Up and Down Owls Face Ags Tonight

The Rice Owls who set the Aggies back in their first conference game this year in a three way tie—Rice 34, Aggies 34, Carswell 34—take to the hardwood floor in DeWare Field House this evening to keep the cadets down next to the cellar.

Earlier this week Rice won by a heavy score from the Mustangs and then by a close margin over the Horned Frogs. The Aggies won from the Frogs by a close count and lost to the Mustangs by five points.

Team practice since Tuesday night shows the Aggies in better shape for the game.

We're taking the Aggies in an inspired fight.

1941 Horned Frog Squall Getting a Triple Threat Spring Training Session

Meyer Is Trying to Attain 3 Fundamental Objectives

A triple-threat spring training session! That is Coach Dutch Meyer's description of the 30-day grid workouts which began Friday, Feb. 21, for the 1941 Horned Frog squad.

"We're out to attain three objectives," Coach Meyer says. "To improve our passing attack, strengthen our defense, and plug the hole at center."

Coach Meyer's face is particularly red because of the poor passing record of the 1940 Frogs.

"We were about the poorest passers in the league!" he moans.

And when you've had about the best passing in the nation, with such boys as Sammy Baugh and David O'Brien, that kind of a record is hard to take.

Burden of the pass tossing will fall upon Kyle Gillespie, senior from Paris, whose knee troubles appear to be over, and Beecher Montgomery, junior from Ozona, who came along fast at the close of the '40 schedule. Meyer admits he is high on Montgomery.

"Most of our passing trouble, though, has been on the receiving end," Coach Meyer points out. "We dropped nearly 40 passes last fall that should have been completed. We're going to concentrate on holding them!"

Strengthening the defense probably involves no new tactics for the Frogs. "It just means a lot of hard work on fundamentals and the hope that some important sophomore replacements make good," Meyer comments.

"At center we have a real problem! We don't have a single experienced boy for the position. Billy Blackstone, junior from Hearne, will, I believe, make us a top hand if his leg (broken last fall) proves strong enough. James Woodfin, Crane, and A. C. Odell, Hico, are two sophos who show real possibilities. They both weigh around 195 pounds and will be giving us a real punch."

Maroon and White Team Members Get Medals, Pictures

As a fitting conclusion to the Charity game that was played the first semester, Jake Wilk, general manager, presented Mrs. C. B. Campbell, representing the Maroon and White squads with medals and team pictures for their participation in the fracas.

Dr. T. O. Walton made the presentation of the medals and in his remarks stated that some of the money was already in use, and that he thought the idea of the Student Aid Fund should become a tradition as have other worthy projects.

Other members of the committee that arranged the game were Tom Richey, business manager, and Hub Johnson, publicity.

Members of the teams who were not present last night may receive their awards from Jake Wilk.

SMU Takes Tuesday Game By Score 45-40

Game Is One of Season's Roughest; 33 Fouls Called During Progress of Game

Southern Methodist set the Aggies back 45 to 40. Tuesday night in the roughest game of the season and kept McQuillan's men from getting over the half way mark.

A strong defense was thrown up by the cadets in the early part of the game but the Mustangs gradually broke through to take a 20 to 17 lead at the half.

The second half was entirely in the hands of the Dallas team the Aggies could never overtake the small overhead count.

Twice they came within one point of tying the Pones, but with Bill Dawson and Sammy Dwyer fouling out, the Methodists successfully held their lead until the gun.

Bryan Lloyd who fouled out midway in the second half held the high point lead for the night with 14 points. J. T. Lang, scrapping Aggie forward from Kurtin, led the cadet scoring race with 10 points, being closely followed by Bill Henderson with nine.

Thirty-eight fouls were called in all, 21 against the Mustangs.

Aggie Swimmers Meet San Antonio 'Y' Aquamen Tonight

Record breakers Harold Hensley and Bob Taylor will pace the Aggie spudmen in San Antonio tonight when they go against the Alamo City Y.M.C.A. swimmers.

In the last two meets these two have broken six pool and three Southwest Conference times and were members of the record-breaking relay team.

Bubba Reeves brought diving to the front for A. & M. in the last meet with the Dallas Athletic Club by coming out top man in the event and will be on hand to add a few points to the Maroon and White score in San Antonio.

