

Aggies and Longhorns Clash for SW Baseball Lead

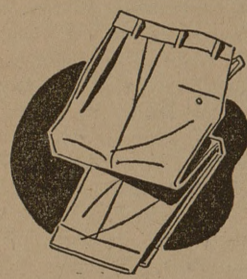

On Kyle Field

By Dub Oxford

As to who is going to get the conference baseball flag, that is a question that even Professor Quiz would have a hard time answering. Texas A. & M. and the University of Texas are in the title race for the flag and the question will be settled this weekend when the Steers invade Aggieland.

Mel Deutsch, ace hurler for the Steers, is rumored to have a sore arm, but I imagine that the wing will be in shape for the big games Friday and Saturday.

Faculty Tennis Stars Big Attraction In Fiery Meet

Hotly contested and interesting matches were the big attractions which graced the Faculty Tennis tournaments held here this past week-end.

In the doubles, Terrell and Garretson defeated Quisenberry and Samuelson, 6 to 3; 6 to 8; and 8 to 6 for the doubles championship. Levine claimed the singles crown with a 6 to 3; 5 to 7; and 6 to 4 win over Samuelson.

Other results of the singles matches included:

First Round: Garretson defeated Potter, 7 to 5; 3 to 6 and 6 to 3. Flory outlasted Bouknight, 6 to 2, 6 to 0. Smith won over Jones, 6 to 1; 6 to 2. Levine took his game over Kidd, 6 to 2 and 6 to 0 in fine stride. Quisenberry took Carlin into camp with a 6 to 1 and 6 to 0 victory. Laverty drew a bye, while Samuelson and Terrell won their matches by default.

Second Round: Flory won over Garretson, 6 to 2 and 6 to 1; Smith lost out in his game with Levine, 6 to 1. Samuelson outmanned Quisenberry 8 to 6 and 6 to 3. Terrell over-ran Laverty, 6 to 0 and 6 to 2.

Third Round: Levine defeated Flory, 6 to 0, 6 to 1. Samuelson grabbed a 7 to 5, 8 to 10, and a 6 to 4 win over Terrell.

