Kyle Makes Goodwill Tour To Pan-American Countries

Colonel Ike Ashburn Leaves College For Position in Houston; Succeeded by Angell

The responsibility of managing the administrative affairs of A. & M. have been intrusted to a group of executives who are fully capable in every respect.

This year several changes in personnel have been made. Colonel Ike Ashburn, former executive assistant to the president, has left the college for a position in Houston. Dean E. J. Kyle has a leave of absence from the college in order to make a good-will tour of South America. E. J. Howell, registrar of the college, is also on leave from A. & M. as he is now serving with the army.

Short sketches about these men appear below in order that the students may become better acquainted with them. These men welcome and encourage visits from students who would avail themselves of this opportunity for guidance and counsel and for valuable contacts with men well known in their respective fields.

DR. T. O. WALTON

President of the college since 1925, Dr. Walton came to A. & M. in 1916 as state agent with the Extension Service. He was director of the service in 1918, retaining that position until his selection as president of the college. Eminent in national affairs, he has held this position during the period of A. & M.'s greatest growth. Walton Hall, erected in 1931, is named in his honor.

F. C. BOLTON

Frank C. Bolton is vice-president and dean of the college. Originally a professor of physics and electrical engineering at A. & M., he was made dean of the school of engineering in 1922. He was made dean of the college in 1932 and vice-president in 1937. Dean Bolton has contributed 32 years of his life to A. & M. He is a graduate of Mississippi State where he was a major in the cadet corps.

E. J. KYLE

Dean E. J. Kyle graduated from A. & M. in 1899 and began his academic career as a professor Dean T. D. Brooks has been dean of the school of arts and sciences since 1932. A graduate of Baylor university, he has received an M.A. and Ph.D., from Chicago university. Formerly he was President of Texas Society of College Teachers of Education; Secretary of Texas State Teachers Association; President of Association of Texas Colleges. He was Mayor of Waco for two years.

Student Janitors Complete Special Short Course Here

A. & M. should be spick and span during this year. Student janitors for this year have just completed a summer short course which was held here from September 2 to 5.

This course was similar to the course offered to the building custodians and had the same instructors. It will aid the student janitors in their sanitary efforts during the year.

All students who will be building custodians this year were required to take this course. Between 135 and 140 student janitors attended the course.

First school of engineering in the United States was Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute founded in 1824.
