Beeler, Texas, is swimming against Taylor, Aggies, in the 220 yd. and 440 yd. events. Beeler holds the conference championship in both distances and Taylor has all of the other Texas championships under his belt.

On the spring board, Babe Paplick, Texas, and Bubba Reeves, Aggies, will perform for top honors in diving.

Japhet, Aggies, Conway, Aggies, and Smith, Texas, are slated to swim against each other in the backstroke.

This meet finds the first place possibilities very unevenly distributed and will undoubtedly also find the winner decided on second and third placings.

Fish and Game Department to Offer Four New Field Courses This Summer

Four new field courses will be offered by the Fish and Game Department this summer, Dr. Walter P. Taylor, head of the department announced Friday. The purpose of these courses is to acquaint graduate students and seniors with field technique and game management practices.

During the first term of the summer session a course in stream survey and fish management methods will be offered by Dr. Kelsch Bonham. The work probably will center around survey of the Colorado River from the Gulf to its headwaters with the object of learning the present status of fish and fish foods, and the physical properties of the river.

Another course to be offered the first semester will be conducted by Dr. William B. Davis. This group will make a survey of the birds, mammals, and plants of selected portions of Old Mexico. The purpose of this work is to acquaint students with methods of collecting field data and to gather information on wildlife conditions in areas where overhunting and overgrazing has permitted nearly primeval conditions to exist. Reservations for this trip must be made before April 15, as permits must be secured from the Mexican Government for each member of the party.

During the second term Dr. Davis will continue a survey of wildlife conditions in trans-Pecos Texas which began three years ago. Work in this course will center around collecting field data on the status of both game and non-game animals, and the vegetation in Presidio County in the Big Bend Region.

A survey of the wildlife management and restoration practices now being used in Texas will be led by Dr. Taylor. Tentative plans call for at least one week of study in each of the five game management regions, where successful management of deer, antelope, turkey, quail, waterfowl, fur bearers, and other desirable species is now in operation. Students will have the opportunity to see at first hand the techniques of game management in actual operation.

Students enrolled in these courses will be away from the college most of the term, frequently living under camp conditions, and studying wildlife in the open. All courses carry college credit, varying from four to seven semester hours.

After her graduation Mrs. Smith accepted the position of physical education instructor at the Alamo Heights High School in San Antonio. She was in charge of the school pep squads and sports clubs and handled all affairs such as the junior and senior banquets. In fact she "had a hand in all the social affairs" during the two years she was at Alamo Heights.

Following her marriage in the summer of 1939, Mrs. Smith moved to College Station and immediately became active in campus affairs. At present she is in charge of one of the interest groups of the Women's Social Club here and in this capacity holds gymnastic classes and teaches folk dances. She also teaches folk and ball room dancing to the grammar and high school students of the community and heads a girl scout troop as well. In her spare time she also instructs members of the Y Council in folk dancing.

Aggie Rifflists Off To Match With TSCW

Lieutenant C. A. Williams and his Texas Aggie Rifle Team go to Denton today to take on the T.S.C.W. team in their initial contest.

The feminine sharpshooters gained nationwide recognition, when they outfired the Aggie team in a grueling match here last year. However, the T. S. C. W.ians were given a handicap, which brought ample amount of praise in favor of the Aggies. This time, however, it will be a straight match with no handicap of any kind being accepted.

Competition for the A. & M. Rifle team has been nil this year while T.S.C.W. has seen competition here and there. Their latest exploit was the one-sided victory over the Dallas Rifle Club, which indicates that the so-called weaker sex won't be too easy to handle in their future matches.

If artificial lighting of poultry houses has been started it must be continued until early April. Sudden stoppage of lights before that time would seriously lessen egg production.
