Dough Rollins' Departure Hard Blow Both To Coach Norton and A&M Cadet Corps

The mighty man of A. & M. athletics has left!

And when I say the "mighty man" it's not a hard task to guess the man's name. John W. (Dough) Rollins, beloved by every athlete that has ever stepped inside the gates of Aggieland, received his orders Tuesday to report to Camp Hood July 2. Although it is for his country's service that Dough applied for the commission, every Aggie and others who knew the big farmer from Hunt county, find it hard to believe that he is actually going away.

Dough meant more to this school than anyone can imagine. He was part of everything that was here. He was the guide for every athlete who stepped into this school. He looked after their welfare and saw to it that they were treated right. That was one of the primary reasons why the ineligibilities at A. & M. were kept at a low rate.

But the loss of Dough Rollins not only hit the different students and other friends hard, but it was a hammer blow to Coach Homer Norton. For in Dough he lost one of the most valuable assets to Aggie grid hopes in 1942. Not only did Dough prove to be a number one end coach, but he, too, was the jack-of-all-trades in the athletic department. He was business manager and chief scout for the Aggies. The latter job, which would take Rollins scurrying all over the country giving the Aggie opponents the once-over, was an important cog in the Cadet 1939-40-41 championship drives. In fact, Coach Norton regards Dough's scouting duties as a major reason for Aggie gridiron victories. His uncanny eye for spotting important plays proved invaluable as far as the football team was concerned.

Yes, fans, it's a tough blow to lose a guy like Dough Rollins, whose tales of World War days and other "bull" would make an Aggie's day complete. I do know one thing, however. As long as there are such men as Dough in the army, you can bet your bottom dollar that this flag that waves over the free today will continue waving forever and ever.

Sports Squibs From Here and There; Ricks Stallings, and Watkins in Track Meet Today

Albert Ricks and Ken Stallings left for Corpus Christi last night to participate in the invitation track meet there today. . . . They will be joined by Pete Watkins, lanky Aggie high jumper. . . . Ricks and Watkins will go in for the field events while Stallings devotes his time to the 100-yard dash and the 440. . . . Sam Porter, All-Conference first baseman for the Aggies this past year, is batting in the cleanup spot for the Hamilton, Ontario, team according to a letter received from the southpaw by Lil Dimmitt. . . . Sam is hitting the ball at a .390 clip. . . . Jack Crain, former Texas university jack-rabbit back, is around College Station, recruiting Aggies for the Naval Reserve. . . . Jack is an Ensign in the Navy. . . . A session between the writer and John Sidney Smith of the Bryan Daily Eagle provided plans for an all-star game between a selection of Twilight League and Bryan stars. . . . The date has not been set as yet but probably will come during the latter part of July. . . . It will be a two game series one of which will be played at the Sue Haswell Memorial Park in Bryan and the other on the Kyle Field baseball diamond. . . . Also plans for a two-

No Additional Coaches at Present--Norton

Dough Rollins Is Third Coach To Leave for Army

There will be no addition to the A. & M. coaching force, according to Homer Norton, head mentor of the Texas Aggies following the vacancy caused by Coach "Dough" Rollins who is slated to report for active service at Camp Hood next week. The open spot will be taken care of by a reorganization of the present coaching staff and a possible addition of several student coaches to work with the freshman team.

Aggie Greats

"Dough" Rollins, truly one of the "greats" of Texas Aggie grid history, has again answered the call and joined a greater coaching staff, the staff of the United States Army. Capt. Rollins reports July 2 to Camp Hood at Killeen, to serve with the Tank Destroyer Command under Brig. Gen. A. D. Bruce, former Aggie, and classmate of Rollins in 1913-16.

Capt. Rollins was business manager of athletics, varsity track coach, and football end coach, having been here at his alma mater since 1935. He came here from East Texas State Teachers' College, where he had been head coach from 1930 to 1934. He graduated from Texas A. & M. with the class of 1917, after having won football letters in 1914-15-16 and having captained the 1916 eleven. (See ROLLINS, Page 4)

INTRAMURALS

In a thrilling free-scoring Class A softball game E Coast Artillery nosed out D Infantry by a score of 12-11. Eddie Verlander, hurling for the Artillerymen, was a strong factor for the victors, driving out three hits. Jack McMahon and Wally Clore did their bit for the Coast boys with two safeties each.

Organization Recreational Officers are urged to be present at the Recreational Officers meeting in the C.E. lecture room Tuesday at 5 p.m. The Intramural Department is anxious for all officers to attend the meeting. If an officer is unable to attend he should by all means see that his junior assistant is present.

Lipscomb's-Faculty Tilt Is High Spot of Four Games Scheduled Monday

The Twilight League well into its third week of play Monday evening with four tilts scheduled to be reeled off. In probably the most important game of the day, the surprising Faculty team will try to oust Lipscomb's Pharmacy from second place in the standings. So far Lipscomb's boys are a half a game in front of the Profs and Monday's tilt will decide who will take undisputed possession of second place.

The Campus Cleaners, only undefeated team in the league with four wins to its credit, will try to protect their clean slate and extend their league lead when they clash with the Aggie Cleaners. The latter was white-washed by Lou-pot's in their last time out to the tune of 9-0 and will be out to make amends for this defeat at the expense of the league leaders.

Loupot's will try to stay within striking distance of the Campus Cleaners as they will endeavor to turn back the challenge of Madley's Pharmacy. The Pharmacy boys showed plenty of power in holding Holick's to a 4-2 win and are out for "blood" this time. So far they have won one game and lost three.

The jinxed and unlucky Campus Theatre club will be seeking its first win of the season when they clash against Holick's cleaners. The former has suffered four straight setbacks, while the latter has split its games, winning two and losing two.

Statistics Show UC Largest U S College

Annual statistical reports on attendance at American colleges and universities, compiled by Dr. Raymond Walters, president of the University of Cincinnati, show that as in previous years, the University of California, on its Berkeley campus, has the greatest number of full-time students of college grade.

Enrollment at the first 10 universities is as follows: California (Berkeley), 13,968; Minnesota, 13,484; Columbia, 13,072; Illinois, 12,694; Ohio State, 11,730; New York University, 11,698; Michigan, 11,226; Wisconsin, 10,545; Texas, 9,579; University of Washington, 8,774.

Pingpong and Golf Added To Intramural Tournament List

Table tennis and golf have been added to the four sports already on the Intramural department open tournament schedule, according to an announcement made by W. L. Penberthy, head of the Intramural department.

The sports already on the list are handball, tennis, aggie-minton and horseshoes. With the addition of table tennis and golf the participation is expected to be favorable.

Because golf matches will be played off the campus, a greens fee of 25 cents will be required of each entrant in that sport. Participants may play as many holes as they like. The semi-finals and final matches will be free.

The table tennis events will be played in the chapel of the old YMCA. The tables are being arranged and will soon be in playing condition. The chapel was chosen because it will provide the most central location for this sport.

Deadline for entrants to file their entry blanks is 5 p.m. Friday. All entry blanks must be turned in at the Intramural office in person. Further information and details may be obtained from that office.