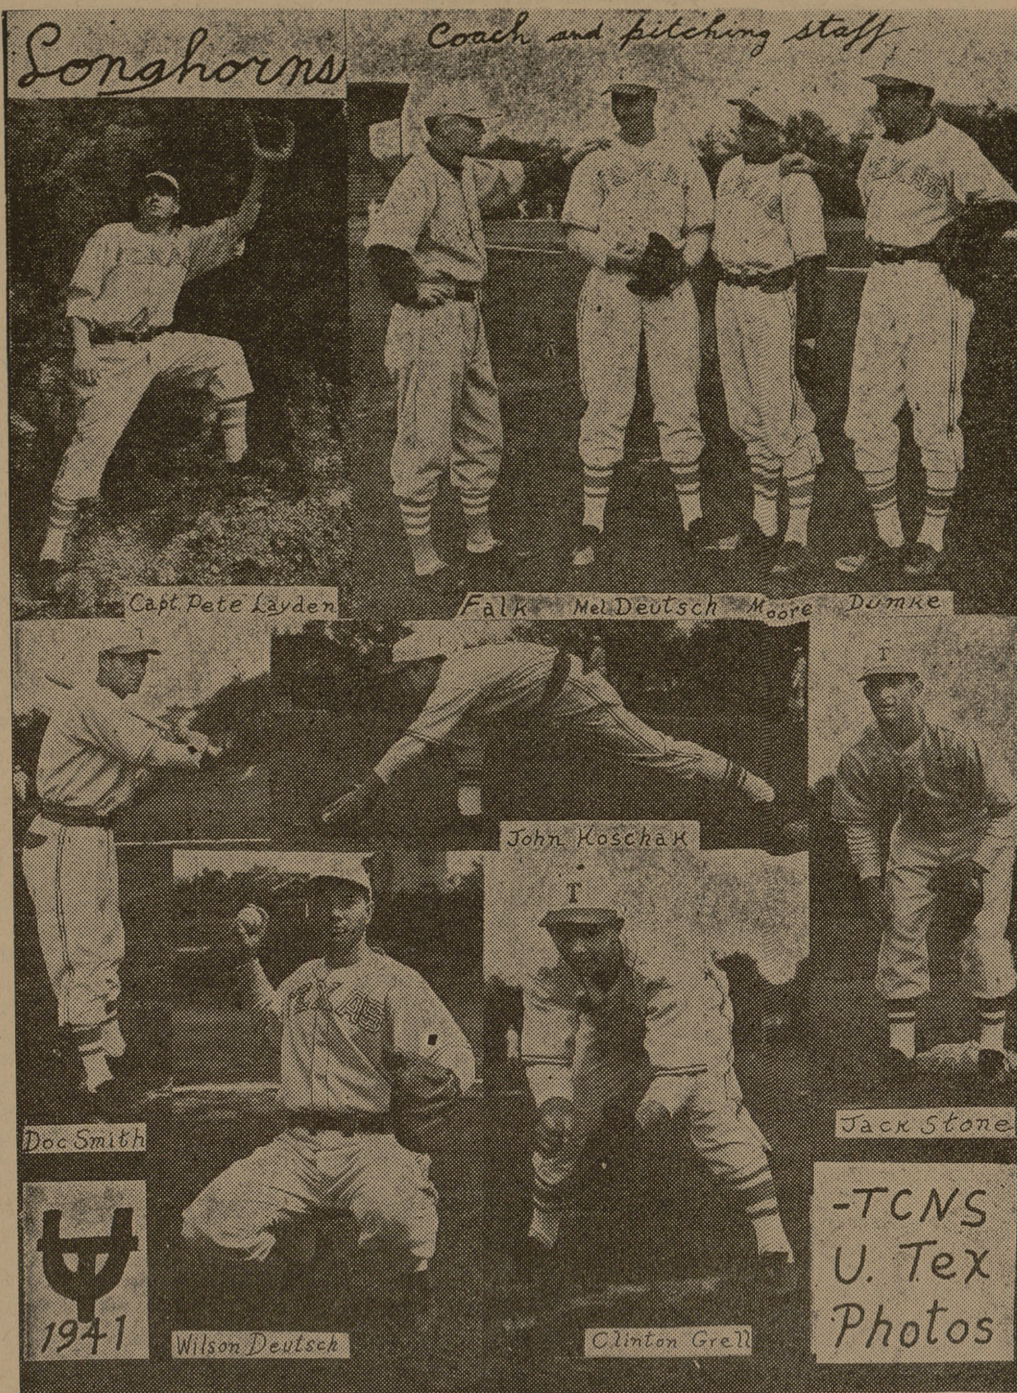

Final Round: Levine shaded Samuelson in a close match 6 to 3; 5 to 7; and 6 to 4.

has been fine for Coach Marty Karow's Aggie nine and the sackmen are taking advantage of the fine weather to really get a few licks of hard practice.

And speaking of the weather, it is fine for golf too. Charlie Stevenson, one of the Aggies' mainstays on the mound came in from a "large" game of golf and reported that he had made the wonderful score of 54. Well, that just proves, Charlie, that you should stick to baseball.

This weekend will be chock full of activities, conference ball games, dances, and swim meets. Coach Art Adamson announced that Saturday at 2 o'clock sharp, the annual Interscholastic Swim meet will be held in P. L. Downs Jr., (Continued on page 4)

Conference Spotlight Will Focus on Kyle Field Games

8,000 Fans to Witness Heated Diamond Feud

By Jack Hollimon

In a clash for the conference lead Friday and Saturday afternoons on Kyle Field, the first place Texas Longhorns cross bats with Texas A. & M. in runner-up position, and the outcome will give the winner an excellent chance to go on to a championship. Texas has subdued conference teams nine times while being overwhelmed once, and the Aggies have six consecutive victories to two early defeats. These games hold the spotlight for Southwest conference sports during the weekend.

A crowd of nearly 8,000 fans is expected to fill the stands on both afternoons, and in the event of two Texas victories, there will not be a third in Austin Monday and the Steers will be 1941 champions. However, should A. & M. come through, they need win only those three games to oust Texas as baseball champions. If they need to finish up, they will play Baylor a game washed out earlier in the season.

Everything points to a battle worthy of much recognition between these age-old rivals on the field of sports. No victory is so sweet to the Aggies as a thorough stomping of the Longhorns, while the Texans consider an A. & M. win a successful season. To urge their corps and players into a frenzy of yelling and backing-up of the team, the complete A. & M. band will be present along with the yell leaders. From the south stands, orange and white will be a color combination much disdained.