Intramurals Wrestling Takes Spotlight in Class B Intramurals as 80 Men Enter Meet

By Mike Haikin

Wrestling took the spotlight in Class B intramurals as some 80 wrestlers turned out and gave some thrilling matches to the 100 or so fans present at the DeWare Field House.

"We'll have a better team in '41 than we had in '40," is as far as Coach Meyer will go in predicting.

The intramural program is finally rounding into fine shape after a rather slow start this semester. Postponed games, forfeits, and midterm exams had plenty to do with retarding the program.

Handball, horseshoe pitching, and water-polo made their initial bow in Class B intramurals Monday. Five games were recorded in handball, with A Field Artillery's 2 to 1 victory over B CWS being the feature. Other close games included B Coast's squeeze over A Infantry, 2 to 1; and A Engineers' win over L Infantry, by an identical score. A CWS's rout of D Field Artillery, and C Engineers' blast of H Infantry were the other feature games played on the handball court.

Cavalry shaded C Cavalry shaded E Engineers, 2 to 1.

Shoupe and Hess pumped it a goal apiece to lead B CWS to a close cropped 2 to 1 victory over I Field Artillery in a feature water-polo game. Radley accounted for the lone tally of the "buggy boys". Hdq. Signal Corps showed that they will go far and wide in the water polo campaign when they all but ran off with the ball in lacing C Cavalry, 5 to 0. In other games, K Infantry outlasted B Field Artillery, 3 to 2, in another thriller; and B CWS splashed to a 3 to 0 victory at the expense of D Coast.

Horseshoe pitching and volleyball cluttered the Class A intramural program the past two days. Teams were quite evenly matched in volleyball with only two outfits coming through with decisive wins. That included D Cavalry's 2 to 0 victory over G Field Artillery and C Infantry's duplication of the Cavalry's feat at the expense of H Field Artillery. Other games found A Infantry on top over Hdq. Cavalry by the slim margin of 2 to 1; Artillery Band eked out a thriller over K Infantry by an identical score; E Coast came through with a win over their "cousins" from A Coast, 2 to 1; and F Infantry found themselves on the long end of a 2 to 1 count over D Field Artillery.

Five games were recorded in Class A horseshoe pitching with scores of 3 to 0 and 2 to 1 being listed. In the former class included 5th Corps Hdq.'s decisive victory over G Infantry and D Infantry's win over C Engineers. Mg. Cavalry's hair-raising victory over I Infantry and F Field Artillery's win over A CWS were the other games played under the big stadium at Kyle Field.

Horseshoe pitching saw some thrilling games played off under Kyle Field Stadium with some 8 teams participating. D Infantry took the odd game in their series with B Signal Corps to come out on top, 2 to 1. In a battle of the "paddle-feet," B Infantry ran roughshod over I Infantry, 3 to 0. In other games, I Field Artillery blasted F Infantry, 3 to 0; C Coast blanked Mg. Cavalry to the tune of 3 to 0; F Field Artillery eked out a 2 to 1 win over F Coast; and

Patty Berg To Tutor Aggie Golfers March 5

Miss Patty Berg, outstanding national woman golfer, will pay the Texas A. & M. College campus a visit on Wednesday, March 5, to demonstrate some golf shots for the benefit of the Texas Aggie golf team members, as well as any nubile swingers among the student body.

Col. Frank Anderson, golf coach, this week accepted the offer of Miss Berg's services in the hopes that some of his team members will pick up some new tricks—enough tricks in fact to have a chance for the Southwest Conference title this year.

Miss Berg plans to make a tour of the state and will make public appearances at many courses in the interest of bettering golf duffer's cards and when her sponsor offered to send her down to Aggeland, Col. Anderson lost no time in saying "send her down."

The program calls for Miss Berg to hold clinics with free advice offered to all comers. In addition, she is scheduled to demonstrate the use of the various club in the hands of a golfer's bag when in the hands of an expert.

Owls Won First Game by Wide Margin; Fracas Should Be Much Closer This Time

Aggies Must Stop Carswell and Kinney In Order to Win the Fracas

The in-and-out Rice Owl basketball squad will be the next visitors of the luckless Texas Aggies when the two teams collide at the DeWare Field House in a feature game of the Southwest Conference race.

