at $2 each.

All A. & M. students will enter the game through Gate 1 at the north entrance to the field. Students dates will not be allowed to enter on a ticket purchased with an activities coupon book, it was announced.

Sheep And Goat Raisers To Hold Meeting October 17-19

The quarterly meeting of the directors of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association will be held here on the campus during the three days including October 17-19, according to announcement by Stanley Davis, wool and mohair specialist connected with the Agricultural Experiment Station. The directors will spend the time in business meetings and in visiting points of interest on the campus.

E. S. Mayer, prominent sheep, goat and cattle man in the Sonora country, is president of the association and A. K. Mackey, formerly of the animal husbandry department, is the secretary. Both men will be present and will speak to the group.

Approximately two hundred directors, their wives and friends are expected for the meeting. They will arrive Thursday and will register that afternoon in the animal husbandry library. The meeting will officially open at a banquet at 7:00 that night in Sbis Hall. Members of the college staff and agriculture professors in related fields will also be present.

Friday morning the directors will hold a business session in the Animal Industries Building. E. J. Kyle, Dean of Agriculture, and R. P. Marsteller, Dean of Veterinary Medicine, will talk briefly to the assembled directors, as will D. W. Williams, professor of animal husbandry, and A. B. Conner, Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station. After adjournment at 11:45 the directors will eat lunch in groups of threes and fours with the corps of cadets in both mess halls. They will be accompanied by cadets of the animal husbandry department.

The afternoon will be spent in inspecting the campus, the wool scouring plant, wool laboratory, museum, meats laboratories, experimental grass plots, the feeding and breeding station, and other points of interest. Friday night the group will attend the Aggie rodeo in a body.

Executive conferences and committee meetings will occupy Saturday morning, but in the afternoon the group will see the A. & M.-T. C. U. football game. Already 175 tickets to this game have been reserved for the Association and more are expected.

Dean Kyle has charge of the program for the meeting and he is being assisted by D. W. Williams, J. M. Jones, S. P. Davis, Norman Schuessler, Roy Snyder and others. The Ladies Auxilliary Association will hold their meetings on the same days. Part of their time will be spent visiting Old Washington and Independence.

The Sheep and Wool Raisers Association has a membership of 10,000 within the state and it sponsors its own publication, the Southwestern Sheep and Goat Raiser. This publication is edited at the Association headquarters in San Angelo by Hiram Phillips.

A special Aggie edition was put out recently which contained articles on the new wool scouring plant, the experiment station, and

Box Office Will Open At 6:30 This Evening

Staley And Beck To Hold Yell Practice On Outside; Bland And Keeton On Inside

The long awaited world premiere of Aggietone News becomes a fact tonight at the Campus Theater amid all the fabled color and spectacle of a Hollywood premiere.

Box office will open at 6:30 p. m. and there will be no advance in prices and, in order to prepare for the premiere, the Campus Theatre will remain closed all this afternoon.

United Science Clubs Newest Of Campus Societies

The United Science Clubs of A. & M. is the name of the newest organization on the campus. It was founded by Dr. C. C. Dak, head of the Biology Department. The club is intended not only for the present members of the Biology Club, Pre-Med Club, and Entomology Club, but also for the Agronomy Society, Kream and Kow, Economics, Junior F. F. A., Fish and Game, Art, Poultry Science, Rural Sociology, and Junior Chapter of A. V. M. A. clubs.

Two regular meetings of the new organization are to be held during the year, one each semester. The meeting of the fall semester is to be held during the week of November 1. The meeting of the spring semester will be held during the last week in April prior to the regional meeting of the Texas Academy of Science.

This first meeting in the fall is expected to accomplish three things: determine the number of delegates to be sent to the annual meeting of the Texas Academy of Science, to transact such business as seems necessary and to hear speaker on some of the broader aspects of science.

At the spring meeting, those members who have submitted outstanding papers during the year will be selected and sent as delegates at large to the annual meeting with paid membership and given a preferred place on the program at the next regular meeting of the collegiate division of the Texas Academy of Science.

The membership of the United Science Clubs will consist of the total active membership of the constituent club named.

Popularly known as "The Aggie's Own Story on Celluloid", the newsreel will be produced every two weeks. Similar in structure to the major newsreels which are international in content, Aggietone News concerns Aggie activities on and off the campus.

Produced and directed by Battalion Associate Editor George Fuermann, the staff includes associate producers Ira F. Lewis, Mineral Wells; George Mueller, Alton, Illinois; and Graham Purcell, Archer City. Assistant director of the Aggietone News is Head Yell Leader E. R. (Buster) Keeton, Houston.

