College Station's Motorized Police Patrol

C. N. Surber, campus patrolman, stops Bill Wofford with his new motorcycle. The motorcycle is used cooperatively by the college and the city in enforcing the local speed limit of 20 miles per hour.

Motorcycle Officer Turns Aggieland into 'Safety City'

A Battalion Feature

With the addition of a motorcycle patrolman to the College police force and the strict enforcement of the 20 mile speed limit, College Station has become the "Safety City" of Brazos county.

The ever-increasing enrollment and the greater number of cars travelling on the campus created a traffic hazard which brought a number of complaints to the authorities. This brought about the idea of setting a standard speed limit and the enforcing of the ruling with a penalty of a fine on each offender.

Sgt. C. N. Surber, the first and only motorcycle policeman of College Station diligently pursues any person who speeds through the campus at a rate of more than 20 miles an hour. The total fines for the first two weeks of the new speed enforcement project were $140 which meant that 140 persons were travelling through the campus at a hazardous rate. Offenders are overtaken by Surber and must appear before the city judge of College Station to pay the penalty. City officials act as a collecting agency for the college.

Opening of Guion As Picture House Delayed Till Oct 8

Postponement of Curtain Delivery Causes YMCA Officials to Set Date Up

Delivery of curtains will delay the opening of Guion Hall as a new motion picture showplace until October 8 if not later, J. Gordon Gay, who is in charge of the theater, states.

When it was originally planned, the staff of the YMCA expected to be moved into the new building by the beginning of school, but construction and delivery of material has caused the opening to be delayed.

Moving of the picture show from the Assembly Hall to Guion Hall will make room for a new student program under the direction of Richard Jenkins, who is the new director of the singing cadets.

After the moving of the equipment from the Assembly Hall, Jenkins will have his office there and will start work on organization shows such as the engineers show which was held last year. The programs will be made up of various forms of talent found in the organizations over the campus.

Turkey Day Clash Dedicated to Former Aggies Now in Service of Uncle Sam

Aggies Sleep As Tail of Hurricane Sweeps College Station

Repercussions of the much talked of Texas hurricane hit College Station Tuesday night while most of the Aggies were in bed or burning the mid-night oil.

At approximately 8:30 Tuesday night the hurricane battered the Texas coast with a wind velocity of 90 to 100 miles an hour. After doing minor damage in Galveston, the storm lost some of its intensity and headed for Houston and points north west. Shortly before midnight Tuesday winds, estimated at 40 miles an hour, hit College Station. This was accompanied by a hard blowing rain that chalked up 1.31 inches in some five hours.

The only known damage on the campus was a tree blown down by Guion Hall. This is a striking contrast to the 1915 storm which struck about 2:30 in the morning and in two hours had several houses roofless. The 1915 storm brought a wind of between 75 and 80 miles an hour, some 30 to 35 miles per hour stronger than the winds that blew through here Tuesday night.

634 Applicants Get By Physical For MS Contracts

Passing of Exam Is Not Assurance Of Obtaining Government OK

Of the 685 juniors and seniors who took physical examinations last week for first year advanced military contracts, 634 passed. Rejections numbered 43, five men were recommended on waiver and three were recommended with no waiver.

The 685 who took the physical examinations compared with approximately 510 who took them last year.

Some of the applicants for contracts who passed their examinations will be unable to obtain them since there is a limited number available. However, some seniors who had contracts last year are not eligible to continue their advanced study for various reasons, both scholastic and physical, and some failed to return to school. These contracts will be given to new students in the advanced course.

Results of the physical examinations will be sent to the Eighth Corps Area Headquarters where they will be received and remitted to A. & M. September 11 is the date from which the contracts are effective.

Of those Infantry students taking the physical examinations 182 qualified; 147 Field Artillery students; 99 C. A. C.; 74 Cavalry; 68 Engineers; 33 Signal Corps; and 31 C. W. S.

Both the Infantry and Field Artillery have 264 contracts each, both new and old. The Coast Artillery has 117; the Cavalry 105; and the Signal Corps and Chemical Warfare each has 63. This makes a total of 1,051 new and old contracts for the entire school.

