Ring Dance Date Changed to May 14 As Seniors Vote on Spring Social Calendar

Schedules of Classes Available Now; Drill Periods Will be Four Hours Long

Registration To Begin January 22 For Next Semester

Schedules of classes for the second semester are now available at the registrar's office. Students are reminded that drill periods next semester will last from 1:00 p. m. until five o'clock instead of from one to three as in the past. This fact should be taken into consideration in making a program, the registrar pointed out today.

Registration will begin for all students who were classified seniors the first semester at 1:00 p. m. Thursday, January 22. All other students who were in school at A. & M. the first semester will register on Friday, January 23. New and old students returning who were not registered for this semester will not be allowed to register until Saturday morning at eight o'clock.

Old students will begin the process by paying all fees at the cashier's office. Fees may be paid beginning Monday, January 19. Assignment cards will be issued from the Assembly Hall as usual. On Thursday afternoon the deans and heads of departments will be in their offices for the purpose of signing the assignment cards of seniors only. On Friday these officials will be in places designated in the official schedule of classes.

After classes have been assigned, students should report to the commandant's table in the rotunda of the Administration building. Following this, cards should be turned in to the registrar to complete registration.

New students who are registering for the first time should report to the registrar's office before beginning registration.

News Editing and Feature Writing Will Be Offered Juniors and Seniors

Juniors and senior students are given an opportunity to learn to write and edit newspapers and magazines in two three hour courses on news editing and specialized forms of writing. These courses prepare students for work on college and commercial publications.

Specialized forms of writing, 442, for seniors deals with writing of feature stories, special columns, reviews, and various types of editorials.

New editing, 322, which is available to juniors, takes up copyreading, proofreading, headline writing, and newspaper and magazine layout. This course shows potential staff members for A. & M. publications what to do with copy, step by step, from the reporter to the printed page.

Sophomores may take these courses by getting permission from George Summey, Jr., head of the English department.

Loveless Reports To Active Duty At Fort Riley, Kansas

Sidney I. Loveless, city secretary, will leave January 27 for the Officer's Replacement Center at Fort Riley, Kansas. Loveless is a reserve officer in the cavalry and will take over his duties as a first lieutenant at Fort Riley.

Loveless, a well-known ex-Aggie, was captain of A Troop Cavalry, and graduated from A. & M. in 1938. He was quite active in his school activities during his four years at A. & M. and was made editor of the Longhorn his last year.

Besides being the city secretary, Loveless is the secretary of the Reserve Officers Association, and is head of the Freshman Guidance Program.

Giesecke, Hopper Present Research Paper to ASHVE

Comparative studies of friction-heads in screwed and welded elbows have been conducted at A. & M. college by Dr. F. E. Giesecke and T. S. Hopper of the Engineering Experiment Station. The research was sponsored by the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers, of which Dr. Giesecke is a former president.

The paper will be presented January 27 at the Philadelphia convention of the A.S.H.V.E. and has been printed in the journal section of "Heating, Piping and Air Conditioning."

Results of the research indicate that the ratio of friction-heads for both welded and screwed elbows varies slightly with velocity of water and size of pipe used. Elaborate drawings, charts and complete data tables and formulae are included in the complete report.

Committee Will Meet to Discuss New Social Calendar

Ratification of the new social calendar will be the main business Monday afternoon at a meeting of the Student Activities Committee, F. C. Bolton, chairman, stated Friday.

All members should be present as complete changes in the social calendar will be made. The change is necessitated because of the 12 month speed-up program recently adopted by the college.

Bull Ringers Have Unexpected Chance To Do Bit For War Relief

The Military Department is doing its bit to aid the American Red Cross War Relief Benefit game which takes place at 2:30 p. m. today.

Anyone who is on the "bull ring" this afternoon will be dismissed from the walking ordeal if he purchases a ticket to the benefit game. A representative of the ticket committee will be at the tour duty area to sell tickets to anyone who is interested.

"Bull-Ringers," here's a way to get out of walking a couple of hours and aid a worthy cause—all at the same time.

