OFFICE OF THE COMMANDANT
 October 25, 1940
 CIRCULAR: NO. 14:

The Commandant is in receipt of a letter quoting the remarks of a prominent business man who attended the U.C.L.A. game, and who stayed at the hotel which was headquarters for the A. & M. men: "The elevator operators, bell boys, and other employees of the hotel, including the assistant manager, said that the behavior of our squad, and likewise, the followers of the team was the best of any football group that had ever been in that hotel."
 This is a sincere and unsolicited compliment and is a tribute to the high sense of honor and splendid behavior of the members of the Corps.