Governor Stevenson Scheduled to Deliver Dedicatory Address

The annual Thanksgiving Day football game between A. & M. and the University of Texas to be played on Kyle Field November 27 will be dedicated to all former Aggies now in the armed forces of the United States, it was announced by President T. O. Walton.

Tom Gillis, Cadet Colonel of the A. & M. Corps has written the president of the University of Texas student body asking him to solicit the cooperation of the Texas student body in the dedication ceremonies. It is planned that the University of Texas too shall dedicate the game to all former students of their school who are now serving in the armed forces.

Appropriate ceremonies are planned just prior to the opening kickoff of the game and it is likely that Governor Coke Stevenson will make the dedicatory address.

The annual Thanksgiving clash between the two state schools always attracts thousands of alumni of both institutions, and many of the service men to whom the game will be dedicated will be in the stands. Hundreds of tickets to the game have been mailed to former students in various army camps throughout the entire United States, and it is estimated that about 37,000 persons will see the game.

Senior Section At Games Designated

Class sections in the stadium were announced yesterday for the current football season. Sections for the four classes are clearly defined and must be adhered to, Cadet Colonel Tom Gillis stated.

The junior class section is below the senior section to the aisle in sections 130, 131, 132, all of section 129 from the top down to the aisle, and eight seats in section 128 adjacent to Ramp O from the top row to the aisle.

Sophomores will sit in sections 128, 129, 130, 131, from row 11 to the aisle and from the top row down to row 24 in section 128 and around in the end zone as far as necessary.

Freshmen will sit in sections 131, 130, 129, 128, from the first row through row ten and around in the end zone below the aisle as far as necessary.

PH Group Makes Up Replacement Center Regiment

64 Men from Two Houses In Each of 8 Companies Organized by Lieut Sale

Lieutenant E. B. Sales, tactical officer in charge of the 16 project houses on the campus, has organized the students living in the project houses into a Replacement Center Regiment of eight companies. Each company consists of two houses, each containing 32 boys, making a company of 64 men.

All companies have a sports manager, social officer, and an officer in charge of discipline. These newly created organizations will compete in intramural contests on the same basis as a dormitory organization. There are a number of potential athletes, Lieutenant Sale contends, among these students who have not taken the opportunity, heretofore, to participate in intramural sports contests.

Officers of the companies are contemplating holding competition drills between their respective organizations. Lieutenant Sale is also working on the possibility of securing a number of rifles for the students to drill with thus giving them a better opportunity to become more efficient in the art of the manual of arms.

Those cadet officers who are to command the companies are John Box, Co. A; M. J. Morris, Jr., Co. B; L. A. Maddox, Co. C; Swish Filgo, Co. D; Fred Coley, E. Co.; G. C. McGourik, G. Co.; F. G. Collard, F. Co.; E. L. Davis, H. Co.; C. O. Duty, I. Co.

The Cadet Major, who will command the regiment, has not as yet been appointed by the Military department.

Classifications Given All Clubs Asking for Y Money

Grinding through a two-hour session Wednesday afternoon, the Student Activities Committee passed a motion whereby all student campus organizations will be required to submit application to the student activities office before being granted certain funds for operation.

As a means of determining which clubs will receive the limited funds four classifications were set up, and the various clubs will be given money according to which classification they are assigned. Classifications are based on points of general benefit to the college, to the cadet corps as a student body and as a plan of service.

To be eligible for classification the clubs must be a dues-paying organization and must submit their annual budget at the time of application.

Several other matters were brought up for discussion, but formal action was postponed until a more complete investigation could be made of the various cases.

All pending matters and new business will be discussed at a future meeting soon.

Dallas Club President Announces New Policy

The newly reorganized Dallas County A. & M. Club has announced a new policy for the coming year. In the past it has been the custom, if not the rule, for only the boys from the city of Dallas to take active participation in the club work. The custom will hold no longer, President Vincent Hagan said.

Hagan issued an invitation to all boys from Dallas and Dallas county to meet Thursday night in the Y chapel. Plans for the next year will be discussed. The activities for this year will be under the leadership of Rod Gambrell, vice president; T. K. Pierce, secretary; and Austin Nance, treasurer.