Ready to go for Aggieland are four proven pitchers in Lefty

Bumpers, Roy Peden, Billy Henderson, and Charlie Stevenson. Bumpers and Peden are likely to start, with the other two used to quell a possible Texas uprising.

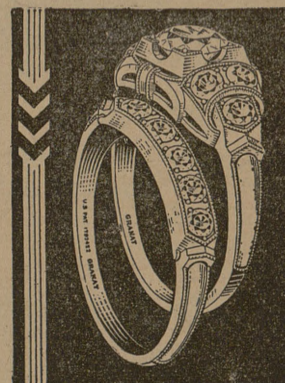

Texas has ailing Melvin Deutsch back in top condition again and he is destined to get a call for one of the games with Udell Moore, overworked Steer, answering for the other. The Austin boys have not made such good showings as the spring grows older, and experts give A. & M. a better than even chance of passing them. If hustle and fight can do it, then, according to A. & M. coach Marty Karow, the Aggies will move into the number one place on the conference statistician's hit-parade.

Game time Friday has been set for 3:30 o'clock, and the contest Saturday will get under way at 2:30. Both clubs will enter the fray at full strength and among those estimated 8,000 spectators will be A. & M. as represented by its mighty student body.

F Engineers Win Volleyball Crown By Downing D Engineers 15-1; 15-13

By Mike Haikin
The new volleyball champions of Aggieland! That honor dropped right into the laps of F Engineers as they downed the hardy but outclassed D Engineers, 2 to 0. They had an easy time in the first game, crushing their rivals, 15 to 1. D Company, however, came back fighting like wildcats in the second fray but the well-polished F Engineers had just enough on the ball to quench the onslaught and annex the game, 15 to 13.

Playoffs for softball got underway yesterday afternoon and the champion is due to be crowned within two weeks. The process of mopping up is just about over, and the league-winning diamonders are ready to get down to serious work.

A 6-run outburst in the final inning by 1st Corps Hdq. fell short by one run as A Coast survived the rally and took the free-swinging game, 15 to 14. Ellis, Coast chunker, had an easy going for six innings, but instead of bearing down in the final canto loosened up.

Ken Schmidt's brilliant hurling performance sparked the 2nd Hdq. Field Artillery to a 2 to 1 victory over A Signal Corps in a feature game on the baseball field. This was one of the best played games this year, with hits and runs being few and far between. A. L. Watson of A Signal Corps, pitched good enough to win most games, but he had the hard luck of bumping against Schmidt.

Swimming again hit the spotlight of Class A intramurals, with some first-class swimming meets being reeled off. In one of the feature meets of the day, A CWS took F Infantry in hand for an 18 to 12 win. Stubbs of CWS, and Anderson of the Infantry were tied for individual honors with seven markers apiece. The other meet proved just as exciting with H Coast handing I Field Artillery a 24 to 19 setback.

Extension Service Places Members on Cotton Week Group

In observance of National Cotton Week, set for May 16 to 24 and recognized officially in Texas by proclamation of Governor W. Lee O'Daniel, the A. & M. Extension Service is placing many of its members on the National Cotton Week Committee for Texas which is supervising the celebration in Texas.

These members are Mildred Horton, vice director of the Extension Service at A. & M. and vice-chairman of the committee; H. H. Williamson, director of the Texas Extension Service; Dora R. Barnes; Beulah Blackwell; and Mary Anna Grimes.

This committee, consisting of a great many extension workers from throughout Texas, will sponsor fashion shows, cotton balls, and will ask merchants to feature goods made of cotton during the week in order to help make the nation more cotton conscious.

Ball Game Tops D H Picnic Plans

The dairy husbandry department will hold their annual picnic Saturday afternoon at 3:30 in Hensell Park.

The feature attraction of the afternoon will be a softball game between students and the professors. A. L. Darnell, professor in the dairy husbandry department, will be the official for the game.

The picnic is sponsored each year by the Kream and Kow Klub and is attended by the club members, the professors and their wives.

Aggie Pistol Team Meet Cops in Capitol

Moving to Austin Saturday, the Texas A. & M. pistol team will take on the Texas Highway Patrolmen in a shooting match in which the Aggies are expected to carry off their share of honors.

Running up against some strong competition the Aggie pistolers will be firing targets with the best shots in the state of Texas.

The team is coached by lieutenant T. B. Strother and is captained by C. A. Lewis.
