Pugh and Bride Arrested Friday As 'Car-Theft Suspects'

"Just Married" and "Just Arrested"—this is the short story of the activities of Marion Pugh and his bride, the former Helen Braselton, last Friday night.

No sooner had the preacher tied the knot and the happy couple had left the church when they were arrested and carried to headquarters to be accused as "car-theft suspects."

After a bit of fun, much to the embarrassment of the two, they were released without bail to honeymoon "somewhere in Texas."

They will return here this semester to make their home in College Park.

Fuermann and Russell Are Aid Fund Executives

Elected Tuesday At the Organization Committee Meeting

George Fuermann, Battalion associate editor, and Dan A. Russell, head of the rural sociology department, were elected chairman and executive secretary respectively of the A. & M. Student Aid Fund at the fund's organization meeting held in the Administration building Tuesday afternoon.

Following the election of officers, plans were made for the administration of the fund.

"It is the committee's aim," committee chairman J. H. Focke stated, "to expand the fund in such a manner that any case of merited need will be immediately cared for as soon as it comes to the committee's attention."

"For example," Focke added, "if a cadet is failing his work or is otherwise hindered from making the progress he is normally capable of because he cannot afford to buy a pair of glasses, the Student Aid Fund will buy these glasses for him."

Committeemen emphasized, however, that the Student Aid Fund's work was in no way to be considered charity. Cadets benefitting from the fund will sign a non-interest-bearing, no-maturity-date note for the amount received.

"Nor does that mean," Russell pointed out, "that a student will be continually reminded of the obligation after he leaves college. He will be asked only once—and then at a certain time which he himself has set in advance as a possible time for him to pay the obligation. If he does not pay it, there will be nothing said. It is strictly an honor obligation," Russell concluded.

Any student who is in need of money for any physical care or any parallel case of merited need may apply to the Student Aid Fund note for the amount received.

Although neither Fuermann nor Russell was prepared to give an exact figure, it was estimated that almost $1200 was available to begin the fund's work.

Russell will serve as permanent executive secretary and will handle the fund's finances and permanent records.

Science has told you Camels are slower-burning. This slower way of burning means more mildness, more coolness, more flavor in the smoke.

Now, these new independent tests reported above—tests of the brands most of you probably smoke right now—drive home another advantage for you in slower-burning Camels—extra freedom from nicotine in the smoke.

Try slower-burning Camels. Smoke out the facts for yourself. Dealers everywhere feature Camels at attractive carton prices. For convenience—for economy—buy Camels by the carton.

Breathtaking spins, spirals, jumps—there's a thrill in every click of her flashing blades. And afterwards—"A Camel tastes so good—they have so much more flavor," says Miss Doman. But more flavor is only one of the "extras" you get in slower-burning Camels.

LIKE ANYONE WHO SMOKES A GOOD DEAL, THE EXTRA MILDNESS IN SLOWER-BURNING CAMELS IS IMPORTANT TO ME. AND THE FLAVOR IS SO GRAND!

IF YOU SKATE AT ALL, then you know that cutting a pretty figure is not as simple as pretty Evelyn Doman makes it appear. Behind her seemingly effortless grace are hours of hard practice.

She takes her skating seriously . . . her smoking, too. "I smoke a good deal," she explains. "The slower-burning cigarette—Camel—gives me the extra mildness I want."

Slower-burning . . . costlier tobaccos. Yes, slower-burning Camels give you a fuller measure of flavor without the harsh effects of excess heat . . . extra mildness, extra coolness, extra flavor—and less nicotine in the smoke.

BY BURNING 25% SLOWER than the average of the 4 other largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—Camels also give you a smoking plus equal, on the average, to 5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!
