Aggies Tankers Have Good Chance to Topple TU in SW Conference Swim Meet Tonight

WACO, March 20.—Coach Lil Dimmitt's baseball nine will conclude their two game series with the Baylor Bears this afternoon at Katy Park. Bill Henderson, Senior moundsman will be Dimmitt's choice for this afternoon.

However, the most important event will be taking place on the ole home grounds at Downs Natatorium tonight when Coach Art Adamson's highly touted swimming team seeks its first win over Texas in 10 years. Yes, 10 years—from the time swimming was considered an inter-collegiate sport until this very day—the Aggies have been coming in second best to Texas university. Their meets have always been a battle, with the Aggies at times coming within a whisker of sinking the Longhorns.

Take last year's meet as an example. For weeks and weeks, Coach Adamson's tankers had been preparing for the Longhorns only to find that the inimitable Longhorn mentor, Tex Robertson, had something up his sleeve. The Aggies brought a strong aggregation to Austin last year, and many will agree that they were stronger than the TU squad. In a dual meet that day, the Ags would have been easier victors since they grabbed 7 out of a possible 10 first places. However, those first places don't seem very much when you take into consideration the second, third, fourth, and fifth spots. That's where most of the points come from, and that's the story of Texas' win over the Aggies, 77-70, last year.

Tonight, Coach Adamson again fields a strong swimming squad—one of the strongest in Aggie history. In a dual meet earlier this year, they swamped Texas, 50-35, and are in an excellent position to duplicate their feat. They have the swimmers to match anything Texas can offer, including first, second, third, or fourth place in most any event.

So come on you land lubbers and sea-hawks to Downs Natatorium and see and enjoy a real swimming battle. The Aggie tankers are championship-hungry and it looks as if they will get their fill tonight!!!

Sports Squibs From Here and There; Tennis Schedule Announced by Coach Manning Smith

Coach Manning Smith has announced the schedule for his tennis team . . . they lead off with East Texas Teachers at Commerce on April 9, go on to S. M. U. at Dallas on April 10, Rice here April 21, Texas at Austin, April 25, Baylor here May 1, and the Conference meet May 7-8-9 . . . the trip to Waco was filled with fun and laughter all the way, with all the boys and H. B. McElroy of the Publicity Department spreading the bull all over the bus . . . In looking over the Aggie batting average we find that the infield seems to be doing all the hitting . . . the outfield, the supposed power-house of any team, in this

Prelims Held Last Night In P. L. Downs Natatorium

By Chick Hurst
For the first time in ten years, the Texas Aggie swimmers are conceded a good chance to wrest the conference swimming crown away from the Texas University Longhorns. In a dual meet early this season the Aggies defeated the Longhorns by eight points in a hard fought battle. It is this early season triumph that leads observers to predict that the Aggies might at long last upset the favored Longhorns and prevent them from copping their eleventh consecutive crown.

Phil Montgomery, ace swimmer of the S. M. U. Mustangs will not be allowed to compete in the meet. Montgomery, counted as a definite threat in the 100 yard breast stroke and 50 yard free style events, was ruled out of the meet last night on account of a protest filed by Coach Tex Robertson of the Texas University Longhorns. Montgomery's entry card was turned in late, and Coach Robertson protested his right to compete in the meet on account of this matter.

With the preliminaries having been run off last night the main event is scheduled to get under way in P. L. Downs natatorium at 7:30 tonight. Four schools, S.M.U., Baylor, Texas, and the Aggies are slated to battle it out for the conference championship, and the meet promises to be one of the most thrilling clashes in Southwest Conference history.

There will be nine events in tonight's meet, all of which should be closely contested. These events (See PRELIMS FINISH, Page 4)

Anderson's Golf Team Will Enter In Competition at Livestock Exposition

Colonel Frank Anderson, coach of the Texas Aggie golf team left early yesterday morning for Fort Worth where his team will compete today in the annual Southwestern Fat Stock Show and Exposition meet.

The team played a practice round yesterday against Texas Wesleyan College of Fort Worth and familiarized themselves with the course over which today's tournament is to be played.

This meet is one of the largest to be held in this section of the country, and in previous years there have been 10 or 12 schools competing for the prize. Because of the fact that most of the other Southwest Conference teams will be entered today, this meet will serve as a good indication of which teams to watch in the forthcoming Southwest Conference meet to be held at Dallas on May 7-8.

Coach Anderson selected five men to make the trip. Number one man on the team, and acting captain for this meet is T. B. "Tommy" Howell. In the elimination competition which was held last Saturday at the Bryan Country Club, Howell's brilliant putting and consistently long drives marked him as the standout member of the squad. Coach Frank Anderson is fortunate in having two stand-out sophomores on this year's team, L. E. Fouraker and H. J.

