Aggies Beat Rice in Track Meet, TCU in Tennis

Cinder Squad Turns on Power Nine Points Worth

Meet Is 1st Outright Win for A & M Trackmen, Season Opener for Owls

With blood in their eyes and determination, speed and power in their legs, the Aggie tracksters turned back Coach Emmet Brunson's Rice Owls in Houston Tuesday afternoon with a nine point lead.

It was the first outright win for the cadets and the first meet for the Owls.

Twice during the afternoon mother luck played her hand and twice the wrong team got the points. In the 220-yd. low hurdles, Roy Bueck stumbled and caused Pete Watkins to leave his lane. Barron Ellis, the sophomore grid star of the Owls, carried on to take the first place honors, with Bueck taking second.

Later in the 440-yd. relay, Ray Zimmerman ran out of the 20-yard zone in taking the baton from Lawrence Snellson, disqualifying the Owl team.

Dead Heat

In the 440-yd. dash C. R. "Frog" Johnson of the Aggies and Bob Neath of the Owls covered the lap with but a few yards difference in the two all the way around. On the home stretch, Johnson was pushed hard by Neath but increased his gait to cross the line even with the Rice runner.

Harold Hall, from out where the Brays and Buffalo Bayous meet in Houston, carried off the individual laurels for the day, claiming the 100, 220 and a fourth of the mile relay for the Owls.

Watkins would have been named high point man had it not been for his disqualification in the low hurdles. He and Bueck led the Aggies with eight points each.

The summaries:
High jump—Watkins, A. & M., first; Coffman, Rice, and Hicks, A. & M., tied for second. Height, 6 feet, 2 inches.
Shot put—Deal, Rice; Thomason, A. & M. Distance, 48 feet, 10 3/4 inches.
440-Yard dash—Dead heat between Neath of Rice and C. R. Johnson of A. & M.
100-yard dash—Hall, Rice; Blagg, Rice. Time, 9.7.
1/2 mile run—Mayer, A. & M.; Steward, A. & M. Time 4:40.4.
Broad jump—Christopher, Rice; Wylie, Rice. Distance, 23 feet, 9 1/2 inches.
220-Yard dash—Hall, Rice; Blagg, Rice. Time, 21.2.
Discus—Deal, Rice; Hartman, Rice. Distance, 144 feet, 4 inches.
120-yard high hurdles—Bueck, A. & M.; Watkins, A. & M. Time, 14.8.
Pole Vault—Ricks, A. & M. and Lay, Rice, tied at 12 feet, 6 inches.
880-yard run—Ralph Henderson, A. & M.; Steward, A. & M. Time, 1:59.2.
440-yard relay—A. & M. (Brush, Knight, Johnson, Smith). Time, 42.6.
Two mile run—A. & M. (Wilmith, Mayer, Steward, Laney) Won on forfeit as with even John Kimbrough of before Thanksgiving Day."

HENDERSON FIGHTS SIBLEY IN INTRAMURALS FINALS

When the Aggie line hits the Aggie end or vice versa, it will be quite a thud, but such is the case tonight with Bill Henderson slated to go against Dub Sibley in the Class A Intramural Heavyweight Final.

William Boothe of C Coast Artillery who was to have fought Henderson was forced to forfeit due to illness.

The bout is scheduled for 8 o'clock tonight.

TEXAS GETS HALF HOLIDAY FOR RUNNING OF RELAYS

President Rainey has called a half holiday for the annual running of the Texas Relays Saturday afternoon. School and offices are closed at the University the same as here but it was a good gesture.

In the thirteen previous showings, the relays have attracted some 90,000 thousand spectators. This week-end, in connection with the Texas Round-Up, it is hoped that the mark will pass 100,000.

SECOND MATCHES SLATED FOR GOLF, TENNIS TEAMS

Hal Wilkerson will lead the Southern Methodist netters against the Aggies here today for the cadet's second meet of the week.

Tuesday, Manning Smith's gang topped the Frogs.

The Ponies have a strong squad led by their National Indoor Open Tournament entry.

With a win over the Owls, Captain Henry Hauser leads the Aggie golfers against the Baylor Bears today in Waco. This also is the second competition for the golfers.
