with Rice, which was stopped by rain. The team is led by Xavier Fernandez, of Lima, Peru—the number one singles player. Thompson, Marshall, Kredzorn and Patterson make up the remainder of the squad.

Colonel Frank Anderson's golf team also goes into action Thursday. The team this year is led by Captain Wayne Rohrer and star Tommie Howell. The golf meet lasts through Friday.

Preliminaries Friday
Preliminaries in the track events begin Friday afternoon and the finals will be held Saturday. With Roy Bucek back in the running, the conference meet promises to be the most hotly contested one in years. Should the Aggies win, it will be their first conference victory in track since 1930.

George J. Behnke, a 36-year-old electric company employe, recently received a bachelor of science degree from Northwestern university after 17 years in night school. He enrolled at the age of 19 and averaged two evenings a week on the campus. "Just 24 more hours of credit and I'll have a master's degree," he commented.

suitor, but Douglas manages to win her back while posing as an interior decorator, and they elope again.
Double feature today and tomorrow at the Campus includes "HONOLULU LU" and "SHUT MY BIG MOUTH." In "Honolulu Lu," Lupe Velez, as the niece of an adventurer swindler, Leo Carrillo, gets disgusted with her life with her uncle and goes job-hunting in Honolulu.

After a run-in with three sailors, she finds a job in a burlesque theater. Meanwhile, her errant uncle has turned his swindling charms on the rich ladies of a large Honolulu hotel and induced them to hold a charity program. Part of the program is the selection of "Miss Honolulu," which title, after much to do over her being a burlesque queen, Lupe wins. Romantic angle of the picture is handled by Lupe and one of the sailors.

"Shut My Big Mouth" is a nonsensical farce of the west starring Joe E. Brown as the town marshal. Brown receives his job as marshal after he accidentally knocks out three stage-coach bandits.

Joe E. uses every imaginable stunt, from dressing as a woman to characterizing "The Lone Wolf" to catch a gang of kidnappers who are running wild in the wild west. In a manner which is pure slap-stick comedy, he succeeds in catching the outlaws and bringing them to justice.