McCulley, Jackson Take Panama Duty

Captain W. S. McCulley and Lt. W. K. Jackson left College Station for New Orleans early yesterday morning. The two officers will be accompanied as far as New Orleans by their wives, but the ladies will remain behind when they sail for the Panama Canal Zone where they will be on duty with the Chemical Warfare Service in the Panama Canal department.

Captain C. A. Johnson, A. & M., '33, is replacing Capt. McCulley temporarily in the capacity of senior instructor of the Chemical Warfare unit. On February 1, Lt. Col. L. E. Swearingen, who is at present a professor of chemistry at Oklahoma university, will come to A. & M. as Senior instructor. Johnson will remain as junior officer under Swearingen.

Before he left, McCulley sent the following message to the Battalion:

To all my friends of the faculty and the cadet corps, Best wishes to all of you that (See McCULLEY, page 4)

Junior Prom May 8 Under New Calendar

Changes in the social calendar were brought about when the senior class decided in a unanimous vote to have the Senior Ring Dance and Banquet on Thursday, May 14, instead of on May 8, as previously scheduled, Dick Hervey, senior class president reports.

The dance will now precede the final ball on Friday, May 15, and final review on Saturday. The date was changed in order that guests might avoid having to make two trips to College Station in the course of a week to attend these functions.

If the seniors are called out for service before May 16, the dance date will again be changed. Seniors will have their dance before being called out regardless of the time, Hervey promised.

The Junior Prom originally scheduled to be May 16, as now announced, will be May 8, which was the former date of the Senior dance. This date however is tentative, until the student activities committee decides definitely next Tuesday when it meets to consider proposed date changes.

A program and favors committee was appointed by Dick Hervey at the meeting. Chairman of the committee is Billy Davis. Members are Frank King and Robin Rominger. Also appointed was a laundry committee, composed of Tommy Cook, chairman, Tim Cupples and Jack Holliday.

Rod Gambrell, chairman of the committee for reduced train rates and Archie Crews of the hospital committee both made reports.

Annual Freshman Livestock Contest Will Be Held Today

The annual freshman livestock judging contest will be held, this afternoon in the animal husbandry pavilion. The contest is slated to begin at 12:30 p. m.

As in the past, all freshmen taking Animal Husbandry 107 who are in the high 25 per cent of their class may enter, provided they have not had any advanced courses in this subject. Contestants will be required to judge eight classes of livestock and give an oral set of reasons for their judgment on four of these.

Judges of the freshmen will be the members of the senior livestock judging team, consisting of Tommy Stuart, Jack Cleveland, Victor Loeffler, W. T. Berry, Gordon Grote and Jake Hess. The contest is sponsored by the Saddle and Sirlin club and the Block and Bridle club.

High point scorer in last year's contest was Marvin McMillan from Mason. Second place winner was E. J. Martin of Odessa. Results of today's contest will be released as soon as possible. All contestants and helpers are urged to report at the pavilion promptly.

Block and Bridle Club Wins National Achievement Contest

The Block and Bridle club of A. & M., a branch of the National Block and Bridle club, recently won the achievement award for the year 1941. This award goes to the club in the nation that accomplishes the most during the year. Among the work done by the A. & M. Block and Bridle club is the annual rodeo, which is a great attraction to the population of College Station.

The Saddle and Sirlin Club had at its regular meeting last night the initiation of new members. Forty-eight new members were inducted into the Saddle and Sirlin Club. Since this is a joint club with the Block and Bridle Club, the new members also belong to the latter.

Maroons Versus Whites Promises Gridiron Thrills

Infantry, Cavalry, Composite Regiment Battle Artillery's Engineers, Corps Hdq

By Mike Mann

The American Red Cross Relief Fund will be given a boost this afternoon at 2:30 by residents of College Station, Bryan, and surrounding territory when they turn out in support of the A. & M. annual benefit football game. The two teams are made up by members of the A. & M. Cadet Corps who are donating their services for today's game.

The Maroons, coached by Bill Buchanan, former Aggie football star, is made up of boys from the Infantry, Cavalry, and Composite Regiments along with the Band.

TICKETS TO BE SOLD AT GATE

All those who have not secured their tickets for today's game may purchase them at the gate for 25 cents.

First Sergeants are reminded to turn their tickets or money in before the game at Kyle Field or to Tom Gillis' office before noon.

