Horse Show—

pate in the horse show, Major John E. Stevens declared.

Members of the horse show committee are, Col. Ike Ashburn, Lieut. Col. James A. Watson, Commandant, Dr. Marsteller, D. W. Williams, and Major Stevens, manager. Student members of the committee are Tom Richey, Graham Purcell, William Ehman, J. H. Crouch Jr., and J. M. Jones.

Much of the success of the show will be due to the efforts of local merchants and others outside the county who have made contributions to the show. As in past years, a large number of civilian entries will also participate in the show.

Jumping classes, R.O.T.C. horsemanship classes, and other military classes will give all who attend a visual knowledge of A. & M. cadet's mounted ability. Entrants are made up from the Cavalry and Field Artillery Regiments.

Alexander—

turnout was too small to be representative and postponed the election.

Thursday night the Student Elections Committee called a yell practice in order to introduce the candidates to the election. Both Davis and Alexander made short talks.

Only juniors and seniors were eligible to vote in the election which was held in the rotunda of the Academic Building from 12:45 to 5:30 Friday afternoon. Becker, Tom Hagood, and Howard Shelton were the seniors in charge of the balloting and were assisted by Alden Cathey, Tom Gillis, and Skeen Staley.

Scholarships—

useful places in life.

The trip, which will begin July 28, consists of two phases. The first two weeks will be spent at the Purina Mills studying the various phases and departments of that organization. Some of the time will be spent at the Purina Experimental Farm at Gray's Summit, Missouri.

The last two weeks will consist of a course in Leadership Training at the American Youth Foundation Camp on Lake Michigan.

William Danforth, chairman of the board of directors at Purina Mills and one of the outstanding agricultural men in the United States, will be one of the directors of this training course.

The expenses for the trip, which will end August 24, will be covered by the Fellowship Award.

The committee making the fellowship selections at A. & M. was composed of D. W. Williams, chairman; C. N. Shephardson, Ide P. Trotter, J. W. Barger, D. H. Reid, and E. R. Alexander.

Singing Cadets—

of the Latin-American quartet and octet. For these songs, the students will remove their blouses to sing as emphasis of their light and colorful atmosphere.

"God Bless America," and Director J. J. Woolket's arrangements of "The Spirit of Aggieland" and "Taps" will provide a fitting climax for the evening's entertainment.

Through the efforts of Charlie Zahn, president of the Singing Cadets, this year's club made a trip to Beaumont, Houston, Port Arthur, and Conroe last month, and is planning another trip to Tyler, Palestine, Greenville, McKinney, and Denton, the latter part of this month.

This will be the first appearance of the group as a Town Hall presentation.

Aggies-Owls—

Lindsey opened the seventh inning with a single and Francis went to first after being struck by Pepper, who replaced Kennedy on the mound for Rice. Pugh singled on a fielder's choice, forcing Lindor out. Scoggin walked; Jeffrey singled, scoring Pugh; and Buchanan batted to score Scoggin.

Buchanan to Pugh
 As far as the infield was concerned, Pugh and Buchanan handled the job with skill and ease.

In the second Pugh caught Barrow's fly after Carswell had gone to first and then stepped back to catch the third baseman off the sack for a double-out.

Score by innings—
 Aggies 0 0 4 3 0 3 x—10