Wahrmond. Both of these men are able to deal their opponents plenty of misery with their wicked short game, and excel on the greens.

The other two members of the team making the jaunt to the Fort Worth tourney are Wayne Rohrer and Howell Young. In the pre-season warmups this pair has demonstrated a very sound game, and are being counted on heavily to share a great part of the load in this year's matches.

The team's regular schedule opened yesterday with their match against Texas Wesleyan, and the rest of the season's matches are as follows:

- March 21—Fat Stock Show Tournament at Fort Worth.
- March 30—Rice Institute at College Station.
- April 2—Baylor University at College Station.
- April 17—Texas University at Austin.
- April 24—S. M. U. at College Station.
- May 7-8—Southwest Conference meet at Dallas.

Aggie Thinly-Clads Participate In Duo Track Meet Today

Aggies and Owls Block Steer's Chance To Repeat As SW Conference Winners

The Texas Aggie track team will participate in the track and field meet at the Southwestern Fat Stock Show and Exposition in Fort Worth this afternoon.

The Cadets have entered two meets so far this year and have made favorable showings in both of these meets. In the Border Olympics at Laredo two weeks ago the Aggies ran a close second to the University of Texas Longhorns, who nosed out the Cadets by a score of 40-37½.

Last week-end, in a triangular meet with Sam Houston and San Marcos State Teachers Colleges, the Aggies delivered their opponents a severe trouncing and took thirteen out of a possible fifteen first places. They lost in only the javelin and discus events. Sam Houston ran up a score of 28 points and San Marcos totaled 18½ points while the Cadets hit a high of 112½.

In the field and track meet at the Exposition last year over 1200 high school and college athletes were entered but this large number is not expected this year. Despite the decline in the number of participants several records are expected to be broken. The preliminaries were held yesterday while the finals will take place today.

Texas university is the defending champion in the college division but both the Aggies or the Rice Owls are given good chances to upset the Steers and take the honors this year.

The Aggie squad, led by Captain Roy Bucek, is in the peak of condition and is expected to be in the top brackets all the way. Bucek has recently recovered from a thigh injury. Other members of the track team are: Brush, Bruah, F. Bucek, Drake, Garrett, Knight, Labus, McGlothlin, Mitchell, Montgomery, Ricks, Schwarz, Stallings, Vajdos and Ziegler.

Errors Hinder Chances Of Bruins, Provide Both Runs

Scoggin, Newberry Score Crucial Tallies in First and Fifth Innings

WACO, March 20.—Under the four-hit pitching of Charlie Stevenson the Texas Aggies blanked the Baylor Bears 2-0 here yesterday afternoon as the Cadets took the opening game of the 1942 Southwest Conference season.

An error in the second inning by Nonnie Jennings, Bear leftfielder, opened the way for the Aggies' initial tally. Jennings dropped John Scoggin's fly. Porter, Aggie first-sacker, grounded out and Scoggin moved to third and scored on Peden's sacrifice.

Stevenson led off in the fifth stanza with a single and went to second when Newberry was safe on a fielder's choice. On a double steal, Stevenson was thrown out at third base. Glas was safe on an error by Miller and Newberry scored on the play.

Baylor made its sole bid for victory in the ninth inning, when, with one down, Jennings was walked. Miller hit a long fly to center which was dropped by Black and Miller advanced to third. The threat was ended as Garcia grounded out

Fish Baseballers To Meet Allen Ramblers This Afternoon At 3

The Texas Aggie freshman baseball team will open their season this afternoon on Kyle Field at 3:00 o'clock when they meet the Allen Academy Ramblers. Bill Buchanan, former Aggie athlete, is coaching the fish squad which, as yet, is untried. The squad has a number of high school baseball stars who should develop into fine varsity material.

Prof: "What are you doing in college, a nyway?"
Frosh: "I was about to ask you the same question."

to end the game.

INTRAMURALS

By DUB OXFORD

The great rush experienced Thursday night by the intramural department is over. After the dust had cleared away, it was ascertained that 138 upperclassmen had answered the "call duty" and signed up for boxing. The freshmen were more prolific in their endeavor to uphold their organization's place in the sun. Exactly 236 fish weighed-in for the boxing matches.

The matches will begin Thursday night. This inception of the matches will include both class A and class B entrants. Incidentally, the semi-finals in class A and class B wrestling will take place Monday night, and the finals will be held on Wednesday night. Don't forget, the arena is in the big gym; be sure and come down to see the winding-up of this sport.