The Whites, who are coached by Bill Conatser, an Aggie great of last year, consist of members of the Field Artillery, Coast Artillery, Engineers, and the Corps Headquarters.

Pre-Game Ceremonies

Pre-game ceremonies will feature the renowned Aggie band. The Field Artillery Band will enter the stadium and march to its place in the west stands. The Artillery Band will be followed by the Infantry Band which will march to its position in the east stands. One of the bands will open the afternoon with the playing of the National Anthem and the other band will follow with the "Spirit of Aggie-land." The White team bench will be on the west side of the gridiron while the Maroons will be seated on the opposite side.

The lineup of the Maroons is dominated by the Infantry while the Field and Coast Artillery have the most players on the White team. Both teams are strengthened by fast, broken-field runners. Johnny Von Sprecken, H. Coast Artillery, is expected to cut loose with some classy footwork for the Whites. Vance Carrington, C Cavalry, who will be the running expert for the Maroons, also does most of the passing and kicking.

Fast Running Game

As both of the teams have shown decided leanings towards a running game in scrimmages, a hard, fast ground game is expected. The Maroons have a big gun (See CHARITY GAME, page 4)

Kyle Gives Advice For Ag Students

Stay in School Theme of Present Advice by Ag Dean

In a letter to all agricultural students Dean E. J. Kyle has given advice as to action during the present crisis.

"It is extremely difficult to give any definite advice to students at this time due to the uncertainties brought about by the war situation. Advice that seems sound now might prove to be unwise later," stated Dean Kyle.

"I desire, however, to suggest to all agricultural students who hold contracts or are below draft age to continue your studies and finish college if possible. To those who do not hold contracts and are of draft age or approaching it, I would suggest that you consider the situation very carefully before leaving college. Consult your parents, the head of your department, and, if you feel that I can be of any service, please feel free to come to see me. There is a strong possibility that those of you who register for the draft next semester will have a good chance of finishing a considerable part of your work before being called in to the service. You can rest assured that we will be liberal in allowing substitutions of courses that bear directly on defense work.

"The Government has set up certain policies relating to the deferment of students that is beyond our control here.

"We should keep constantly in mind that this war is going to end some day, and when that day comes, there is going to be perhaps a stronger demand for properly trained men than ever before."

Worried? Need a Lift? Go Hear Singing Cadets!

Singing Cadets Begin New Series of Student Entertainment With Unusual Program of Audience Participation in Singing

By Jack Kieth

Worried? Need a lift? Tired of the monotony of classes? Get away from it all by joining in on the fun at the Assembly Hall tonight at 7. The famous Singing Cadets will be on hand tonight to provide the stage entertainment and Richard Jenkins, director of the Singing Cadets, will be master of ceremonies of a program in which the audience participates.

Personnel officers of the organizations on the campus are planning a series of programs to be given in the Assembly Hall each Saturday night throughout next semester. These will be given for the purpose of discovering student talent and providing free entertainment for the corps on week-ends. Each show will feature some special members on the stage and also a let-your-hair-down audience-participation program.

Under the present plan, each regiment in the corps will have a Saturday night on which one battalion of the regiment will present the program. From these battalion shows, the best talent will be chosen to put on a show for the whole student body. Any one having any ideas on the type of show that should be presented or any one who wants to appear on one of these programs should contact his organization personnel officer.

Aggie-land's Famed Singing Cadets will entertain the corps in a special program to be presented in the Assembly Hall tonight. This group will present several numbers and lead the audience in singing special "audience participation" songs which are known to be favorites of the corps. This is the beginning of special student Saturday night entertainment presented by students.

Practically any kind of entertainment is suitable for this type of program. Nothing serious will be allowed—it's all for fun. It is expected that every thing from yodeling to drama will be tried when the system of self-entertainment gets under way. Nothing of this sort has ever been tried before and there are no customs or traditions to follow, so the policy is to come prepared for anything.

By limiting each show to one hour's length it will be possible for those who plan to attend the corps dances this spring and for those who usually go to the picture show to add this to their entertainment program without changing any of their plans. It is hoped that boys with visitors will feel free to bring them to these shows while they are on the campus.
