Brazos County Home Economics Group Organizes to Aid National Defense

Brazos County home economists have organized to aid more effectively in the nation's war efforts. Thirty-five trained women, many of them homemakers and others employed in public service, formed a local unit of the Texas Home Economics at a meeting Thursday night at the City Hall.

A committee headed by Mrs. Roy Snyder will study the needs of Brazos County residents which home economists can help to meet. Another committee will distribute 150 posters in public places over the county. The posters urge civilians to eat the right food in order to stay fit. The essentials of a good daily diet are also listed.

Unexcelled Masters of Firearms Demonstrate Here This Evening

The famous Topperweins, team in the world. The public is invited to see the exhibition this world's greatest shooting team, will be in Aggeland this weekend for an exhibition. The show starts at 2:30 this afternoon south of the Cavalry stables.

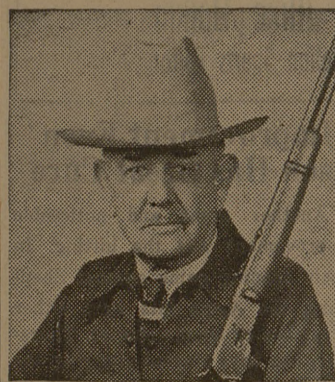

Seeing the Topperweins is like going to a circus—a rapid succession of thrills and exciting feats, each more unbelievable than the one before. These gun wizards have a bag of shooting stunts and records that are unrivaled. Both are remarkable with rifle, pistol, and shotgun, but each has a few tricks that the other hesitates to try.

With 14 world records to his credit, Mr. Topperwein performed a feat which was published in Ripley's Believe It Or Not. Shooting at 72,000 wood blocks (2 1/2 inch) with three .22 rifles, he missed but nine. Out of the first 50,000 he missed only four. This record included several long runs, the longest being 14,560. He shot for ten days, eight hours a day.

Mrs. Topperwein began her shooting career shortly after her marriage, and today is recognized as the greatest all-around woman shot in the world. She handles all types of firearms equally well. One record she holds is breaking 1952 trap targets out of 2000 in 5 hours and 20 minutes—a record in endurance and ability unexcelled by neither man nor woman. The Topperweins have shot in every state in the union during their careers, shooting side by side with the best marksmen, and they remain the undisputed best.

A survey reveals there are now 23 professional sororities.