Always a colorful outfit on the hardwood floor, the Owls will start a lineup of stars which should handle the hustling Aggie team. Included in their array of Aces is Frankie Carswell, who is still a dilemma in the minds of the cadet cagers. The 34 points in a previous game against the Aggies missed the record by only one point. He should be ready to go as he has been on a scoring rampage in his last few games. If the Aggies miraculously stop Carswell there is still Bob Kinney to consider. Kinney was the bright star in the Owls' early victories, but has slumped to a small extent lately. However, he came back in fine style to account for 11 points in the S. M. U. tilt.

Coach Hub McQuillen isn't one to give up so easily, however. He has been working hard on the Aggie defense lately, and should have a better one than he put on in the S. M. U. fracas. Bill Henderson, who dealt the Owls misery on the gridiron will probably vie for top scoring honors with Carswell. Sammy Dwyer, who combines football with his floor game, should be ready and "raring" to go tonight. Dwyer's excellent guarding of Johnny Sebeck last Tuesday night kept the Mustang ace from scoring but one field goal. The rough tactics of "Iron-man" Mike Cokinos should prove a big asset to the Aggie cause. Mike's aggressiveness near the close of the S. M. U. game gave the fans many thrills.

Here are the probable starting lineups:

Aggies	F	Owls
Lang	F	Lambert
Henderson	F	Closs
Dawson	C	Kinney
Nabors	G	Carswell
Dwyer	G	Selman

It Took Three Years to Get Roy Young's Shoes Filled

Size fourteen shoes that have been vacant since the graduation of Roy Young are seeing service on the gridiron once more on the feet of Acie McAda, a freshman who came out for end this week.

The shoes that would be boxes for an ordinary pair of footwear were left over from the days that the Athletic Department ordered several pairs to keep Young from playing his tackle position bare-footed and seemed destined to remain museum pieces until Acie came out to fill them.

Track Team To Participate In Nine Meets

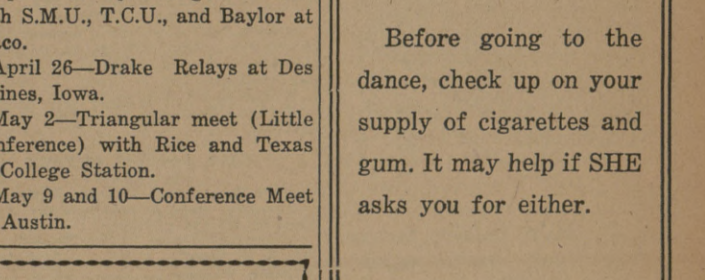

J. W. Rollins, Texas Aggie track mentor, has announced that his thinly-clad will be seen in nine meets during the spring months, opening with an engagement at the Border Olympics at Laredo and closing with the conference meet in Austin on May 9 and 10.

The long trip of the year for the squad will be to Des Moines, Iowa, for the Drake Relays on April 26.

Rollins will have one of the smallest squads in years at Aggeland, but figures to be strong in the dashes, hurdles, pole vault, high dashes, half mile and shotput.

Following is the schedule:

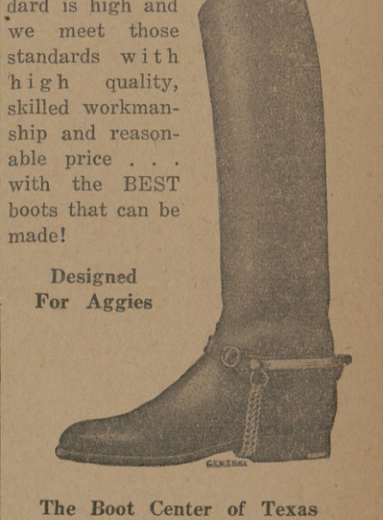

March 7—Border Olympics at Laredo.
March 15—Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth.
March 22—San Marcos at San Marcos (dual meet)
March 29—Triangular meet with Texas and Abilene Christian College at College Station.
April 5—Texas Relays at Austin.
April 19—Quadrangular meet with S.M.U., T.C.U., and Baylor at Waco.
April 26—Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa.
May 2—Triangular meet (Little Conference) with Rice and Texas at College Station.
May 9 and 10—Conference Meet at Austin.