Directing photography is W. Roland Laney, Denton, who is assisted by M. K. Soderquist, Hot Springs, Arkansas and F. W. Allen, Crockett. Pete H. Tumlinson, Bryan, Battalion art editor, is art director of the Aggietone News. Tumlinson is assisted by Sid C. Lord, San Antonio and Lavere Brooks, Somerville.

Sports director is H. O. (Hub) Johnson, Houston, who is also sports editor of The Battalion. Assistant sports directors of Aggietone News are R. V. (Bob) Meyers, Harlingen, and Jack C. Holliman, Houston. Howard Berry, official A. & M. photographer, is technical advisor to the Aggietone News staff.

Ben S. Ferguson, Dallas and College Station theater man who is financing Aggietone News, has announced that following the commercial showing of each newsreel it will be given to the college. Although no official statement has come from officials as yet, statements from two of the college's

Economics Club To Present Noted Houston Attorney

The first meeting of the Economics Club for this session will bring Arthur J. Mandell, Houston attorney, to speak to the club on "The Qualification of Labor Leaders." He will speak in the physics lecture room at 7:30 Thursday evening. Mandell will be introduced by Paul Lowry, president of the Economics Club.

Students who attended the last club meeting last year will recall Mandell's talk at that time on "Government by Injunction" in which he explained how injunctions affected the labor situation.

Mandell was born in Barlad, Rumania, in 1903. He received most of his education in that country except for some time spent in America at Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore and Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn. He was granted his LL.D. degree for his work at Cumberland.

He began his law practice in Houston in 1930 and the majority of his practice has been in the field of labor laws and the employer-employee relationship. He has had extensive experience in this field before all types of courts and boards. He is the local representative of branches of various labor unions within both the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization.

The directors of the Economics Club for this year are Paul Lowry, president; Gib Michalk, vice-president; Jordan Wolfe, secretary-treasurer; Tom Gillis, social and publicity secretary; Mayo Thompson, Paul Haines, David Angell and James Rominger, R. L. Elkins, assistant professor of Economics is the faculty member and sponsor of the club.

Bailey Employed By Animal Husbandry Dept.

A new instructor, W. W. Bailey, '36, has recently been employed to help assist professor C. E. Murphy with the meats work. Mr. Bailey comes to the college from the State Prison System where he has had charge of the prison abattoir and canning plant.

Texas Plant Propagators Will Attend Short Course

Plant propagators from all parts of Texas will be in College Station for the Nurserymen's Short Course on October 31 and November 1. The show is headed by Dr. Guy W. Adriance, head of the department of horticulture, who will be assisted by other members of the various branches who work in connection with plant propagation work.

Thursday morning will be devoted to registration of the nurserymen in the Animal Industries building lobby at 9 o'clock, and a welcoming address by Dean E. J. Kyle at 10 o'clock. Following this will be a series of discussions on soil and fertilizer problems.

The afternoon will be taken up by discussions of soil reaction and its effect on plants, and soil diseases and their control.

Methods of pest control, the pests of ornamentals, and plant propagation will be the subjects to be taken up on Friday.

At 7 p. m. Friday there will be a banquet in Sbis Hall with Col. Ike Ashburn as toastmaster and Dr. L. M. Hutchins as guest speaker.

On Saturday morning there will be a program on the use of ornamental materials and their sale, a tour of the campus and a discussion of the short course for next year.

Battalion Magazine Distributed Tomorrow

At last the Battalion covers are here and the magazine is on its way out. There had to be three runs of the magazine after the covers got here so there was an added delay. A. J. Robinson, Battalion Magazine editor, said, "The magazine will be out the first week of every month from now on." Tomorrow night after supper the magazines will be issued from the basement of the administration building.

Hallowe'en is the theme of this month's issue. Plenty of stories, beautiful girls and cartoons will carry out the theme.

Commandant Assigns Officers To Assist In Registration Of Students

The following officers have been assigned by the Commandant to assist students who have difficulty with their registration blanks: Lieutenant Colonel F. V. M. Dyer, Infantry; Captain Walter J. Faulk, Field Artillery Reserve; Lieutenant H. K. Jackson, C. W. S. Reserve; Lieutenant Preston Utterback, Cavalry Reserve; and Lieutenant Elbert Sale, Field Artillery Reserve.

Students who have trouble with their registration blanks are urged to see the officer of their respective organization at Ross Hall.
